Going Wild Jan E. Dizard, 1999 First published in 1994 this is an examination of the ways in which different conceptions of nature shape our responses to specific environmental issues In this revised edition Jan E Dizard adds a new chapter updating the controversy over the state managed deer hunt at the Quabbin Reservoir in Massachusetts and placing it in a broader national context Indigenous Resurgence Jaskiran Dhillon, 2022-03-31 From the Standing Rock Sioux Tribe s resistance against the Dakota Access pipeline to the Nepalese Newar community s protest of the Fast Track Road Project Indigenous peoples around the world are standing up and speaking out against global capitalism to protect the land water and air By reminding us of the fundamental importance of placing Indigenous politics histories and ontologies at the center of our social movements Indigenous Resurgence positions environmental justice within historical social political and economic contexts exploring the troubling relationship between colonial and environmental violence and reframing climate change and environmental degradation through an anticolonial lens Going Wild Jan E. Dizard, 1999 First published in 1994 this is an examination of the ways in which different conceptions of nature shape our responses to specific environmental issues In this revised edition Jan E Dizard adds a new chapter updating the controversy over the state managed deer hunt at the Quabbin Reservoir in Massachusetts and placing it in a broader national context Our Dumb Animals George Thorndike Angell, 1911 Animals, 1911 The Struggle for Modernism Anthony Alofsin, 2002 A history of modernism in the teaching of architecture landscape architecture and city planning at Harvard Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists, 1972-09 The Bulletin of the Atomic Scientists is the premier public resource on scientific and technological developments that impact global security Founded by Manhattan Project Scientists the Bulletin s iconic Doomsday Clock stimulates solutions for a safer world New York Times Saturday Book Review Supplement, 1970 The New York Times Book Review, 1933 Animal Rights Vs. Nature Walter Egner Howard, 1990 In Nature's Interests? Gary E. Varner, 2002-03-21 This book offers a powerful response to what Varner calls the two dogmas of environmental ethics the assumptions that animal rights philosophies and anthropocentric views are each antithetical to sound environmental policy Allowing that every living organism has interests which ought other things being equal to be protected Varner contends that some interests take priority over others He defends both a sentientist principle giving priority to the lives of organisms with conscious desires and an anthropocentric principle giving priority to certain very inclusive interests which only humans have He then shows that these principles not only comport with but provide significant support for environmental goals In Defense of Hunting James A. Swan, 1995 In prose that vibrantly evokes the beauty and the cruelty of nature and the archetypal nature of the hunt James Swan argues that acknowledging the instinctual roots of the hunt is vital to repairing our modern alienation from nature and crucial to our understanding of our basic human needs Swan is also the author of Nature as Teacher and Healer Copyright Libri GmbH All rights reserved Wild Animals and American Environmental Ethics Lisa

Mighetto,1991 Human attitudes toward animals have followed an interesting progression since the conservation movement began in the mid 19th century This book traces the changing patterns of human perceptions of wild animals through a study of the literature of the late 19th and 20th centuries Photographs as well as literary references from such authors as Jack London John Muir and Rachel Carson are used to illustrate people s attitudes toward wildlife The author does not argue either for or against the animal rights movement She advocates acceptance of animals as they are and tries to combat the human centeredness that has pervaded our thinking about the animal kingdom This well written volume would be an interesting addition to environmental collections in academic libraries Amazon com Lib J review

The Delights and Dilemmas of Hunting Forrest Wood,1997 The pro hunting anti hunting controversy is a national issue that reaches from California to New York to Florida Hunters defend their activity while anti hunters vehemently condemn it This book presents arguments from both groups and will help to broaden the perspective of each side This book will be useful to students and scholars of environmental ethics Contents The Case for Hunting The Case Against Hunting Leopold s Ethics of Hunting Political and Religious Factors of Hunting Responsibility Challenge and the Future

Animal Rights and Wrongs Roger Scruton,1998 A revised and improved edition of a book in continuing demand Do animals have rights If not do we have duties towards them If so what duties These are myriad other issues are discussed in this brilliantly argued book published in association with the leading think tank Demos Why are animal rights groups so keen to protect the rights of badgers and foxes but not of rats mice or even humans How can we bridge the growing gap between rural producers and urban consumers Why is raising animals for fur more heinous than raising them for their meat Are we as human beings driving other species either to extinction or to a state of dependency This paperback edition is fully updated with new chapters on the livestock crisis fishing and BSE and a layman s guide introduction to philosophical concepts the book presents a radical response to the defenders of animal rights and a challenge to those who think that because they are kind to their pets they are therefore good news for animals

Wild animals form an integral component of the human leisure experience They are a significant part of the leisure industry and are economically valuable entities However as sentient beings animals also have rights and welfare needs and like humans may also have their own leisure desires and requirements This collection provides an in depth analysis of the rights and welfare of humans and wild animals as the two relate to one another within the sphere of leisure studies It examines a wide array of animals such as wolves elephants dolphins and apes in a diverse range of leisure settings in international locations from captive wild animals in zoos hunting swimming with dolphins and animals used as educators and for tourist entertainment This book provides a forum for future considerations of wild animals and leisure and a voice for animal welfarist agendas that seek to improve the conditions under which wild animals interact with and are engaged with by humans
