presented in a unique way that will allow you to use the meal itself as a visual illustration of eternal truths from God's Word relating the food at the table to food for one's soul. Start feeding souls as well as bodies at your dinner table as your evening meal becomes a cherished time for reconnecting with each other and with the Lord. Beth Lyle is a wife, mother, and grandmother who loves God. She is a former student of Trinity Seminary and a passionate believer in the power of God's Word. She is a Teaching Director for Community Bible Study, a featured retreat speaker, and sings in a ladies trio, One Heart. As a home school mom, she realized the importance of teaching children at a young age to love God and to make Him the most important part of life. Children must know that to miss God is to miss everything. Her desire is to see families talk about God in a relaxed setting, making Him as real as the air they breathe, just as we do not see air but it is there, so is God. Beth resides in Greenwood, SC, with her husband, Andy, and their daughter, Anna.

The African Meets The Black American Kwame A. Insaadoo & Roxanna Pearson Insaadoo, Roxanna Pearson Insaadoo, 2006-09-26. The African has been separated from his Black American brothers and sisters since the dawn of the Trans Atlantic Slave Trade. Millions of Africans were forcibly ejected from their native soil, separated from their loved ones, their mothers, fathers, sisters, brothers, and torn from the lives they once knew and transplanted into a new world. Essentially, the black American has become a new person in a new world with a unique experience. After hundreds of years in the new world, coupled with their unique experience, how do they view or see or relate or perceive or better yet interact with their African kith and kin they left on the African continent who are now voluntarily joining them in America in exodus proportions, fleeing the life of grinding poverty, deprivation, hunger, dictatorships, helplessness, and all kinds of diseases. The authors spent more than twenty-five years trying to find out answers to these questions.

The Misconception of God Elder Melvin Jordan, 2010-01-21. The Misconception of God is a book about basic information and knowledge of God, of His works, and of His spiritual gifts. I was led by God's Spirit, Holy Spirit, to write this book, and it is Him who gave me the title of the book. It is a great book for those who are thinking about giving their life to Christ and want to know of God and His ways. It also is a book for new and seasoned Christians as well. The book talks about the fruit characteristics of the Holy Spirit. It also speaks about the different things that we have to go through as Christians and how to deal with them. I would look at the book in a whole as a format to Christianity.
