The Politics of British Stand-up Comedy Sophie Quirk, 2018-11-11 This Palgrave Pivot questions how a new generation of alternative stand up comedians and the political world continue to shape and influence each other The Alternative Comedy Movement of the late 1970s and 1980s can be described as a time of unruly experimentation and left wing radicalism This book examines how alternative comedians continue to celebrate these characteristics in the twenty first century while also moving into a distinct phase of artistic development as the political context of the 1970s and 1980s loses its immediacy Sophie Quirk draws on original interviews with comedians including Tom Allen Josie Long John Luke Roberts and Tony Law to chart how alternative comedians are shaped by and in turn respond to contemporary political challenges from neoliberalism to Brexit class controversy to commercialism She argues that many of our assumptions about comedy's politics must be challenged and updated This book is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand the working methods and values of today's alternative comedians People of Today, 2006 Obituaries in the Performing Arts, 2019 Harris M. Acts of Consciousness Guy Saunders, 2014-05-22 Drawing on compelling material from research interviews with former hostages and political prisoners Guy Saunders reworks three classic thought experiment stories Parfit's Teleporter Nagel's What is it like to be a bat and Jackson's Mary the colour scientist to form a fresh look at the study of consciousness By examining consciousness from a social psychology perspective Saunders develops a cubist psychology of consciousness through which he challenges the accepted wisdom of mainstream approaches by arguing that people can act freely What makes cubist psychology is both the many examples taken from different viewpoints and the multiple ways of looking at the key issues of person mind and world This is a unique and engaging book that will appeal to students and academics in the field of consciousness studies and other readers with an interest in consciousness The End of Tolerance Arun

Kundnani, 2007-07-20 Is Britain becoming a more racist society Arun Kundnani looks behind the media hysteria to show how multicultural Britain is under attack by government policies and vitriolic press campaigns that play upon fear and encourage racism Exacerbated by the attacks of 9/11 and 7/7 Kundnani argues that a new form of racism is emerging that is based on a systematic failure to understand the causes of forced migration global terrorism and social segregation The result is a climate of hatred especially against Muslims and asylum seekers Yet the government presses ahead with flawed policies and anti terrorist legislation that creates further resentment alienation and criminalisation What can be done This timely and precise analysis is a useful account of why racism is now thriving and what we can do to stop it McGillivray's Theatre

Copyright Office,1973 Childhood and Nation in Contemporary World Cinema Stephanie Hemelryk Donald,Emma Wilson,Sarah Wright,2017-02-09 The child has existed in cinema since the Lumi re Brothers filmed their babies having messy meals in Lyons but it is only quite recently that scholars have paid serious attention to her his presence on screen Scholarly discussion is now of the highest quality and of interest to anyone concerned not only with the extent to which adult cultural conversations invoke the figure of the child but also to those interested in exploring how film cultures can shift questions of agency and experience in relation to subjectivity Childhood and Nation in World Cinema recognizes that the range of films and scholarship is now sufficiently extensive to invoke the world cinema mantra of pluri vocal and pluri central attention and interpretation At the same time the importance of the child in figuring ideas of nationhood is an undiminished tic in adult cultural and social consciousness Either the child on film provokes claims on the nation or the nation claims the child Given the waning star of national film studies and the widely held and serious concerns over the status of the nation as a meaningful cultural unit the point here is not to assume some extraordinary pre social geopolitical empathy of child and political entity Rather the present collection observes how and why and whether the cinematic child is indeed aligned to concepts of modern nationhood to concerns of the State and to geo political organizational themes and precepts The Nation ,1880 A Nation Fermented Robert Shea Terrell,2023-11-21 How did beer become one of the central commodities associated with the German nation How did a little known provincial production standard the Reinheitsgebot or Beer Purity Law become a pillar of national consumer sentiments How did the jovial beer drinking German become a fixture in the global imagination While the connection between beer and Germany seems self evident A Nation Fermented reveals how it was produced through a strange brew of regional commercial and political pressures Spanning from the late nineteenth century to the last decades of the twentieth A Nation Fermented argues that the economic regulatory and cultural weight of Bavaria shaped the German nation in profound ways Drawing on sources from over a dozen archives and repositories Terrell weaves together subjects ranging from tax law to advertising public health to European integration and agriculture to global stereotypes Offering a history of the Germany that Bavaria made over the twentieth century A Nation Fermented eschews both sharp temporal divisions and a conventional focus on northern and industrial Germany In so doing Terrell offers a fresh take on the importance of provincial influences and the role of commodities and commerce in shaping the nation Irish

Pedigrees, Or, The Origin and Stem of the Irish Nation John O'Hart, 1881 The Determinants of Small Firm Growth Richard Barkham, 2012-11-12 One of the most striking trends in economic development since the 1970s has been the rising importance of the small firm Focusing on the issues of enterprise development and the regional dimensions of small firm growth this book explores the literature of this area Moving from an analysis of measures of growth to the effects of both internal and external variables arguing that the owner manager has a key role in the growth performance of the firm the authors explore regional disparities in and constraints on growth and make significant advances in the policy debate on understanding how faster growth can be achieved
