M.

Conradie, 2013 Christians seeking to save the Earth have to relate creation to salvation by doing justice to both themes This study explores the ambiguous legacy of the ways in which this challenge has been approached in the reformed tradition of Swiss Dutch and German origins and in the reception of this tradition in South Africa The book focuses on the diverging interpretations of the category of re creation in this regard Series Studies in Religion and the Environment Studien zur Religion und Umwelt Vol 8 Christianity and Ecological Theology E. Circling the Table William Johnson Everett, 2024-06-25 What if Christian worship took place as a conversation at a round table spread with elements of earth's gifts of nurture and beauty This book describes such a practice Roundtable Worship and lays out a fresh and challenging theological foundation for it Central to this foundation is the struggle to reconstruct the images of governance and justice that have always lain at the heart of a worship shaped by biblical traditions Drawing on the practice of circle conversations at the heart of movements for reconciliation and restorative justice Everett presents a theological vision rooted in biblical covenant making a social image of the Trinity and an understanding of the church as the covenanted public of Christ's Spirit Roundtable worship provides a hospitable setting where people can begin to give deeper

Ernst M. Conradie, Cynthia Moe-Lobeda, 2023-03-01 This second volume in the series on An Earthed Faith will address the following question Given what we know about the Anthropocene how does one even begin to answer the question What is this God up to and how ought humans respond This is a question of theological method including the sources and interlocutors of Christian theology its aims and starting points social theories shaping it and presuppositions grounding it Addressing this question is the classic task of doing contextual theology namely describing and analysing a particular context and considering how this context may best be addressed theologically and practically The question highlights the need for prophetic theology to discern the signs of the time to recognise a moment of truth Kairos and to discern counter movements of the Spirit The question of method opens the door to constructive critique of how theology has been done and should be done The Task of Theology Anselm Min , 2014-09-11 A rare opportunity to read and reflect upon the thought of some of the most prominent voices in contemporary theology in one volume this collection offers informative indicators of the state of theology today Together these provocative essays offer a resource for teachers and a chance to facilitate conversation among those working in different areas of an increasingly fragmented discipline Publisher

Pentecostal Ecclesiology Simon K.H. Chan, 2019-05-21 This book argues that if the Pentecostal movement is to overcome its excessive individualism and structural instability the way forward is not more institutionalization but a coherent and robust ecclesiology based on the Pentecost event which is the coming of the Holy Spirit in his own person into the church A Pentecostal ecclesiology is essentially the working out of the ramifications of that key event The book takes a more ontological understanding of the relationship between the Spirit and the church than would Protestant and evangelical ecclesiologies In this respect it has more in common with Orthodoxy It is further argued that this realignment away from Protestantism and evangelicalism towards Orthodoxy far from removing Pentecostals from their roots actually brings them much closer to the heart of Pentecostal spirituality Paul Tillich and Pentecostal Theology Nimi Wariboko, Amos Yong, 2015-11-17 Paul Tillich 1886 1965 is widely regarded as one of the most influential theologians of the 20th century By bringing his thought together with the theology and practices of an important contemporary Christian movement Pentecostalism this volume provokes active productive critical and creative dialogue with a broad range of theological topics
