Jeremiah And Lamentations Redesign From Sorrow To Hope Preaching The Word:

Jeremiah and Lamentations (ESV Edition) Philip Graham Ryken, 2016-05-13 The prophet Jeremiah is a supreme example of how believers can live well in a society that has turned against God While the book of Jeremiah chronicles the last desperate days of Jerusalem before it is conquered by an invading army Lamentations expresses the cries of Jeremiah's heart for the fallen city Together the two books reflect on the meaning of human suffering and illustrate the eternal principle that a man will reap what he sows In this commentary Philip Graham Ryken helps pastors church leaders and Bible teachers understand and teach these spiritually relevant books inspiring readers to respond to God's personal call to live for him in these troubled times Part of the Preaching the Word series

Wind in the Wilderness DJ del Rosario, 2016-12-20 Though we cannot see the wind we know it by its effects and interpret it by its results The same can be said for the work of the Hebrew prophets who communicated God's vision of justice and faithfulness throughout the history of God's people As they spoke of this vision the wind was moving giving us a hint of Jesus who was to come This study focuses on the Hebrew prophets and their message of justice calling readers to turn their attention to issues of justice in today's world Each chapter explores a different prophet or prophets highlighting how God's word through them challenged the Israelite people and us to live out God's vision of justice These prophetic messages find their fulfillment in the life and ministry of Jesus preparing the way for his teaching healing death and resurrection Readers will not merely study prophecies about Jesus but will explore the continuity between the prophetic emphasis on justice and Jesus proclamation of the kingdom of God This Bible study is designed to be used by individuals and small groups during the season of Lent In addition to the main content each chapter offers questions for reflection and discussion a brief prayer and a focus for the week The weekly focus emerges from the chapter content and encourages the readers to engage a spiritual practice or do something specific that will help them grow in faith

Jeremiah and Lamentations Philip Graham Ryken, 2012-11-30 Ryken applies Jeremiah's words to a contemporary audience urging us to search out spiritual fractures that may lie beneath the comfortable surface of daily life Part of the popular Preaching the Word series

Preaching Jeremiah Walter Brueggemann, 2020-11-03 Preeminent biblical scholar and preacher Walter Brueggemann says the book of Jeremiah is not a sermon but it does sound the cadences of the tradition of Deuteronomy that serve as sermons that is as expositions based on remembered and treasured tradition In this volume Brueggemann conducts an experiment in homiletics He wants us to wrestle with the question What if we allow the canonical shape of the book of Jeremiah to instruct us concerning the shape and trajectory of the sermon More specifically he wonders What if the book of Jeremiah is treated as a long sermonic reflection about the traumatic events that led to exile and displacement for the people of Judah Why did it happen Is God faithful Does God punish Is there any future This theme and these questions can also be related to the crucifixion of Jesus and the displacement experienced by his followers Brueggemann extends his wonderment further to the displacement experienced in modern American culture as events jolt our notions of exceptionalism and chosenness All of those same propensities were at work in ancient Israel in the wake of the displacement of Jerusalem a wake given voice in the book of Jeremiah Brueggemann analyzes the various parts of the sermon through the organization of the book of Jeremiah looking at Introduction Body and Conclusion comparing them to Good Friday Holy Saturday and Resurrection Sunday The task of the preacher mirrors the task of the prophet who seeks to pluck and tear down as well as to plant and to build The preacher cannot as he says participate in a cover up The preaching task requires honesty about what God requires and a clear proclamation of what God has done and will yet do Jeremiah, Lamentations F. B. Huey, 1993 One in an ongoing series of esteemed and popular Bible commentary volumes based on the New International Version text Jeremiah and Lamentations John Andrew Dearman, 2002 The NIV Application Commentary helps readers with the vital task of bringing the ancient message of the Bible into a contemporary context It gives preachers and teachers the tools ideas and insights they need to communicate God s Word with the same powerful impact it had when it was first written
