God Provides a Way of Escape Dr. Gwendola Williams, 2012-03-22 God loves us and wants us to love Him each other and ourselves God never intended anyone to be victimized and it is important that we love and respect ourselves holding ourselves in high regard Domestic violence is sin and violent interactions break the greatest commandments Violence is incompatible with love and that's why it is important to embrace God's word to find out exactly what it says to us about God's love Furthermore we know the Holy Spirit neither produces nor condones abuse for love and gentleness are Fruit of the Spirit according to Galatians We are precious to Him We are valuable to God and His sacrifice for us proves that No matter what we have been told what experiences we have had what mistakes we have made God loves us and wants us to be loved We do not have to labor in an arena God never intended for us to labor in He wants us to be free If you are in a relationship that threatens your mental and physical health your soul and your temple seek guidance and strength from a God who knows your struggle He is ready to deliver you because you have dwelt long enough on this mountain The Church's Response to Domestic Violence Dr. Char M. Newbold, 2024-06-13 Abuse is hiding in our churches Our women and children are being wounded and even dying in their homes by those who have committed to love and protect them Domestic violence is present in families you would never suspect from the most respected to the least noticed even the family sitting near you in church Women are told God hates divorce learn to submit pray more turn the other cheek look at the plank in their own eye first forgive 70 times 7 By giving such advice to women living in abusive relationships well intentioned church leaders are sending women and children back into dangerous possibly deadly situations In The Church's Response to Domestic Violence a guide based on scriptural truth church leaders will learn the complexities of the dynamics of domestic violence who abuses and who is abused the effects of violence in the home the dangers of couples counseling how to respond to disclosures of abuse why she keeps going back why she doesn't just leave We need our clergy and church leaders to reject the false ideologies that put God's children at risk and equip the Church to be the clear voice of hope and healing for families Taking It Seriously Genee Goertzen, 2024-08-12 Domestic violence harms congregants and impacts our churches Abuse affects millions across this nation and around the world including individuals in your own congregation Informed by research and verified by experience this book provides practical guidance for pastors and lay leaders to faithfully address and respond to this crisis The influence of pastoral care and congregational preparedness from the author's seminary education and community practice social work lens is clearly evident The chapters are well researched trauma conscious and survivor informed The supplemental unique and comprehensive glossary of domestic violence terms crafted specifically for faith based ministry sets this book apart Prevention and intervention guidelines along with valuable recommendations for interacting with victims and survivors is the instructive content needed to propel faith leaders to action and improve the way domestic violence is handled within churches God Provides a Way of Escape Gwendola Williams, 2003 God loves us and wants us to love Him each other and ourselves God never intended anyone to be victimized and it is important that we love and respect ourselves holding ourselves in high regard Domestic violence is sin and violent interactions break the greatest commandments Violence is incompatible with love and that's why it is important to embrace God's word to find out exactly what it says to us about God's love Furthermore we know the Holy Spirit neither produces nor condones abuse for love and gentleness are Fruit of the Spirit according to Galatians We are precious to Him We are valuable to God and His sacrifice for us proves that No matter what we have been told what experiences we have had what mistakes we have made God loves us and wants us to be loved We do not have to labor in an arena God never intended for us to labor in He wants us to be free If you are in a relationship that threatens your mental and physical health your soul and your temple seek guidance and strength from a God who knows your struggle He is ready to deliver you because you have dwelt long enough on this mountain

Feminist Trauma Theologies Karen O'Donnell, Katie Cross, 2025-01-30 Throughout the study of trauma theology runs a lineage that is deeply feminist As traumatic experience is being more frequently acknowledged in public this book seeks to articulate an explicit understanding of feminist trauma theology for the first time Bringing together scholars from a range of disciplines this book explores the relationship between trauma and feminist theologies highlighting methodological theological and practical similarities between the two The MeToo and ChurchToo movements sexual abuse scandals gender based violence pregnancy loss and the oppression of women in church spaces are all featured as important topics With contributions from a diverse team of scholars this book is an essential resource for all thinkers and practitioners who are trying to navigate the current conversations around theology suffering and feminism

Freeing the Oppressed Ron Clark, 2009-09-01 When Jesus spoke at his local synagogue he boldly proclaimed that he was the one sent to free those who were oppressed He came to provide hope peace and safety to those suffering in the world When he left this earth his followers were left with the task of continuing this ministry Statistics suggest that in America one in four women has experienced physical violence in an intimate relationship Dating violence intimate partner violence and child abuse rank as some of our nation's largest problems Men are also being abused by intimate partners parents or care providers at increasing rates The statistic is even more alarming worldwide Unfortunately these statistics represent only reported incidents The rates of verbal emotional and spiritual abuse are even higher In addition countless women are encouraged by clergy to return to their abusive spouses The faith community while called by God to free the oppressed has been slow to respond to this sin against humanity Few seminaries offer quality domestic violence prevention training for clergy However clergy still continue to be sought for help from the community and as advocates for victims of domestic violence A partnership between the church and community locally and abroad is necessary if we wish to transform humans caught in this form of oppression In Setting the Captives Free Ron Clark proposed a theology of addressing domestic violence and its application for clergy Freeing the Oppressed is a book that seeks to condense Clark's previous work into a readable form for those seeking spiritual answers concerning abuse and batterer intervention and for helpers of those caught in the cycle of family violence It is also designed as an outreach for those seeking help from the faith community
