Jours De France Mireille Mathieu:

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumi_ re screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges MZli_s Alice Guy BlachZ and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumi_ re brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe R ge identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director s entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual s education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and RenZ Clair_to French New Wave artists such as Fran_ois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard The Cultural and Intellectual Rebuilding of France After the Second World War M. Kelly, 2004-09-23

This book reveals how France reinvented itself in the aftermath of World War Two After foreign military interventions the French political and intellectual elites embraced regime change and launched an urgent programme of nation building They rebuilt French national identity with whatever material was available and created a vibrant new cultural and intellectual life The cost to subordinated groups however especially women still casts a long shadow over French values and attitudes In this perhaps there are lessons and implications for other countries struggling to rebuild themselves after conflict Profession
