Public History, 1958-1977 Joshua Glick, 2018-01-23 Los Angeles Documentary and the Production of Public History 1958 1977 explores how documentarians working between the election of John F Kennedy and the Bicentennial created conflicting visions of the recent and more distant American past Drawing on a wide range of primary documents Joshua Glick analyzes the films of Hollywood documentarians such as David Wolper and Mel Stuart along with lesser known independents and activists such as Kent Mackenzie Lynne Littman and Jesús Salvador Treviño While the former group reinvigorated a Cold War cultural liberalism the latter group advocated for social justice in a city plagued by severe class stratification and racial segregation Glick examines how mainstream and alternative filmmakers turned to the archives civic institutions and production facilities of Los Angeles in order to both change popular understandings of the city and shape the social consciousness of the nation

The Oxford Handbook of American Film History Jon Lewis, 2025 In a series of newly commissioned chapters The Oxford Handbook of American Film History offers a new and fully compelling discussion of American film as marked by significant moments of industrial and artistic change Many of the chapters are built upon primary sourced research while others detail aspects of form and style Together the chapters in this book show a history shaped by multiple theses and voices and interests

Broads, Sisters, Exes Vincent L. Stephens, 2025-03-25 How a new generation of women centered dramedies has revolutionized contemporary television This timely and telling analysis identifies the formal and thematic innovations pioneered by millennial feminists between 2012 and 2020 that have shaped the trajectory of our favorite shows today Author Vincent L Stephens offers close readings of nine pivotal series including Girls Orange Is the New Black Broad City Jane the Virgin Crazy Ex Girlfriend Fleabag Insecure Shrill and I May Destroy You Across these series women led creative teams translated techniques from indie films inverted gendered television tropes and engaged in innovative temporal storytelling These series often including showrunners who also act write and direct are the product of a new ecology of television driven by the rise of streaming platforms and a demand for more inclusive narratives Broads Sisters Exes optimistically contends with women as aesthetic innovators and maps their influence on entertainment industry reforms that are slowly but surely increasing accessibility for creatives from groups historically underrepresented across media Through elegant prose deeply rooted in an intersectional feminist perspective Stephens expands the aesthetic and narrative grammars of contemporary television

The Dark Tree Steven L. Isoardi, 2023-08-07 In the early 1960s pianist Horace Tapscott gave up a successful career in Lionel Hampton's band and returned to his home in Los Angeles to found the Pan Afrikan Peoples Arkestra a community arts group that focused on providing community oriented jazz and jazz training Over the course of almost forty years the Arkestra together with the related Union of God's Musicians and Artists Ascension collective was at the forefront of the vital community based arts movement in Black Los Angeles Some three hundred artists musicians vocalists poets playwrights painters sculptors and graphic artists passed through these organizations many ultimately remaining within the community and others moving on to achieve international fame In The Dark Tree Steven L. Isoardi draws on one hundred in depth interviews with the Arkestra's participants to tell the history of the important and largely overlooked community arts movement of Black Los Angeles This revised and updated edition brings the story of the Arkestra up to date as its ethos and aesthetic remain vital forces in jazz and popular music to this day Cinema Between Latin America and Los Angeles Colin Gunckel, Jan-Christopher Horak, Lisa Jarvinen, 2019-02-08 Historically Los Angeles has been central to the international success of Latin American cinema and became the most important hub in the western hemisphere for the distribution of Spanish language films made for Latin American audiences This book examines the considerable ongoing role that Los Angeles played in the history of Spanish language cinema Women Artists, Feminism and the Moving Image Lucy Reynolds, 2019-08-22 What is the significance of gendered identification in relation to artists moving image How do women artists grapple with the interlinked narratives of gender discrimination and gender identity in their work In this groundbreaking book a diverse range of leading scholars activists archivists and artists explore the histories practices and concerns of women making film and video across the world from the pioneering German animator Lotte Reiniger to the influential African American filmmaker Julie Dash and the provocative Scottish contemporary artist Rachel Maclean Opening with a foreword from the film theorist Laura Mulvey and a poem by the artist film maker Lis Rhodes Women Artists Feminism and the Moving Image traces the legacies of early feminist interventions into the moving image and the ways in which these have been re configured in the very different context of today Reflecting and building upon the practices of recuperation that continue to play a vital role in feminist art practice and scholarship essays discuss topics such as how multiculturalism is linked to experimental and activist film history the function and nature of the essay film feminist curatorial practices and much more This book transports the reader across diverse cultural contexts and geographical contours addressing complex narratives of subjectivity representation and labour while juxtaposing cultures of film video and visual arts practice often held apart As the editor Lucy Reynolds argues it is at the point where art moving image and feminist discourse converge that a rich and dynamic intersection of dialogue and exchange opens up bringing to attention practices which might fall outside their separate spheres and offering fresh perspectives and insights on those already established in its histories and canons New Wave, New Hollywood Gregory Frame, Nathan Abrams, 2021-09-23 As a period of film history The American New Wave ordinarily understood as beginning in 1967 and ending in 1980 remains a preoccupation for scholars and audiences alike In traditional accounts it is considered to be bookended by two periods of conservatism and viewed as a brief period of explosive creativity within the Hollywood system From Bonnie and Clyde to Heaven s Gate it produced films that continue to be watched discussed analysed and poured over It has however also become rigidly defined as a cinema of director auteurs who made a number of aesthetically and politically significant films This has led to marginalization and exclusion of many important artists and filmmakers as well as a temporal rigidity about what and who is considered part of the New Wave proper This collection seeks to reinvigorate debate around this area of film history It also looks in part to demonstrate the legacy of aesthetic experimentation and political radicalism after 1980 as part of the legacy of the New Wave Thanks to important new work that questions received scholarly wisdom reveals previously marginalised filmmakers and the films they made considers new genres personnel and films under the banner of New Wave New Hollywood and reevaluates the traditional approaches and perspectives on the films that have enjoyed most critical attention New Wave New Hollywood Reassessment Recovery Legacy looks to begin a new discussion about Hollywood cinema after 1967
