Johannesburg The Elusive Metropolis A Public Culture :

Johannesburg Sarah Nuttall, Achille Mbembe, 2008-10-24 Collection of scholarly and creative essays on Johannesburg that focus on the city's modern and cosmopolitan status within Africa and the world Making Freedom Anne-Maria Makhulu, 2015-10-23 In Making Freedom Anne Maria Makhulu explores practices of squatting and illegal settlement on the outskirts of Cape Town during and immediately following the end of apartheid. Apartheid's paradoxical policies of prohibiting migrant Africans who worked in Cape Town from living permanently within the city led some black families to seek safe haven on the city's perimeters. Beginning in the 1970s families set up makeshift tents and shacks and built whole communities defying the state through what Makhulu calls a politics of presence. In the simple act of building homes squatters who Makhulu characterizes as urban militants actively engaged in a politics of the right to the city that became vital in the broader struggles for liberation. Despite apartheid's end in 1994 Cape Town's settlements have expanded as new forms of dispossession associated with South African neoliberalism perpetuate relations of spatial exclusion, poverty and racism. As Makhulu demonstrates the efforts of black Capetonians to establish claims to a place in the city not only decisively reshaped Cape Town's geography but changed the course of history New Directions in Flânerie Kelly Comfort, Marylaura Papalas, 2021-11-29 This book distinguishes itself from previous scholarship by offering an inclusive and comprehensive treatment of urban walking from 1800 to the present. Divided into three sections: geography, genius, and gender, the introduction establishes the origins of the flâneur and flâneuse in early foundational texts and explores later works that reimagine flânerie in terms of these same three themes. The volume's contributors provide new and global perspectives on urban walking practices through their treatment of a variety of genres: literature, film, journalism, autobiography, epistolary correspondence, photography, fashion, music, digital media, and regions: Europe, Asia, the Americas, Africa, the Middle East. This volume theorizes well-known urban characters like the idler, loungeur, dandy, badaud, promeneur, shopper, collector, and detective, and also proposes new iterations of the flâneur, flâneuse as fashion model, gaucho, cruiser, musician, vampire, postcolonial activist, video game avatar, and gamer Africans on the Move Fassil Demissie, 2016-03-17 The 20th century witnessed the large-scale displacement and dispersal of populations across the world because of major political upheavals among them the two European wars, decolonization, and the Cold War. These major events were followed by globalization which accelerated free trade and the mobility of capital, new technologies of communication, and the movement of people, commodities, ideas, and cultures across the world. This book explores the complexity of African migration and diaspora, the discourse of diaspora engagement, and new models of citizenship and transnationalism in the context of these issues. This book was originally published as a special issue of African and Black Diaspora: An International Journal Selves in Question Judith Lutge Coullie, Stephan Meyer, Thengani H. Ngwenya, Thomas Olver, 2006-05-31 Wide-ranging and engaging Selves in Question considers the various ways in which auto-biographical accounts situate and question the self in contemporary southern Africa The twenty seven interviews presented here consider both the ontological status and the representation of the self They remind us that the self is constantly under construction in webs of interlocution and that its status and representation are always in question The contributors therefore look at ways in which auto biographical practices contribute to placing understanding and troubling the self and selves in postcolonies in the current global constellation They examine topics such as the contexts conducive to production processes the contents and forms of auto biographical accounts and finally their impact on the producers and the audience In doing so they map out a multitude of variables including the specific historical juncture geo political locations social positions cultures languages generations and genders in their relations to auto biographical practices Those interviewed include the famous and the hardly known women and men writers and performers who communicate in a variety of languages Afrikaans English Xhosa isiZulu Sesotho and Yiddish An extensive introduction offers a general framework on the contestation of self through auto biography a historical overview of auto biographical representation in South Africa up to the present time an outline of theoretical and thematic issues at stake in southern Africa auto biography and extensive primary and secondary biographies Interviewees Breyten Breytenbach Dennis Brutus Valentine Cascarino Vanitha Chetty Wilfred Cibane Greig Coetzee J M Coetzee Paul Faber David Goldblatt Stephen Gray Dorian Haarhoff Rayda Jacobs Elsa Joubert K Limakatso Kendall Ester Lee Doris Lessing Sindiwe Magona Margaret McCord N Chabani Manganyi Zolani Mkiva Jonathan Morgan Es kia Mphahlele Rob Nixon Mpho Nthunya Robert Scott Gillian Slovo Alex J Thembela Pieter Dirk Uys Johan van Wyk Wilhelm Verwoerd David Wolpe D L P Yali Manisi

South African Literature After the Truth Commission Shane Graham, 2009-04-15 In the wake of apartheid South African culture conveys the sense of being lost in time and space The Truth Commission provided an opportunity for South Africans to find their bearings in a nation changing at a bewildering pace the TRC also marked the beginning of a long process of remapping space place and memory In this groundbreaking book Shane Graham investigates how post apartheid theatre makers and writers of fiction poetry and memoir have taken this project forward using their art to come to terms with South Africa's violent past and rapidly changing present

The Routledge Handbook of Comparative Global Urban Studies Patrick Le Galès, Jennifer Robinson, 2023-09-18 The Routledge Handbook of Comparative Global Urban Studies is a timely intervention into the field of global urban studies coming as comparison is being more widely used as a method for global urban studies and as a number of methodological experiments and comparative research projects are being brought to fruition It consolidates and takes forward an emerging field within urban studies and makes a positive and constructive intervention into a lively arena of current debate in urban theory Comparative urbanism injects a welcome sense of methodological rigor and a commitment to careful evaluation of claims across different contexts which will enhance current debates in the field Drawing together more than 50 international scholars and practitioners this book offers an overview of key ideas and practices in the field and extends current thinking and practice The book is primarily intended for scholars and graduate students for whom it will provide an invaluable and up to date guide to current thinking across the range of disciplines which converge in the study of urbanism including geography sociology political studies planning and urban studies

Affective Trajectories Hansjörg Dilger,Astrid Bochow,Marian Burchardt,Matthew Wilhelm-Solomon,2020-02-28 The contributors to Affective Trajectories examine the mutual and highly complex entwinements between religion and affect in urban Africa in the early twenty first century tracing the myriad ways religious ideas practices and materialities interact with affect to configure life in urban African spaces

Love in the Time of AIDS Mark Hunter,2021-12-22 In some parts of South Africa more than one in three people are HIV positive Love in the Time of AIDS explores transformations in notions of gender and intimacy to try to understand the roots of this virulent epidemic By living in an informal settlement and collecting love letters cell phone text messages oral histories and archival materials Mark Hunter details the everyday social inequalities that have resulted in untimely deaths Hunter shows how first apartheid and then chronic unemployment have become entangled with ideas about femininity masculinity love and sex and have created an economy of exchange that perpetuates the transmission of HIV AIDS This sobering ethnography challenges conventional understandings of HIV AIDS in South Africa

Rethinking Labour in Africa, Past and Present Lynn Schler,Louise Bethlehem,Galia Sabar,2013-09-13 This book offers a broad range of perspectives on major transformations in the research of labor in Africa contexts over the last twenty years This is a groundbreaking work by social scientists and historians adopting innovative paradigms in the study of African laborers working classes and economies it moves away from stringent Marxist perspectives towards more localized and fluid conceptions of materiality and productivity Against the backdrop of increasing mobility of labor and capital the authors demonstrate the need for a simultaneous consideration of local national and transnational contexts The collection of essays provides multiple perspectives on how African workers have negotiated changes and exploited opportunities in increasingly globalized workplaces while at the same time confronting the impact of global capitalist expansion on local settings in Africa This book was previously published as a Special Issue of African Identities

Theory from the South Jean Comaroff,John L. Comaroff,2015-11-17 As nation states in the Northern Hemisphere experience economic crisis political corruption and racial tension it seems as though they might be evolving into the kind of societies normally associated with the Global South Anthropologists Jean and John Comaroff draw on their long experience of living in Africa to address a range of familiar themes democracy national borders labour and capital and multiculturalism They consider how we might understand these issues by using theory developed in the Global South Challenging our ideas about developed and developing nations Theory from the South provides new insights into key problems of our time

The Oxford History of the Novel in English Simon Gikandi,2016-10-03 The Novel in Africa and the Caribbean since 1950 examines the institutional and social peculiarities that make fiction produced in Africa and the Atlantic World since 1950 important to the history of the novel in English

enjoyment seems so simple so easy so automatic Songs instantly emanate from our computers and phones at any time of day The tools for playing and making music such as records and guitars wait for us in stores ready for purchase and use And when we no longer need them we can leave them at the curb where they disappear effortlessly and without a trace These casual engagements often conceal the complex infrastructures that make our musical cultures possible Audible Infrastructures takes readers to the sawmills mineshafts power grids telecoms networks transport systems and junk piles that seem peripheral to musical culture and shows that they are actually pivotal to what music is how it works and why it matters Organized into three parts dedicated to the main phases in the social life and death of musical commodities resources and production circulation and transmission failure and waste this book provides a concerted archaeology of music s media infrastructures As contributors reveal the material environmental realities and political economic conditions of music and listening they open our eyes to the hidden dimensions of how music is made delivered and disposed of In rethinking our responsibilities as musicians and listeners this book calls for nothing less than a reconsideration of how music comes to sound

The Arts of Citizenship in African Cities M. Diouf,R. Fredericks,2014-12-16 The Arts of Citizenship in African Cities pushes the frontiers of how we understand cities and citizenship and offers new perspectives on African urbanism Nuanced ethnographic analyses of life in an array of African cities illuminate the emergent infrastructures and spaces of belonging through which urban lives and politics are being forged

Afropolis Kerstin Pinther,Larissa Förster,Christian Hanussek,2012 Metropolises often evoke images of flashy high rise buildings permanent background noise backed up cars and people moving quickly in all directions in their masses New York Tokyo London Sao Paulo But what about Cairo

Entanglement Sarah Nuttall,2009-08-01 This original book is a much needed and far reaching exploration of post apartheid South African life worlds Entanglement aims to capture the contradictory mixture of innovation and inertia of loss violence and xenophobia as well as experimentation and desegregation which characterises the present The author explores the concept of entanglement in relation to readings of literature new media forms and painting In the process she moves away from a persistent apartheid optic drawing on ideas of sameness and difference and their limits in order to elicit ways of living and imagining that are just starting to take shape and for which we might not yet have a name In the background of her investigations lies a preoccupation with a future oriented politics one that builds on largely unexplored terrains of mutuality while being attentive to a historical experience of confrontation and injury

Cultural Heritage Rights Anthony J. Connolly,2017-05-15 This collection brings together selected articles on key areas in the field of cultural heritage rights discourse Contributed by an international group of scholars the papers address conceptual and political issues and explore themes in contemporary literature on cultural heritage such as repatriation looting and illicit trade the effects of armed conflict and the relationship between tourism economic development and cultural heritage The legal regulation of cultural heritage is also discussed with articles on regulatory challenges current practices around the world and issues and challenges in common Topics which are likely to become increasingly important in the future such as climate change cultural globalisation human genomic science and the shift to a post liberal post rights politics and law of cultural heritage are also explored This volume which presents the most up to date scholarship in an area of increasing interest and relevance is an indispensable reference resource for libraries lecturers and students

A Place That Matters Yet Sara Byala, 2024-05-31 A Place That Matters Yet unearths the little known story of Johannesburg's MuseumAfrica a South African history museum that embodies one of the most dynamic and fraught stories of colonialism and postcolonialism its life spanning the eras before during and after apartheid Sara Byala in examining this story sheds new light not only on racism and its institutionalization in South Africa but also on the problems facing any museum that is charged with navigating colonial history from a postcolonial perspective Drawing on thirty years of personal letters and public writings by museum founder John Gubbins Byala paints a picture of a uniquely progressive colonist focusing on his philosophical notion of three dimensional thinking which aimed to transcend binaries and thus quite explicitly racism Unfortunately Gubbins died within weeks of the museum's opening and his hopes would go unrealized as the museum fell in line with emergent apartheid politics Following the museum through this transformation and on to its 1994 reconfiguration as a post apartheid institution Byala showcases it as a rich and problematic archive of both material culture and the ideas that surround that culture arguing for its continued importance in the establishment of a unified South Africa

Anxious Joburg Nicky Falkof, Cobus van Staden, 2020-10-01 An interdisciplinary account of the life of Johannesburg South Africa's global south city Anxious Joburg focuses on Johannesburg the largest and wealthiest city in South Africa as a case study for the contemporary global South city Global South cities are often characterised as sites of contradiction and difference that produce a range of feelings around anxiety This is often imagined in terms of the global North's anxieties about the South migration crime terrorism disease and environmental crisis Anxious Joburg invites readers to consider an intimate perspective of living inside such a city How does it feel to live in the metropolis of Johannesburg what are the conditions intersections affects and experiences that mark the contemporary urban Scholars visual artists and storytellers all look at unexamined aspects of Johannesburg life From peripheral settlements to the inner city to the affluent northern suburbs from precarious migrants and domestic workers to upwardly mobile young women and fearful elites Anxious Joburg presents an absorbing engagement with this frustrating dangerous seductive city It offers a rigorous critical approach to Johannesburg revealing the way in which anxiety is a vital structuring principle of contemporary life The approach is strongly interdisciplinary with contributions from media studies anthropology religious studies urban geography migration studies and psychology It will appeal to students and teachers as well as to academic researchers concerned with Johannesburg South Africa cities and the global South The mix of approaches will also draw a non academic audience

African Postcolonial Modernity S. Osha, 2014-09-04 African cultures and politics remain significantly affected by precolonial and postcolonial configurations of modernity as well as hegemonic global systems This project explores Africa's conversation with itself and the rest of the world critiquing universalist notions of democratization
