Creative Enterprise Martha Buskirk, 2012-04-26 In the face of unparalleled growth and a truly global audience the popularity of contemporary art has clearly become a double edged affair Today an unprecedented number of museums galleries biennial style exhibitions and art fairs display new work in all its variety while art schools continue to inject fresh talent onto the scene at an accelerated rate In the process however contemporary art has become deeply embedded not only in an expanding art industry but also the larger cultures of fashion and entertainment Buskirk argues that understanding the dynamics of art itself cannot be separated from the business of presenting art to the public As strategies of institutional critique have given way to various forms of collaboration or accommodation both art and museum conventions have been profoundly altered by their ongoing relationship The escalating market for contemporary art is another driving force Even as art remains an idealized activity it is also understood as a profession and in increasingly obvious ways a business particularly as practiced by star artists who preside over branded art product lines

Copyright Law Benedict Atkinson, 2017-07-05 This volume shows how since 1950 the growth of copyright regulation has followed and enabled the extraordinary economic growth of the entertainment broadcasting software and communications industries It reproduces articles written by an extensive list of leading thinkers US scholars represented in readings include James Boyle Lawrence Lessig Pamela Samuelson Mark Lemley Alfred Yen Julie Cohen Peter Jaszi and Eben Moglen Leading non US contributors include Alan Story Brian Fitzgerald and Peter Drahos These and other authors explain copyright origins the development of the law the theory of enclosure international trends recent developments and current and future directions Today the copyright system is often portrayed as an engine of growth and effective regulation as a predictor of economic development However critics see dangers in the expansion of intellectual property rights The articles in this volume focus principally on the digital age examining how copyright regulation is likely to affect goals of dissemination and access

Family Ties Andrea Terry, 2015-06-01 House museums act as both sources and suppliers of history Functioning first as private residences they are then preserved as commemorative monuments and become living history museums offering theme based tours led by period costumed interpreters so that visitors might experience what it felt like to live back then In Family Ties Andrea Terry considers the appeal and relevance of domesticated representations of Victorian material culture in a contemporary multicultural context Through three case studies Terry examines Victorian homes that have been repurposed as living history museums that host speculative performances of the past The credibility of Dundurn Castle in Hamilton William Lyon Mackenzie House in Toronto and the Sir George tienne Cartier National Historic Site of Canada in Montreal Terry argues relies on the belief that architectural monuments and the objects they contain are evidence of the time culture nation or people that produced them Family Ties connects residential artifacts to performance by examining the Victorian Christmas programs offered annually at each site to demonstrate the complex nuances of living history Through a detailed exploration of the relationship between heritage living history and memory Family Ties illuminates the effects of institutional interpretations of the past that privilege nationalist myths

Post-war and Contemporary Art Christie, Manson & Woods, 2009 Re-envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Ruth Iskin, 2016-12-08 Re envisioning the Contemporary Art Canon Perspectives in a Global World seeks to dissect and interrogate the nature of the present day art field which has experienced dramatic shifts in the past 50 years In discussions of the canon of art history the notion of inclusiveness both at the level of rhetoric and as a desired practice is on the rise and gradually replacing talk of exclusion which dominated critiques of the canon up until two decades ago The art field has dramatically if insufficiently changed in the half century since the first protests and critiques of the exclusion of others from the art canon With increased globalization and shifting geopolitics the art field is expanding beyond its Euro American focus as is particularly evident in the large scale international biennales now held all over the globe Are canons and counter canons still relevant Can they be re envisioned rather than merely revised Following an introduction that discusses these issues thirteen newly commissioned essays present case studies of consecration in the contemporary art field and three commissioned discussions present diverse positions on issues of the canon and consecration processes today This volume will be of interest to instructors and students of contemporary art art history and museum and curatorial studies Making and Unmaking Intellectual Property Mario Biagioli, Peter Jaszi, Martha Woodmansee, 2015-07-31 Rules regulating access to knowledge are no longer the exclusive province of lawyers and policymakers and instead command the attention of anthropologists economists literary theorists political scientists artists historians and cultural critics This burgeoning interdisciplinary interest in intellectual property has also expanded beyond the conventional categories of patent copyright and trademark to encompass a diverse array of topics ranging from traditional knowledge to international trade Though recognition of the central role played by knowledge economies has increased there is a special urgency associated with present day inquiries into where rights to information come from how they are justified and the ways in which they are deployed Making and Unmaking Intellectual Property edited by Mario Biagioli Peter Jaszi and Martha Woodmansee presents a range of diverse and even conflicting contemporary perspectives on intellectual property rights and the contested sources of authority associated with them Examining fundamental concepts and challenging conventional narratives including those centered around authorship invention and the public domain this book provides a rich introduction to an important intersection of law culture and material production

Lobster Richard J. King, 2012-01-01 Other than that it tastes delicious with butter what do you know about the knobbily armoured scarlet creature staring back at you from your fancy dinner plate From ocean to stock pot there are two sides to every animal story For instance since there are species of lobsters without claws how exactly do you define a lobster And how did a pauper s food transform into a meal synonymous with a luxurious splurge To answer these questions on behalf of lobster the animal is Richard J King a former fishmonger and commercial lobsterman who has chronicled the creature s long natural history Part of the Animal series King s Lobster takes us on a journey through the history biology and culture of lobsters including the creature s economic and environmental status worldwide He describes the evolution of technologies to capture these creatures and addresses the ethics of boiling them alive Along the way King also explores the salacious lobster palaces of the 1920s the animal s thousand year status as an aphrodisiac and how the lobster has inspired numerous artists writers and thinkers including Aristotle Dickens Thoreau Dal and Woody Allen Whether you want to liberate lobsters from their supermarket tanks or crack open their claws this book is an essential read describing the human connection to the lobster from his ocean home to the dinner table Picturing the Invisible Paul Coldwell, Ruth M. Morgan, 2022-01-17 Picturing the Invisible presents different disciplinary approaches to articulating the invisible that which is not known or that which is not provable The challenge that we have seen is how to articulate these concepts not only to those within a particular academic field but beyond to other disciplines and society at large As our understanding of the complexity of the world grows incrementally so does our realisation that issues and problems can rarely be resolved within neat demarcations Therefore the importance of finding means of communicating across disciplines and fields becomes a priority Whilst acknowledging the essential importance of the specialist academic the capacity to understand other disciplines their priorities methodologies and even the language used can become crucial in being an effective instrument for change This book brings together insights from leading academics from a wide range of disciplines including Art and Design Curatorial Practice Literature Forensic Science Medical Science Psychoanalysis and Psychotherapy Philosophy Astrophysics and Architecture with a shared interest in exploring how in each discipline we strive to find expression for the invisible or unknown and to draw out and articulate some of the explicit and tacit ways of communicating those concepts that transcend traditional disciplinary boundaries Pathos, poetry and politics in Michel Houellebecq's fiction Russell

Williams,2020-02-03 In Pathos Poetry and Politics in Michel Houellebecq s fiction Russell Williams examines the literary style of France s most notorious novelist Houellebecq is frequently the focus of debate for his provocative comments about Islam and the decline of Western civilisation This book refocuses attention on how such provocation is an integral part of the texture of his novels Williams considers Houellebecq s writing about literature and outlines the key principles of the author s poetics founded on an acute sensitivity to reading experience He then explores Houellebecq s earliest poetry before mapping this poetic voice into his subsequent fiction including S rotonine 2019 Houellebecq s relationship with genre fiction and the crucial issue of the authorial persona that exists in and around his texts are also explored The Privilege of Being Banal

Elayne Oliphant,2021-06-01 France officially is a secular nation Yet Catholicism is undeniably a monumental presence defining the temporal and spatial rhythms of Paris At the same time it often fades into the background as nothing more than heritage In a creative inversion Elayne Oliphant asks in The Privilege of Being Banal what exactly is hiding in plain sight Could the banality of Catholicism actually be a kind of hidden power Exploring the violent histories and alternate trajectories effaced through this banal backgrounding of a crucial aspect of French history and culture this richly textured ethnography lays bare the profound nostalgia that undergirds Catholicism s circulation in nonreligious sites such as museums corporate spaces and political debates Oliphant s aim is to unravel the contradictions of religion and secularism and in the process show how aesthetics and politics come together in contemporary France to foster the kind of banality that Hannah Arendt warned against the incapacity to take on another person s experience of the world A creative meditation on the power of the taken for granted The Privilege of Being Banal is a landmark study of religion aesthetics and public space Fodor's Paris 2014 Fodor's,2013-08-13 Paris is an all time top destination for travelers and it s easy to see the allure the experiences dining shopping museum going neighborhood strolling are all legendary This stunning full color Fodor s guide captures the
