Celebrity, Convergence and Transformation Douglas Brownlie, Paul Hower, Finola Kerrigan, 2017-07-28 Bringing together the latest thinking on both celebrity brands and celebrity culture from academics specialising in the field of marketing this book explores a range of insightful contexts in order to add vigour and vitality to our understanding of the connections between celebrities markets and culture It unpacks the identity theoretics which have their origins in the turn to celebrity culture and the spectacle and glamour of mass media practices In doing so the contributors hint at new forms of individuation where the line between the virtual and the actual is blurred and where images of celebrities construct and deconstruct themselves This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Marketing Management Introduction to International and Global Studies, Third Edition Shawn C.

students destined to rule the global economy or an addled Goliath riddled with corruption and on the edge of stagnation What we don't see is how both powerful and ordinary people are remaking their lives as their country dramatically changes In Age of Ambition Osnos describes the greatest collision taking place in that country the clash between the rise of the individual and the Communist Party's struggle to retain control He asks probing questions Why does a government with more success lifting people from poverty than any civilization in history choose to put strict restraints on freedom of expression Why do millions of young Chinese professionals fluent in English and devoted to Western pop culture consider themselves angry youth dedicated to resisting the West's influence How are Chinese from all strata finding meaning after two decades of the relentless pursuit of wealth Writing with great narrative verve and a keen sense of irony Osnos follows the moving stories of everyday people and reveals life in the new China to be a battleground between aspiration and authoritarianism in which only one can prevail An Economist Best Book of 2014 Winner of the bronze medal for the Council on Foreign Relations 2015 Arthur Ross Book Award

The Perpetual Guest Barry Schwabsky, 2016-03-07 Contemporary art sometimes pretends to have made a clean break with history In The Perpetual Guest poet and critic Barry Schwabsky demonstrates that any robust understanding of art's present must also account for the ongoing life and changing fortunes of its past Surveying the art world of recent decades Schwabsky attends not only to its most significant newer faces among them Kara Walker Thomas Hirschhorn Ai Weiwei Chris Ofili and Lorna Simpson but their forebears as well both near Jeff Wall Nancy Spero Dan Graham Cindy Sherman and more distant Velázquez Manet Matisse and the portraitists of the Renaissance Schwabsky's rich and subtle contributions illuminate art's present moment in all its complexity shot through with determinations produced by centuries of interwoven traditions but no less open ended for it

Surpassing Modernity Andrew McNamara, 2018-11-29 For the past thirty to forty years cultural analysis has focused on developing terms to explain the surpassing of modernity Discussion is stranded in an impasse between those who view the term modernity with automatic disdain as deterministic Eurocentric or imperialistic and a booming interest that is renewing the study of modernism Another dilemma is that the urge to move away from or beyond modernity arises because it is viewed as difficult even unsavoury Yet there has always been a view of modernity as somehow difficult to live with and that has been said by figures we regard today as typical modernists McNamara argues in this book that it is time to forget the quest to surpass modernity Instead we should re-examine a legacy that continues to inform our artistic conceptions our political debates our critical justifications even if that legacy is baffling and contradictory We may find it difficult to live with but without recourse to this legacy our critical cultural ambitions would remain seriously diminished How do we explain the culture we live in today And how do we as citizens make sense of it This book suggests these questions have become increasingly difficult to answer

Art and the Politics of Visibility Zeena Feldman, 2017-10-05 How does cultural context affect the interpretation of art What makes artists work transnational or national in character and how will their visibility be impacted by either label Art and the Politics of

Visibility questions these dynamics asking how the dissemination of visual culture on a global scale affects art and its institutions Taking Shanghai based artist Yang Fudong s practice as a point of departure this volume focuses on how politically charged images produced in contemporary art cinema literature news media and fashion become widely consumed or marginalised Through case studies of artists including Titus Kaphar Sara Maple Shirin Neshat J M Coetzee Barbara Walker and Apichatpong Weerasethakul the book illuminates the relationship between visibility politics and identity in contemporary visual culture Entrepreneurship and the Creation of Organization Daniel Hjorth, Robin Holt, 2022-04-07
