The Gates of Hell Andrew D. Lambert, 2014-05-14 From one of our foremost naval historians the compelling story of the doomed Arctic voyage of the HMS Erebus and the HMS Terror commanded by Captain Sir John Franklin Andrew Lambert a leading authority on naval history reexamines the life of Sir John Franklin and his final doomed Arctic voyage Franklin was a man of his time fascinated even obsessed with the need to explore the world he had already mapped nearly two thirds of the northern coastline of North America when he undertook his third Arctic voyage in 1845 at the age of fifty nine His two ships were fitted with the latest equipment steam engines enabled them to navigate the pack ice and he and his crew had a three year supply of preserved and tinned food and more than one thousand books Despite these preparations the voyage ended in catastrophe the ships became imprisoned in the ice and the men were wracked by disease and ultimately wiped out by hypothermia scurvy and cannibalism Franklin's mission was ostensibly to find the elusive North West Passage a viable sea route between Europe and Asia reputed to lie north of the American continent Lambert shows for the first time that there were other scientific goals for the voyage and that the disaster can only be understood by reconsidering the original objectives of the mission Franklin commonly dismissed as a bumbling fool emerges as a more important and impressive figure in fact a hero of navigational science Quest Biography 35-Book Bundle Judith Fitzgerald, Michelle
