The Global Flows of Early Scottish Photography Anthony W. Lee, 2019-05-30 Almost immediately after the invention of photography Scottish photographers took their clunky cameras on the road to capture the stories of peoples and communities touched by the forces of British imperialism For the next thirty years their journeys would take them far from their homes in the Lowlands to the Canadian wilderness and the treaty ports and rivers of China The Global Flows of Early Scottish Photography is about the interplay between these photographers ambitions and the needs and desires of the people they met Anthony Lee tracks the work of several famous innovators of the art form including the pioneering team of D O Hill and Robert Adamson in Edinburgh Canada s first great photographers the Scottish immigrants William Notman and Alexander Henderson in Montreal the globetrotting John Thomson in Hong Kong and Lai Afong the first widely known Chinese photographer Lee reveals their pictures in the context of migration and the social impact wrought by worldwide trade and competing nationalisms A timely book it tells of an era when cameras emerged to give shape and meaning to some of the most defining moments brought about by globalization in the nineteenth century Beautifully written and richly illustrated in full colour The Global Flows of Early Scottish Photography weaves stories together to show that even the earliest pictures were sites of fierce historical struggle

Epistemology of the Past Theara Thun, 2024-08-31

The encounter of indigenous history making tradition with Western historical practice has been long neglected in Southeast Asian scholarship Theara Thun offers one of the first critical and systematic studies of the interface between these two distinctive modes of historical presentation and their impacts on society By examining historical discourses on Cambodia through the precolonial colonial and post independence years he presents a compelling account of indigenous scholars with varying perspectives who advocated competing versions of history Thun argues that new discourses about national history emerged by drawing on reconfiguring combining or in many cases rejecting older discourses of precolonial historical scholarship Epistemology of the Past examines how certain types and forms of historical knowledge are created understood and used within a given context and how that knowledge has evolved over time The book brings together and critically explores a large collection of original manuscripts and printed texts notably Khmer chronicle manuscripts and colonial era works of French scholar officials Thun's analysis discloses multilayers of intellectual traditions and diverse views of Cambodian and more broadly Southeast Asian scholars engaging with European colonial scholarship In addition to contributing to the multidisciplinary field of Cambodian and Southeast Asian studies Epistemology of the Past will be essential reading for those interested in intellectual history transculturation historiography intertextual studies narrative studies literature colonialism and nationalism

Angkor Wat - A Transcultural History of Heritage Michael Falser, 2019-12-16 This book unravels the formation of the modern concept of cultural heritage by charting its colonial postcolonial nationalist and global trajectories By bringing to light many unresearched dimensions of the twelfth century Cambodian temple of Angkor Wat during its modern history the study argues for a conceptual connected history that unfolded within the transcultural interstices of European and Asian projects With more than 1 400 black and white and colour illustrations of historic photographs architectural plans and samples of public media the monograph discusses the multiple lives of Angkor Wat over a 150 year long period from the 1860s to the 2010s Volume 1 Angkor in France reconceptualises the Orientalist French colonial discovery of the temple in the nineteenth century and brings to light the manifold strategies at play in its physical representations as plaster cast substitutes in museums and as hybrid pavilions in universal and colonial exhibitions in Marseille and Paris from 1867 to 1937 Volume 2 Angkor in Cambodia covers for the first time in this depth the various on site restoration efforts inside the Archaeological Park of Angkor from 1907 until 1970 and the temple s gradual canonisation as a symbol of national identity during Cambodia s troublesome decolonisation 1953-89 from independence to Khmer Rouge terror and Vietnamese occupation and finally as a global icon of UNESCO World Heritage since 1992 until today Congratulations to our author Michael Falser who received the prestigious 2021 ICAS Book Prize in the Ground Breaking Subject Matter category

The Justice Facade Alexander Hinton, 2018-03-16 What is Justice Is it always just to come Can real experience be translated into law Examining Cambodia s troubled reconciliation Alexander Hinton suggests an approach to justice founded on global ideals of the rule of law democratization and a progressive trajectory towards liberty and freedom and which seeks to align the country with so called universal modes of thought is condemned to failure Instead Hinton advocates focusing on the individual lived experience and the discourses interstices and the combusive encounters connected with it as a radical alternative A phenomenology inspired approach towards healing national trauma Hinton s ground breaking text will make anybody with an interest in transitional justice development humanitarian intervention human rights or peacebuilding question the value of an established truth
