Johann Gottfried Herder J. Karenina owe to Madame Bovary and also between genres Followed carefully the advice in The Well Educated Mind will restore and expand the pleasure of the written word Classical Humanism and the Challenge of Modernity Bas van Bommel, 2015-03-10 In scholarship classical Renaissance humanism is usually strictly distinguished from neo humanism which especially in Germany flourished at the beginning of the 19th century While most classical humanists focused on the practical imitation of Latin stylistic models neohumanism is commonly believed to have been mainly inspired by typically modern values such as authenticity and historicity Bas van Bommel shows that whereas neohumanism was mainly adhered to at the German universities at the Gymnasien a much more traditional educational ideal prevailed which is best described as classical humanism This ideal involved the prioritisation of the Romans above the Greeks as well as the belief that imitation of Roman and Greek models brings about man's aesthetic and moral elevation Van Bommel makes clear that 19th century classical humanism dynamically related to modern society On the one hand classical humanists explained the value of classical education in typically modern terms On the other hand competitors of the classical Gymnasium laid claim to values that were ultimately derived from classical humanism 19th century classical humanism should therefore not be seen as a dried out remnant of a dying past but as the continuation of a living tradition Johann Gottfried Herder as an Educator James Mace Andress, 1916 Memoirs of Eminent Teachers and Educators Henry Barnard, 1878 Neoclassical Satire and the Romantic School 1780-1830 Rolf P. Lessenich, 2012 Romanticism was not only heterogeneous and disunited It also had to face the hostile counter movement of the Enlightenment and Augustan Neoclassicism still going strong at the time of and in the decades following the French Revolution due to support from the ruling Establishment the ancien regime of the Crown and Church of England Neoclassicists regarded Romanticism as a heteretical amalgam of dissenting new schools which threatened the monopoly of the Classical Tradition The acrimonious debates in aesthetics and politics were conducted with the traditional strategies of the classical ars disputandi on both sides Under the duress of the heaviest satirical attacks Romanticism began gradually to see itself as one movement giving rise to the problematic opposition of Classical and Romantic The construction of this rough divide however was indispensable for the clarification of different positions in the hubbub of conflicting voices and has also proved critical in literary and cultural studies which cannot do without such subsumptions The Classical Tradition encompassing Christianity emerges as an ongoing event from Greek and Latin antiquity running through to our time German Classics: 19th & 20th Century Various, 2022-12-10 German Classics of the Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries is a collection of carefully selected masterpieces of German literature in last two centuries The most representative German writers of each period are brought together and represented by their best and finest works from the great epoch of Classicism and Romanticism to early modern literature of twentieth century Vol I Wilhelm von Humboldt August Wilhelm Schlegel Friedrich Schlegel Novalis Friedrich Hölderlin Ludwig Tieck Heinrich von Kleist Vol V Friedrich Schleiermacher Johann Gottlieb Fichte Friedrich Wilhelm Joseph von Schelling Ludwig Achim von

 Frank Wedekind Ernst Hardt Colonial Ideology and the classical 'Bildungsroman' José Santiago Fernández-Vázquez, 2024-05-16 This book examines the ideological affinity that can be established between the classical Bildungsroman and colonialist ideology on the basis of a literary analysis of Wilhelm Meisters Lehrjahre considered by most critics to be the origin of the genre and Great Expectations one of the paradigmatic examples of the development of the

Bildungsroman in English literature This ideological affinity is understood as an example of what the Palestinian critic Edward Said has called a structure of attitude and reference the convergence of different cultural manifestations that although formally independent contribute to a common purpose The monograph also undertakes a study of the main characteristics of the classical Bildungsroman from a formal and thematic point of view and an analysis of the relationship between genre theories and Eurocentric discourses The German Classics of the 19th and 20th Century (Vol. 1-14)

Various,2023-12-12 The German Classics of the 19th and 20th Century Vol 1 14 is an expansive anthology that encompasses a diverse range of seminal works enriching the reader's insight into the evolution of German literature during this transformative period Spanning prolific genres such as Romanticism Realism and Modernism this collection features the nuanced prose and innovative poetry of notable figures including Goethe Schiller Kafka and Brecht The anthology's literary style emphasizes intricate language and thematic depth reflecting the socio-political upheavals and cultural shifts characteristic of the times through which it spans The compilation is the result of the collaborative efforts of various editors and scholars deeply invested in German literary heritage Their collective expertise draws from comprehensive analyses of literary movements and historical contexts providing a multidimensional lens through which readers can appreciate the intricacies of German thought aesthetics and societal reflection as they unfold within these texts The anthology serves as both homage and critical examination of the narratives that resonate with the German speaking world This remarkable collection is highly recommended for both scholars and general readers seeking to immerse themselves in the rich tapestry of German literature With its careful curation and accessible presentation it invites exploration and appreciation of classic texts that not only shaped their era but continue to resonate with contemporary themes making these volumes indispensable for anyone passionate about world literature Analytical Psychology and German Classical Aesthetics: Goethe, Schiller, and Jung, Volume 1 Paul Bishop,2007-08-07 In this volume Paul Bishop investigates the extent to which analytical psychology draws on concepts found in German classical aesthetics It aims to place analytical psychology in the German speaking tradition of Goethe and Schiller with which Jung was well acquainted Analytical Psychology and German Classical Aesthetics argues that analytical psychology appropriates many of its central notions from German classical aesthetics and that when seen in its intellectual historical context the true originality of analytical psychology lies in its reformulation of key tenets of German classicism Although the importance for Jung of German thought in general and of Goethe and Schiller in particular has frequently been acknowledged until now it has never been examined in any detailed or systematic way Through an analysis of Jung's reception of Goethe and Schiller Analytical Psychology and German Classical Aesthetics demonstrates the intellectual continuity within analytical psychology and the filiation of ideas from German classical aesthetics to Jungian thought In this way it suggests that a rereading of analytical psychology in the light of German classical aesthetics offers an intellectually coherent understanding of analytical psychology By uncovering the philosophical sources of analytical psychology this first volume returns Jung's thought to its core intellectual tradition in the light of which analytical psychology gains new critical impact and fresh relevance for modern thought. Written in a scholarly yet accessible style, this book will interest students and scholars alike in the areas of analytical psychology, comparative literature, and the history of ideas.

Indo-German Exchanges in Education Martin Kämpchen, 2020-08-14 In 1930 when Rabindranath Tagore met Paul and Edith Geheeb in Germany, they formed a fruitful and long-term association resulting in the exchange of ideas and vision. Tagore's Brahmacharya Ashram, founded in 1901 in Shantiniketan, and the Geheeb's Odenwaldschule, established in Germany in 1910, thereafter the Ecole d'Humanité in Switzerland, established in 1934 after the couple fled Nazi Germany, emerged from vastly different cultural backgrounds and social exigencies. Yet they recognized striking similarities between their educational endeavours. The meeting also initiated a close association between India and Germany, with the Geheeb's attracting many Indian intellectuals and Indophile Germans to their schools. This book explores the areas where the lives of the Geheeb's and Tagore and their respective circles overlap. Rather than being a biography, a history, or a comprehensive description, this study is a comparison of Tagore and the Geheeb's and their schools. Making use of the repository of unpublished correspondence available at the Ecole's archive, the author studies the Indo-German cultural exchanges in the early twentieth century that were initiated by these three educators and their pedagogical vision. Applied Process Thought II Mark Dibben, Rebecca

Newton, 2013-05-02 Concentrating mainly on the process philosophy developed by Alfred North Whitehead, this series of essays brings together some of the newest developments in the application of process thinking to the physical and social sciences. These essays by established scholars in the field demonstrate how a wider and deeper understanding of the world can be obtained using process philosophical concepts: how the distortions and blockages inevitably inherent in substantivist talk can be set aside and how new and fertile lines of research in the sciences can be opened as a result. Confronting the Nation George L. Mosse, 2024-01-16 Originally published by the University Press of New England under the title Confronting the Nation: Jewish and Western Nationalism, copyright 1993 by Trustees of Brandeis University. Handbook of Religious

Culture in Nineteenth-Century Europe Anthony Steinhoff, Jeffrey Zalar, 2024-12-30 This handbook offers a guide to research on religious culture during Europe's long nineteenth century, 1800-1914. Grounded in the latest theoretical approaches and in line with trends that have produced a religious turn in the study of modern Europe, the volume assesses the state of the field while making provocative recommendations for its enlargement. Unique and ambitious in its thematic breadth, it addresses the histories of all five of Europe's main religious traditions: Eastern Orthodox Christianity, Judaism, Islam, Protestantism, and Roman Catholicism, and brings these histories into comparative analysis. This analysis extends to a wide range of subjects, from popular belief and practice, education, and modern knowledge formation and the arts to the intersections between religion and urbanization, civil society and politics, and missions and imperialism. It also evaluates recent developments in work on religion vis-à-vis both gender and nationalism while calling attention to newer research that proposes secularism as a form of belief in its own right Presenting the scholarship of eighteen leaders in their respective fields the volume explains why religion as a topic of research has moved from the periphery to the center of modern European historiography University Jubilees and University History Writing ,2014-10-23 Researching and writing its history has always been one of the tasks of the university particularly on the occasion of anniversary celebrations Through case studies of Prague 1848 1948 Oslo 1911 Cluj from 1919 Leipzig 2009 and Trondheim 2010 this book shows the continuity of the close relationship between jubilees and university historiography and the impact of this interaction on the jubilee publications and academic heritage Up to today historians are faced with the challenge of finding a balance between an engaged celebratory approach and a more distant academically critical one In its third part the book aims to go beyond the jubilee and presents three other ways of writing university history by focusing on the university as an educational institution Contributors are Thomas Brandt Pieter Dhondt Marek ur ansk Jonas Fl ter Jorunn Sem Fure Trude Maurer Emmanuelle Picard Ana Maria Stan and Johan stling Sonnenschein's Cyclopaedia of Education Alfred Ewen Fletcher, Mariella E. John, 1889 All Music Guide to Classical Music Chris Woodstra, Gerald Brennan, Allen Schrott, 2005-09 Offering comprehensive coverage of classical music this guide surveys more than eleven thousand albums and presents biographies of five hundred composers and eight hundred performers as well as twenty three essays on forms eras and genres of classical music Original
