Literature's Contributions to Scientific Knowledge Dario Maestri, 2019-02-08 The most important intellectual development in the academy in the 21st century has been the forging of new relationships between the sciences and the humanities and the realization that interdisciplinary scholarship holds the promise of the unification of all knowledge This groundbreaking book shows how this can be fulfilled Through a wide ranging analysis of arguments concerning the complementarity of arts and sciences advanced by Schelling and Goethe and those about the cognitive value of literature articulated by contemporary philosophers the book shows that literary fiction can contribute to the scientific understanding of human nature With a careful and original examination of autobiographical material and literary texts it demonstrates that European novelists such as Leopold von Sacher Masoch Italo Svevo and Elias Canetti conducted ambitious and innovative literary explorations of the human mind and human behavior using Darwinian theory as their scientific framework and in doing so they anticipated the theoretical developments and empirical findings of cognitive social and evolutionary psychology by almost 100 years The work of these novelists was largely misunderstood by literary scholars but this book s re discovery and illustration of what these writers attempted to accomplish and how they did it show one important path leading to the future unification of all knowledge about the human condition

Zeno's Conscience Italo Svevo, 2015 Zeno s Conscience La Coscienza di Zeno by Italo Svevo is a masterpiece of Italian literature of the 20th century The book is narrated by Zeno Cosini a middle aged man who decides to write his memories in an attempt to understand himself and his life Through his reflections the author explores themes such as identity psychoanalysis death illness and love The narrative is filled with humor and irony but it is also deeply philosophical and introspective Zeno is a complex and contradictory character whose actions are often motivated by selfish and thoughtless impulses The author accurately describes the human mind with its contradictions and weaknesses Svevo is a master in creating memorable characters such as the sisters Ada whom he is in love with and Augusta and Guido his rival in the conquest of Ada Svevo s language is clear innovative and ironic Zeno s Conscience is a work that challenges the reader to reflect on life and human nature and continues to be one of the most important and influential works of Italian literature

Zeno's Conscience Italo Svevo, 2015-03-18 Long hailed as a seminal work of modernism in the tradition of Joyce and Kafka and now available in a supple new English translation Italo Svevo s charming and splendidly idiosyncratic novel conducts readers deep into one hilariously hyperactive and endlessly self deluding mind The mind in question belongs to Zeno Cosini a neurotic Italian businessman who is writing his confessions at the behest of his psychiatrist Here are Zeno s interminable attempts to quit smoking his courtship of the beautiful yet unresponsive Ada his unexpected and unexpectedly happy marriage to Ada s homely sister Augusta and his affair with a shrill voiced aspiring singer Relating these misadventures with wry wit and a perspicacity at once unblinking and compassionate Zeno s Conscience is a miracle of psychological realism

Nilsson,2010-04-20 Italy is a country that exercises a hold on the imagination of people all over the world

Its long history has left an inexhaustible treasure chest of cultural achievement. The historic cities of Rome, Florence and Venice are among the most sought after destinations in the world for tourists and art lovers and Italy's natural beauty and cuisine are rightly renowned. Italy's history and politics are also a source of endless fascination. Modern Italy has consistently been a political laboratory for the rest of Europe. In the 19th century Italian patriotism was of crucial importance in the struggle against the absolute governments reintroduced after the Congress of Vienna 1814-15. After the fall of Fascism during World War II Italy became a model of rapid economic development though its politics has never been less than contentious and its democracy has remained a troubled one. The A to Z of Modern Italy is an attempt to introduce the key personalities, events, social developments and cultural achievements of Italy since the beginning of the 19th century when Italy first began to emerge as something more than a geographical entity and national feeling began to grow. This is done through a chronology, a list of acronyms and abbreviations, an introductory essay, a map, a bibliography and some 400 cross-referenced dictionary entries on prominent individuals, basic institutions, crucial events, history, politics, economics, society and culture.

Historical Dictionary of Italian Cinema Gino Moliterno, 2020-12-08. Italian cinema is now regarded as one of the great cinemas of the world. Historically, however, its fortunes have varied. Following a brief moment of glory in the early silent era, Italian cinema appeared to descend almost into irrelevance in the early 1920s. A strong revival of the industry which gathered pace during the 1930s was abruptly truncated by the advent of World War II. The end of the war, however, initiated a renewal as films such as Roma città aperta (Rome Open City), Sciusci Shoeshine (1946) and Ladri di biciclette (Bicycle Thieves, 1948) flagbearers of what soon came to be known as Neorealism attracted unprecedented international acclaim and a reputation that only continued to grow in the following years as Italian films were feted worldwide. Ironically, they were celebrated nowhere more than in the United States where Italian films consistently garnered the lion's share of the Oscars, with Lina Wertmüller becoming the first woman to ever be nominated for the Best Director award. This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Italian Cinema contains a chronology, an introduction and an extensive bibliography. The dictionary section has over 400 cross-referenced entries on major movements, directors, actors, actresses, film genres, producers, industry organizations and key films. This book is an excellent resource for students, researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Italian Cinema.

Archaeology of the Unconscious Alessandra Aloisi, Fabio Camilletti, 2019-07-10 In reconstructing the birth and development of the notion of unconscious historians of ideas have heavily relied on the Freudian concept of Unbewussten retroactively projecting the psychoanalytic unconscious over a constellation of diverse cultural experiences taking place in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries between France and Germany Archaeology of the Unconscious aims to challenge this perspective by adopting an unusual and thought provoking viewpoint as the one offered by the Italian case from the 1770s to the immediate aftermath of WWI when Italo Svevo's La coscienza di Zeno provides Italy with the first example of a psychoanalytic novel Italy's vibrant culture of the long nineteenth century characterised by the sedimentation circulation intersection and synergy of different cultural philosophical and literary traditions proves itself to be a privileged object of inquiry for an archaeological study of the unconscious a study whose object is not the alleged origin of a pre made theoretical construct but rather the stratifications by which that specific construct was assembled In line with Michel Foucault's Archéologie du savoir 1969 this volume will analyze the formation and the circulation across different authors and texts of a network of ideas and discourses on interconnected themes including dreams memory recollection desire imagination fantasy madness creativity inspiration magnetism and somnambulism Alongside questioning pre given narratives of the history of the unconscious this book will employ the Italian difference as a powerful perspective from whence to address the undeveloped potentialities of the pre Freudian unconscious beyond uniquely psychoanalytical viewpoints Narratives of the European Border R.

Robinson, 2007-10-23 Richard Robinson examines the representation of shifting European borders in twentieth century narrative drawing together an unusual grouping of texts from different national canons and comparing the various ways that fictional settings transmute European placelessness into narrative Gothic Italy Stefano Serafini, 2024-11-30 The Gothic proliferating across different literary socio cultural and scientific spaces permeated and influenced the project of Italian nation building casting a dark and pervasive shadow on Italian history Gothic Italy explores the nuances contradictions and implications of the conflict between what the Gothic embodies in post unification Italy and the values that a supposedly secular modern country tries to uphold and promote The book analyses a variety of literary works concerned with crime that tapped into fears relating to contagion race and class fluidity deviant minds and abnormal sexuality female transgression male performativity and the instability of the new body politic By tracing how writers scientists and thinkers engaged with these issues Gothic Italy unveils the mutual network of exchanges that informed national discourses about crime Stefano Serafini brings attention to a historical moment that was crucial to the development of modern attitudes towards normality and deviance which continue to circulate widely and still resonate disturbingly in contemporary society
