Jesus And Salvation Soundings In The Christian Tradition And Contemporary Theology:

Jesus and Salvation Robin Ryan, 2015-04-08 How does the Christian proclamation of salvation in Jesus Christ relate to the lives of the people who suffer most Does salvation consist entirely of the hope for eternal life with God How might the church effectively preach the message of salvation in Christ today In Jesus and Salvation Robin Ryan adopts a historical approach to these questions discussing key themes and classic authors in the developing tradition about Christ the Savior He examines modern soteriology by engaging the thought of Karl Rahner Edward Schillebeeckx Gustavo Guti rrez and Elizabeth Johnson He also discusses contemporary conceptions of salvation within an evolutionary view of the cosmos as well as issues related to the Christian confession of Jesus as universal savior in a religiously pluralistic world Ryan concludes by offering his own reflections on the meaning of salvation from God in Jesus Christ By understanding salvation in Christ as both gift and call Ryan invites readers to recognize in the saving grace of God a responsibility for the well being of the human family and the rest of creation

The Vows of Religious Life in a Secular Society Judith A. Merkle, 2025-08-21

This book investigates religious vows shedding light on the type of faith that can sustain humanity in secular times It examines the personal impact of religious life as well as its potential to foster a sense of completeness within society at large Unbelief in today s society can be partially rooted in the shallowness of the sort of religion that the secular can abandon Such a religion characterized as magical shallow illusory or rooted solely in external rituals lacks the depth required to thrive in a secular society It fails to address the profound aspects of human existence the authentic freedom of the spirit and the enduring obedience of faith This study of religious vows uncovers their deeper meanings in light of these challenges It invites us to consider whether religious life despite contemporary criticisms can be seen as touching wholeness This book does not only delve into the theological foundations of these vows but also key areas which impact their understanding and living in new contexts It surveys sociological landscapes and goes beyond to encompass shifts in science psychology theology Religious life in this sense is part of the renewal of the church as well as an agent in it By focusing briefly on each vow Judith A Merkle illustrates how religious life serves as a bridge connecting the secular and the sacred It is a life focused on love of God and service of others which is a witness to the coming of Kingdom of God and values which truly matter in contemporary society

Being Salvation Brandon R. Peterson, 2017-06-15 Karl Rahner's theory of how Jesus saves has garnered criticism Rahner's portrayal of Jesus has been described by Hans Urs von Balthasar as merely notifying the world of God's salvific will Others have doubted whether Rahner thinks Jesus causes salvation at all Even Rahner's advocates style his Jesus as a kind of sign albeit an effective one the primal Sacrament But another major and yet underappreciated dimension to Rahner's christology is his identification of Jesus as Representative both our representative before God and God's before us As such a Representative Jesus is not a redemptive agent who accomplishes human salvation simply through an act and even less is he a mere exemplar or notification This Jesus does not only do our salvation rather he is the locus of salvation itself He not only opens heaven's gates but he creates heaven with his own resurrection Being Salvation uncovers this dimension within Rahner's theology relating it to other historical examples of representative soteriology e.g. Irenaeus's theory of recapitulation and to Rahner's more familiar sacramental soteriological categories It gives special attention to Rahner's intense attention to the church fathers early in his career including Rahner's untranslated theology dissertation E latera Christi From the Side of Christ

Discipleship, Secularity, and the Modern Self Judith A. Merkle, 2020-07-23 Judith A Merkle examines the situation of Christian spirituality today in a secular age through the images of dance silence and music Drawing on the work of Charles Taylor as well as core aspects of the tradition of Christian theology on discipleship Merkle asks how these new conditions affect the practice of Christianity as modern discipleship The author calls God the music maker She argues that response to the reality of God can be captured through the image of dance Merkle reminds us that people in secular society connect to God in diverse ways not in the least through the call of creation and the call of conscience She explores discipleship as a lens through which we can understand how a community of faith service prayer worship and sacramentality can be viewed and integrated in daily life She emphasizes how the interconnection between prayer Eucharist and a believing community is inseparable from the dance of discipleship as it can be lived in secular society The image of dancing to silent music is a powerful symbol of Christian religious experience in modern times the consideration of the last things our anticipation of our joyful hope as the liturgy says Working his way through Scripture the Christian tradition and modern theology Ryan ends with a reflection on Julian of Norwich's teaching about hope grounded in the love of God as exemplified by the passion of Christ and considering the mystery of suffering The Heavens Are Telling the Glory of God Laurie Brink, OP, 2022 Building on the work of Teilhard de Chardin the New Cosmology integrates scientific facts and theories including discoveries about the expanding universe and evolution and proposes that creation is developing into greater complexity But how are we to understand concepts like original sin and redemption if creation isn't complete and humanity is still in process How does one retrofit religious tradition and Scripture into this scenario Is there room for the historical Jesus in the New Cosmology While a ready concern for all Christians this question has unique implications for women religious whose lives are centered on the person and mission of Jesus Christ How is a Catholic sister to understand her vows of poverty chastity and obedience in light of a cosmology in which the need for redemption and the role of Jesus are significantly redefined The Heavens Are Telling the Glory of God probes these questions and offers possible answers Beginning with the experiences of women religious and their encounter with the New Cosmology or Universe Story this book seeks to mediate among the various perspectives and proposes how informed and reflective engagement with science tradition and theology can bridge the generational divides and foster a spirituality that is both emergent and incarnational The Wisdom of the Cross in a Pluralistic World - Volume 1 A.A. V.V, 2023-06-05 From 21 to 24 September 2021 the IV International Theological Congress of the Passionists took place in Rome at the Pontifical Lateran University on the theme The Wisdom of the Cross in a Pluralistic World It took place in the context of the Jubilee Celebrations for the Third Centenary of the Foundation of the Passionist Congregation and aims to deepen the topicality of the Cross in the context of the many contemporary areopagi During the four days more than 100 speakers scholars and specialists from many academic and cultural circles with an international reach from Roman universities as well as from many nations of the various continents took turns The rich scientific cultural and spiritual experience of the Congress is collected in three volumes over 1 100 pages the first of which has also been translated from Italian into four languages English French Spanish and Portuguese Suffering in the World Augustin Kassa, S.M.A., 2019-04-26 The undeniable reality of suffering in the world often leaves humanity perplexed about its source The struggle to make sense of pain usually leaves people wondering what they have done to merit the agony of suffering It is hence not bizarre to hear a person in suffering ask What wrong have I done to be suffering this much Why is God punishing me It is not uncommon to hear some people like Edward Schillebeeckx exempt God from any responsibility in the suffering of humanity Schillebeeckx unequivocally suggests that God is not responsible for the suffering of humanity just as he wasn't responsible for the suffering of his Son more than two thousand years ago In his words No one should ascribe to God what has in fact been done to Jesus by the history of human injustice But how can a tragic event like the death of the Son of God and by extension suffering in the world be laid solely on the shoulders of humanity Doesn't putting the responsibility of pain and suffering in the world on humanity rob God of his all powerful nature To avoid this quandary vis vis the nature of God classical theologians like St Augustine and St Thomas Aquinas proposed the principle of the two evils that is evil suffered and evil done They also maintained that while God may not be responsible for pain and suffering in the world he certainly does permit or allow it for a greater good If God only permits or allows suffering what do we make of Marthe Robin's experience that suggests that the Risen Lord God the Son appeared to her asking her Do you want to be like me And upon the question made her live the suffering and pain and carry the wounds of the Crucified Lord According to her she was the little victim of the Lord My Burden Is Light Craig A. Satterlee, 2023 My Burden Is Light invites preachers to reclaim proclaiming Jesus as the goal of preaching Satterlee argues that by preaching Jesus's life death and resurrection as good news we address the issues we face This book is foundational for preaching courses and a balm for preachers needing nourishment and renewal Theologizing in an Insurgent Key Pineda-Madrid, Nancy, 2022 The author argues that violence against women today requires a rethinking of salvation Yet to make this case necessitates an understanding of violence against women in its particularity without which the author's argument at best will only limp along falling flat or remain an exercise in abstraction La Sabiduría de la Cruz en un

Life Is Changed, Not Ended Ryan, Robin, 2024 Beginning with its anthropological foundations Robin Ryan explores the development of Christian eschatology

Divine Agency and Divine Action, Volume II William J. Abraham,2017-10-20 Divine Agency and Divine Action Volume II builds on Volume I which established that no generic concept of action will suffice for understanding the character of divine actions explicit in the Christian faith Volume II argues that in order to understand divine action one must begin with the array of specific actions predicated of God in the Christian tradition William J Abraham argues that one must practice theology in order to analyze properly the concept of divine action Abraham offers a careful review and evaluation of the particularities of divine action as they appear in the work of biblical patristic medieval and Reformation era theologians Particular attention is given to the divine inspiration of scripture creation incarnation transubstantiation in the Eucharist predestination and divine concurrence The work does not simply repeat the doctrinal formulations found in the Christian tradition but examines them in order to find fresh ways of thinking about these issues for our own time especially with respect to the contemporary debates about divine agency and divine action Edward Schillebeeckx and Contemporary Theology Lieven Boeve, Frederiek Depoortere, Stephan van Erp, 2010-10-07 What are contemporary theology's challenges What are its fruitful approaches Who are its promising contributors The contributions to this collection of essays try to find answers to these questions by making references to the Dutch Dominican scholar Edward Schillebeeckx using his theology as a starting point for an up to date investigation and discussion The theological work of Edward Schillebeeckx marks the transition from a pre modern to a modern approach to Christian faith Church and theology Already more than two generations of theologians have been trained in dialogue with his thought Contemporary theology testifies often implicitly to the enduring relevance of many of Schillebeeckx's insights while in other instances it pushes his thinking to its limits in order to deal with the current challenges for faith and society
