Memory, War, and Dictatorship in Recent Spanish Fiction by Women Sarah Leggott, 2015-06-10 Memory War and Dictatorship in Recent Spanish Fiction by Women analyzes five novels by women writers that present women's experiences during and after the Spanish Civil War and Franco dictatorship highlighting the struggles of female protagonists of different ages to confront an unresolved individual and collective past. It discusses the different narrative models and strategies used in these works and the ways in which they engage with their political and historical context particularly in the light of campaigns for the so called recovery of historical memory in Spain the memory boom and in the broader context of memory and trauma studies. The novels that are examined in this book are Dulce Chacón's La voz dormida 2002 Rosa Regés's Luna lunera 1999 Josefina Aldecoa's La fuerza del destino 1997 Carme Riera's La mitad del alma 2005 and Almudena Grandes's El corazón helado 2007. These works all highlight the multiple nature of memories and histories and demonstrate the complex ways in which the past impacts on the present. This book also considers the extent to which the memories represented in these five novels are inflected by gender and informed by the gender politics of twentieth century and contemporary Spain.

Francoist Repression and Incarceration in Contemporary Spanish Culture Maureen Tobin Stanley, 2022-10-10. This book examines the cultural articulation of Spanish History and histories remembered meaningful experiences. It analyzes how real people and fictional characters experience the rupture of post war repression as their vindicating collective memory counters the authoritarian narrative and laws that demonized and criminalized them. The book that breaks the persistent cycle of denial of Francoist malfeasance is a resource for scholars and students who research the representation of Spain's dictatorship its aftermath and the recovery of postdictatorial memory.

Hybridity in Spanish Culture Emily Knudson-Vilaseca, Maureen Tobin Stanley, María P. Tajés, 2011-05-25. Hybridity in Spanish Culture is an anthology that explores hybridity in select works from the dawn of Imperial Spain to the twenty first century. The phenomenon of hybridity has been pervasive throughout Spanish history. The hybrid literary and visual texts studied in this volume ranging from aljamiado writings and the legacy from the convivencia to contemporary immigration narratives blur or erase purportedly fixed boundaries between history and fiction story and History nationality and transnationalism subjectivity and objectivity as well as between genres cultures languages and eras. Hybridity constitutes the state of simultaneously belonging to categories that had previously been considered exclusive. It renders the concept of pure as a construct a chosen perception a psychic imposition on experience. Implicit within hybridity is a fusion of two or more separate factors entities or concepts but the essential aspect of this fusion is that the hybrid text becomes an original. Hence hybridity nods to the past but points to the future. Hybridity in Spanish Culture written both in Spanish and English as a metahybrid is a collection about hybridity that is a hybrid itself. In hopes of blurring borders dissipating taxonomies and dehierarchizing binary oppositions the European and US authors and editors contribute to cultural studies scholarship and underscore the omnipresence and ubiquity of interstitial conditions as they relate to national or cultural identity linguistic crossings inter genre blendings and the conception of home and belonging Women Political Prisoners after the Spanish Civil War Ruth Fisher, 2020-11-24 At the end of the Spanish Civil War the Nationalist government instigated mass repression against anyone suspected of loyalty to the defeated Republican side Around 200 000 people were imprisoned for political crimes in the weeks and months following 1st April 1939 including thousands of women who were charged with offences ranging from directing the home front to supporting their loved ones engaged in combat Many women wrote and published texts about their experiences seeking to make their voices heard and to counteract the dehumanising master narrative of the right wing victors that had criminalised their existence The memoirs of Communist women such as Tomasa Cuevas and Juana Do a have heavily influenced our understanding of life in prison for women under franquismo while texts by non Communist women have largely been ignored This monograph offers a comparative study of the life writing of female political prisoners in Spain focusing on six texts in particular the two volumes of C rcel de mujeres by Tomasa Cuevas Desde la noche y la niebla by Juana Do a R quien por la libertad by ngeles Garc a Madrid Abajo las dictaduras by Josefa Garcia Segret and Aquello sucedi as by ngeles Malonda All the texts share common themes such as describing the hunger and repression that all political prisoners suffered However the ideologically driven narratives of Communist women often foreground representations of resistance at the expense of exploring the emotional and intellectual struggle for survival that many women political prisoners faced in the aftermath of the Spanish Civil War This study nuances our understanding of imprisoned women as individuals and as a collective analysing how women political prisoners sought recognition and justice in the face of a vindictive dictatorship It also explores the women s response to the spirit of convivencia during the transition to democracy which once again threatened to silence them

Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty-First-Century French and Spanish Women's Writing Hannie Lawlor, 2024-08-28 Relational Responses to Trauma in Twenty First Century French and Spanish Women s Writing offers new insight into what it means to write relational lives It broadens the parameters of existing discussions in terms of geography as well as genre drawing together two literatures whose prominence in life writing theory to date could hardly be more different while French women s writing has long been at the centre of international discussions of autobiography the relative invisibility of Spanish women s writing remains striking The dialogue that thus underpins this study between diverse twenty first century case studies and broader approaches to life writing shines a light on what is gained from inviting different voices into the discussion These narrative projects challenge longstanding critical assumptions in autobiography studies and trauma theory about how writers can and should represent the multiple perspectives that are at the heart of intergenerational stories In exploring the narrative solutions that these texts propose in response to the ethical questions they navigate this book shows that writing relational lives rests on far more than the mere recounting of a shared history Relating in these texts it proposes is an act embedded in the telling of the story It is a mode of testifying together to traumatic experience one that reveals a powerful preoccupation in contemporary women's life writing practice with making more audible the many voices and versions that go unheard

Spanish Women Writers and Spain's Civil War Maryellen Bieder, Roberta Johnson, 2016-12-01 The Spanish Civil War 1936-1939 pitted conservative forces including the army the Church the Falange fascist party landowners and industrial capitalists against the Republic installed in 1931 and supported by intellectuals the petite bourgeoisie many campesinos farm laborers and the urban proletariat Provoking heated passions on both sides the Civil War soon became an international phenomenon that inspired a number of literary works reflecting the impact of the war on foreign and national writers While the literature of the period has been the subject of scholarship women's literary production has not been studied as a body of work in the same way that literature by men has been and its unique features have not been examined Addressing this lacuna in literary studies this volume provides fresh perspectives on well known women writers as well as less studied ones whose works take the Spanish Civil War as a theme The authors represented in this collection reflect a wide range of political positions Writers such as Maria Zambrano Merc Rodoreda and Josefina Aldecoa were clearly aligned with the Republic whereas others including Mercedes Salisachs and Liberata Masoliver sympathized with the Nationalists Most however are situated in a more ambiguous political space although the ethics and character portraits that emerge in their works might suggest Republican sympathies Taken together the essays are an important contribution to scholarship on literature inspired by this pivotal point in Spanish history

Memory and Cultural History of the Spanish Civil War, 2013-10-02 The authors in this anthology explore how we are to rethink political and social narratives of the Spanish Civil War at the turn of the twenty first century The questions addressed here are based on a solid intellectual conviction of all the contributors to resist facile arguments both on the Right and the Left concerning the historical and collective memory of the Spanish Civil War and the dictatorship in the milieu of post transition to democracy Central to a true democratic historical narrative is the commitment to listening to the other experiences and the willingness to rethink our present's in light of our past's The volume is divided in six parts I Institutional Realms of Memory II Past Imperfect Gender Archetypes in Retrospect III The Many Languages of Domesticity IV Realms of Oblivion Hunger Repression and Violence V Strangers to Ourselves Autobiographical Testimonies and VI The Orient Within Myths of Hispano Arabic Identity Contributors are Antonio Cazorla Sánchez lex Bueno Fernando Martínez López Miguel Gómez Oliver Mary Ann Dellinger Geoffrey Jensen Paula A de la Cruz Fernández María del Mar Logroño Narbona M Cinta Ramblado Minero Deirdre Finnerty Victoria L Enders Pilar Domínguez Prats Sofia Rodríguez López scar Rodríguez Barreira Nerea Aresti and Miren Llona Listed by Choice magazine as one of the Outstanding Academic Titles of 2014

Olszewski, 2025-07-16 There's more to Spanish literature than Don Quixote In addition to Miguel de Cervantes Saavedra's immortal classic Spain produced the earliest evidence of works in a Romance dialect debuted the picaresque genre and introduced the Don Juan figure to the world This guide analyzes the merits and shortcomings of nearly 300 English translations of 100 major works of Spanish literature in poetry prose and theater Each entry summarizes the importance of the author and the work discusses elements of the translations such as the source text formats supplementary material and translators methodology and provides commentary that evaluates the fidelity and readability of the translations and the utility of the supplementary material Memory and Spatiality in Post-Millennial Spanish Narrative Lorraine Ryan, 2016-04-22 Focusing on literary texts produced from 2000 to 2009 Lorraine Ryan examines the imbrication between the preservation of Republican memory and the transformations of Spanish public space

during the period from 1931 to 2005 Accordingly Ryan analyzes the spatial empowerment and disempowerment of Republican memory and identity in Dulce Chacón's Cielos de barro Angeles López's Martina la rosa nmero trece Alberto Mández's Los girasoles ciegos Carlos Ruiz Zafón's La sombra del viento Emili Teixidor's Pan negro Bernardo Atxaga's El hijo del acordeonista and Jos María Merino's La sima The interrelationship between Republican subalternity and space is redefined by these writers as tense and constantly in flux undermined by its inexorable relationality which leads to subjects endeavoring to instill into space their own values Subjects erode the hegemonic power of the public space by articulating in an often surreptitious form their sense of belonging to a prohibited Republican memory culture In the democratic period they seek a categorical reinstatement of same on the public terrain Ryan also considers the motivation underlying this coterie of authors commitment to the issue of historical memory an analysis which serves to amplify the ambits of existing scholarship that tends to ascribe it solely to postmemory
