The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented on a grand staff with three systems. The first system contains the first two measures, the second system contains the next two measures, and the third system contains the final two measures. The melody is written on the top staff, and the accompaniment is written on the middle and bottom staves. The key signature has one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is 3/4. The melody features a mix of eighth and quarter notes, with some measures containing rests. The accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note pattern in the left hand and a more complex right-hand pattern in the right hand, often featuring chords and moving lines. The piece concludes with a final cadence in the third measure of the third system.

The musical score for 'The Rose Tree' is presented on a three-staff system. The first staff contains the melody, which begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody consists of a series of eighth and quarter notes, with some measures containing beamed eighth notes. The second and third staves provide a harmonic accompaniment, primarily using whole and half notes. The third staff includes a 'Coda' symbol at the end of the piece. The title 'The Rose Tree' is written in a decorative font above the first staff.
