verse and a fun craft activity Broken Words Paul Scott Wilson,2010-09-01 A look at what both our successes and failures in preaching can tell us about how to craft better sermons Paul Wilson has long been one of the most important figures among those who seek a richer and more complete understanding of what preaching is and how it might be made better In this new book he draws on his broad and deep work in homiletics to show preachers how to craft a variety of types of sermons How do you preach from the Old Testament What are the particular needs and challenges of preaching the Good Friday and then the Easter sermon What do you do when you want to address contemporary events Recognizing that all sermons are in some ways broken words he includes in each chapter an illustrative sermon some of which work well yet others of which don't If you stand in the pulpit long he reminds us you're going to preach your share of both You would do well to learn then how either kind of sermon the ones you're proud of and the ones you want to forget can provide ample opportunities to learn how to be a more effective and faithful preacher of the gospel Readers will learn how to vary the sources styles and substance of their sermons Key Benefits Will empower the reader to move outside their comfort zone in preaching thus engaging the broader possibilities for preaching Will help the reader to learn how to assess both their strong and weak sermons and learn from each Bible Stories & Crafts: New Testament Mary Tucker,2007-01-10 Bible stories from the Old and New Testaments are presented in creative ways to help children understand God's work and His presence in their everyday lives Each story is accompanied by discussion questions a memory verse and a fun craft activity religions equally close to and equally far from God Why then the Church Gerhard Lohfink poses these questions with scholarly reliability and on the basis of his own experience of community in Does God Need the Church In 1982 Father Lohfink wrote Wie hat Jesus Gemeinde gewollt translated into English as Jesus and Community to show on the basis of the New Testament that faith is founded in a community that distinguishes itself in clear contours from the rest of society In that book he also described a sequence of events that moved directly from commonality to a community that was readily accessible to every group of people and was made legitimate by Jesus himself Only later did Father Lohfink learn within a new horizon of experience that such a description is not the way to community The story of the gathering of the people of God from Abraham until today never took place according to such a model Today Father Lohfink states that he would not write Wie hat Jesus Gemeinde gewollt the same way The situation of belief and believers has undergone a shift the question of the Church has become much more urgent Church life is declining and the religions are returning often in new guises In light of these shifts and the change in his own view of community Father Lohfink inquires in Does God Need the Church of Israel's theology Jesus praxis the experiences of the early Christian communities and of what is appearing in the Church today These inquiries lead to an amazing history involving God and the world a history that God presses forward with the aid of a single people and that always turns out differently from what they think and plan Faith for These End-Times Jim Buller, 2012 What caused Noah to build the ark when he had never seen rain Faith What caused Abraham to move to a land he had never seen before Faith What caused the centurion to believe that Jesus could heal his servant Faith How does God want His children to live their lives By faith Faith for These End Times examines numerous stories of faith recorded in the pages of God's Word for insight into how we can develop a strong faith for today and the future Through faith God's people will emerge victorious over Satan but we must be ready lest we be like the five foolish virgins who although they waited for the bridegroom were not really ready to meet him Faith for These End Times will strengthen your faith through the study of God's Word and the Spirit of Prophecy to prepare for Christ's soon coming Develop your faith today it is all you will have in the end Fleshly Tabernacles Bryan Adams Hampton, 2012-11-15 In Fleshly Tabernacles Bryan Hampton examines John Milton's imaginative engagement with and theological passion for the Incarnation As aesthetic symbol theological event and narrative picture of humanity's potential the Incarnation profoundly governs the way Milton structures his 1645 Poems ponders the holy office of the pulpit reflects on the ends of speech and language interprets sacred scripture or secular texts and engages in the radical politics of the Civil War and Interregnum Richly drawing upon the disciplines of historical and postmodern theology philosophical hermeneutics theological aesthetics and literary theory Fleshly Tabernacles pursues the wide ranging implications of the heterodox perfectionist strain in Milton's Christology Hampton illustrates how vibrant Christologies generated and shaped particular brands of anticlericalism theories of reading and language and political commitments of English nonconformist sects during the turbulent decades of the seventeenth century Ranters and Seekers Diggers and Quakers Fifth monarchists and some Anabaptists many of those identified with these radical groups proclaim that the Incarnation is primarily understood not as a singular event of antiquity but as a present eruption and charged manifestation within the life of the individual believer such that faithful believers become fleshly tabernacles housing the Divine The perfectionist strain in Milton's theology resonated in the works of the Independent preacher John Everard the Digger Gerrard Winstanley and the Quaker James Nayler Fleshly Tabernacles intriguingly demonstrates how ideas of the incarnated Christ flourished in the world of revolutionary England expressed in the notion that the regenerated human self could repair the ruins of church and state
