Bond, 2020-04-30 What difference does it make to identify Mark's gospel as an ancient biography Reading the gospels as ancient biographies makes a profound difference to the way that we interpret them Biography immortalizes the memory of the subject creating a literary monument to the person's life and teaching Yet it is also a bid to legitimize a specific view of that figure and to position an author and his audience as appropriate gatekeepers of that memory Biography was well suited to the articulation of shared values and commitments the formation of group identity and the binding together of a past story present concerns and future hopes Helen Bond argues that Mark's author used the genre of biography to extend the gospel from an earlier narrow focus on the death and resurrection of Jesus so that it included the way of life of its founding figure Situating Jesus at the heart of a biography was a bold step in outlining a radical form of Christian discipleship patterned on the life and death of Jesus Eisenhower Paul Johnson, 2015-08-18 Acclaimed historian Paul Johnson's lively succinct profile of Dwight D Eisenhower explores his life and enduring legacy In the rousing style he's famous for Paul Johnson offers a fascinating biography of Dwight D Eisenhower with particular focus on his years as a five star general and his two terms as president of the United States Johnson chronicles Ike's modest childhood in Kansas his West Point education and his swift rise through the military ranks culminating in his appointment as Supreme Commander of the Allied forces during World War II Johnson then paints a rich portrait of Eisenhower's presidency many elements of which speak to American politics today his ability to balance the budget his mastery in managing an oppositional Congress and his prescient warnings about the military industrial complex This brief yet satisfying portrait will appeal to biography lovers as well as enthusiasts of presidential and military history alike The Gospels and Christian Life in History and Practice Richard Valantasis, Douglas K. Bleyle, Dennis C.
