Martin,2019-10-01 Thinking about ultimate reality is becoming increasingly transreligious This transreligious turn follows inevitably from the discovery of divine truths in multiple traditions Global communications bring the full range of religious ideas and practices to anyone with access to the internet Moreover the growth of the nones and those who describe themselves as spiritual but not religious creates a pressing need for theological thinking not bound by prescribed doctrines and fixed rituals This book responds to this vital need The chapters in this volume each examine the claim that if the aim of theology is to know and articulate all we can about the divine reality and if revelations enlightenments and insights into that reality are not limited to a single tradition then what is called for is a theology without confessional restrictions In other words a Theology Without Walls To ground the project in examples the volume provides emerging models of transreligious inquiry It also includes sympathetic critics who raise valid concerns that such a theology must face This is a book that will be of urgent interest to theologians religious studies scholars and philosophers of religion It will be especially suitable for those interested in comparative theology inter religious and interfaith understanding new trends in constructive theology normative religious studies and global philosophy of religion

Footprints in the Dust S. Dhammika, 2023-10-06 Unlike stiff biographies of the Buddha or biographies that are replete with mystery and magic Footprints in the Dust enables us get to know the Buddha as a human being a deeply compassionate and wise person who not only actualized the path to enlightenment but also shared the way to accomplish that path with countless others so that they too may gain supreme peace We learn of the challenges Gotama faced many similar to our own and how he dealt with them We see his responses when praised and blamed when confronted with crises within the Order and disputes among kings and couples We see how he guided monastic and lay disciples with their diverse personalities and dispositions In getting an insider's glimpse into how his wisdom and compassion manifested when engaged in situations that we too may experience we learn how to work in a constructive way with whatever life brings us This is an inspiring and engaging book that you will read and reread many times Bhiksuni Thubten Chodron Dharma teacher author and abbess of Sravasti Abbey What was the Buddha like as a human being How did he relate to others With great care and an eye for detail Venerable Dhammika pieces together the life events we can read from very early texts The result is a truly authoritative biography It shows that as a man as well as a teacher the historical Buddha was remarkable indeed The chapter headings are refreshingly original a day in the life of his humour his debating style his background I really enjoyed thinking about Gotama Buddha simply as a person and clearly an extraordinary one as Ven Dhammika shows us I recommend this book to anyone who would like a down to earth accurate and readable appraisal of the founder of this great world religion seen through modern eyes Sarah Shaw Oxford March 2021

The Garden of Reality Roland Faber, 2018-06-20 The Garden of Reality contemplates the relativity of religious truth religious pluralism transreligious discourse postmodern cosmology and multireligious mysticism Its transreligious approach aims at a future multireligious peaceful society in an ecological and cosmic context It proposes that the future of humanity is bound to conviviality with itself and the Earth that the deepest religious motivations of existing together are relative to one another and that transreligious relativity is essential to the conviction of religions that their motivations experiences and conceptualities are meaningful real and true By engaging diverse voices from poststructuralism to Sufism Dzogchen and philosophical Daoism from conceptual frameworks of Christianity and Hinduism to mystical and postmodern cosmology current cosmopolitanism and interreligious and interspiritual discourses but especially understudied contributions of process thought and the Bahá'í religion this book suggests that multireligious conviviality must listen to the universal relevance of a multiplicity of minority voices Its polyphilic pluralism affirms the mutual immanence and co creative nature of religions and spiritualities with the universal in sistance of divine or ultimate reality in the cosmos Embracing a relativistic and evolutionary paradigm in an infinite cosmos of creative becoming religions must cope with events of novelty that disturb and connect transcend and contrast the continuum of their truth claims but must avoid conflict as religious diversity is enveloped by an ever folding landscape of ultimate reality

The Spirit of American Liberal Theology Gary Dorrien,2023-09-05 The Spirit of American Liberal Theology is an interpretation of the entire U S American tradition of liberal theology A highly condensed and far more accessible summary of Gary Dorrien s three volume trilogy The Making of American Liberal Theology Westminster John Knox Press 2001 2003 and 2006 Dorrien here presses the argument that the most abundant diverse and persistent tradition of liberal theology is the one that blossomed in the United States and is still refashioning itself While discussions of English and German liberalism persist new material includes expanded treatment of the Black social gospel the Universalists developments into early 2020s and a robust expression of the author s post Hegelian liberal liberationist perspective

The Routledge Handbook of Buddhist-Christian Studies Carol Anderson,Thomas Cattoi,2022-09-30 Buddhist Christian dialogue has a long and complex history that stretches back to the first centuries of the common era Comprising 42 international and disciplinarily diverse chapters this volume begins by setting up a framework for examining the nature of Buddhist Christian interreligious dialogue discussing how research in this area has been conducted in the past and considering future theoretical directions Subsequent chapters delve into important episodes in the history of Buddhist Christian dialogue contemporary conversations such as monastic interreligious dialogue multiple religious identity and dual religious practice and Buddhist Christian cooperation in social justice social engagement pastoral care and interreligious education settings The volume closes with a section devoted to comparative and constructive explorations of different speculative themes that range from the theological to the philosophical or experiential This handbook explores how the study of Buddhist Christian relations has been and ought to be done The Routledge Handbook of Buddhist Christian Studies is essential reading for researchers and students interested in Buddhist Christian studies Asian religions and interreligious relationships It will be of interest to those in fields such as anthropology political science theology and history

John Hick's Religious Pluralism in Global Perspective Sharada Sugirtharajah,2023-01-01 This volume contains fresh scholarly contributions to mark the birth centenary of John Hick the internationally well known philosopher of religion whose works continue to have significant global relevance in today s religiously diverse and conflict ridden world His writings have reset the parameters of religious pluralism Up till now Hick s religious pluralism has been mainly seen in relation to the Western context where Christianity is the predominant religion This volume includes both Western and non Western engagement with his thinking in contexts such as Japan China Korea Nigeria and India where Christianity is a minority religion with little political power Its distinctiveness lies in widening the debate on religious pluralism by bringing Hick s pluralistic hypothesis into a constructive cross cultural and interreligious conversation with scholars of Hinduism Jainism Daoism Judaism Christianity Islam and African traditional religions In doing so this collection examines how Hick's philosophy of religious pluralism has been received, appropriated and appraised by these scholars. It has been appreciated and critiqued in equal measure and continues to impact on current thinking on religious pluralism. This volume makes a significant contribution to the debate initiated by Hick.

The Hidden "God" Peter Baekelmans, 2022-05-27 Theology means discourse about God. Christian theology is a reflection on the Christian faith in which God takes a central place. Therefore the Christian theology of other religions seeks to understand if and how God as Christians call their experience of Him may be present in the thought, devotion and ritual of those other religions. Christian theology of Buddhism is then a Christian reflection on the Buddhist faith in God or gods. Now Buddhist teaching contains many seeming contradictions as does Christian teaching. Accepting these and looking for clues to understand how they came about and how they might be reconciled is not only an intellectual challenge but also a religious duty. The Hidden God feels like a detective story taking the reader along on an exacting investigation of the manifold themes, concepts and persons of the different Buddhist faith traditions in order to discern whether they can be related to the Christian understanding of who God is. The result, which is both complex and simple, will enable readers to take steps toward uniting both religions in the mystery that God or the Dharma is.

The Future of Interreligious Dialogue Cohen, Charles L., Knitter, Paul F., Rosenhagen, Ulrich, 2017-09-14

Stirring Waters Bart L. Brenner, Wayne E. Purinton, 2019-08-29 In Stirring Waters Brenner and Purinton tackle a host of questions surrounding the traditional understandings of Christian beliefs and present a variety of perspectives on the key topics of Bible, God, Yeshua, spirit and more. They go beyond the why to asking so what. Through questions and discussion starters Stirring Waters offers a fresh way of making sense of faith and church. It wrestles with the ambiguities, uncertainties and risks of this age and discusses the possibilities the authors have discovered for making sense of life and death. It delves into a conversation about faith and understanding of those mysteries Christians often associate with God and the religious life. I can't tell you what kind of book this is: theology, spiritual autobiography, memoir, practical guide. It is all of these and none of these. Probably it is a category that has not been invented until this moment. I can tell you that this book did for me today what Marcus Borg and Dom Crosson did for me at the end of the last century. From the Preface by Dr. David R. Sawyer.

What Christ? Whose Christ? Mark D. Chapman, Natalie K. Watson, Anantanand Rambachan, Mathias Schneider, Paul Hedges, 2024-03-15 This book explores a Christian view of Jesus of Nazareth that responds to critical demands from numerous perspectives encompassing Jesus of History, research, differing cultural contexts, feminism and post-colonialism.

Religious Pluralism and Interreligious Theology Schmidt-Leukel, Perry, 2017-02-16

Beyond Boundaries Melanie Barbato, Mathias Schneider, Fabian Völker, 2024 Perry Schmidt Leukel has made significant contributions to the academic study of religion and religious diversity through his innovative work in Theology and Religious Studies. In his publications he has not only overcome apologetic barriers between Buddhism and Christianity and demonstrated the potential for mutual enrichment of various religious traditions in dialogue but also championed a pluralist Theology of

Religions On this pluralist basis Schmidt Leukel has developed the vision of a theology beyond boundaries which takes the form of interreligious discourse and draws on the rich resources and insights of the global history of religions This Festschrift in honor of Perry Schmidt Leukel on the occasion of his seventieth birthday brings together essays that constructively engage with his erudite and wide ranging contributions to the fields of Theology of Religions Interreligious Theology Philosophy of Religion Buddhist and Religious Studies Buddhist Christian Relations and Interreligious Dialogue Contributions by Melanie Barbato Reinhold Bernhardt Thomas Cattoi Catherine Cornille Rose Drew Joachim Gentz Elizabeth J Harris Stephen E Harris Paul Hedges Dennis Hirota Christopher V Jones Reinhard Kirste Paul F Knitter Pan chiu Lai Andreas Nehring Bernhard Nitsche Gregor Paul Alan Race Achim Riggert Martin R tting Kenneth Rose Mathias Schneider Reza Shah Kazemi and Fabian V lker New Paths for Interreligious Theology Race, Alan,Knitter, Paul,2019-10-24 Latin American Theology Bingemer, Maria Clara ,2016-06-08 Learning from Other Religions David Brown,2023-11-16 One common argument against taking the notion of divine revelation seriously is the extraordinary diversity which exists between the world s major religions How can God be thought to have spoken to humanity when the conclusions drawn are so very different David Brown authoritatively and persuasively tackles this issue head on He refutes the idea that all faiths necessarily culminate in Christianity or that they can be reduced to some facile lowest common denominator arguing instead that ideas may emerge more naturally in one context than another Sometimes because of its own singular situation another religion has proved to be more perceptive on a particular issue than Christianity At other times no religion will hold the ultimate answer because what can be asserted is heavily dependent on what is viable both scientifically and philosophically Although complete reconciliation is impossible a richer notion of revelation so the author suggests can be the result Learning from Other Religious Traditions Hans Gustafson,2018-05-16 This book brings together academic scholars from across various religious traditions to reflect on the beauty they find in traditions other than their own They examine these aspects and reflect on how they inform and constructively assist with rethinking their own religious worldviews and practices Each scholar investigates the various implications questions insights and challenges that are generated in the process of doing so Traditions discussed include satr Heathenism Buddhism Catholicism Evangelical Christianity Hinduism Islam Judaism LDS Mormon Christianity Lutheranism Presbyterianism Sikhism Sufism Western Buddhism and Zen Mah y na Buddhism Instead of focusing only or primarily on the theory and practice of interreligious dialogue this book presents living examples of learning from other religious traditions identities and persons The Ocean of God Roland Faber,2019-06-29 The Ocean of God conveys the proposition that the future of religions if they will not want to contribute to the destruction of humanity will become transreligious Based on the assumption that the spiritual impulse of humanity cannot simply be eradicated religiosity will persist in transreligious forms as secularizations naturalizations and transhumanist dreams only envision such transformations but fall short in their ability to replace the force of spirituality to further civilized peace of human existence on Earth and its future in evolutionary ecological and cosmological dimensions In relating the contributions of religious pluralism to the concept of the unity of religions which have arisen in this new axial age for overcoming the checkered history of religions in furthering peace the program of a polyphilic pluralism with its transreligious discourse based on the insight of the fundamental relativity of religious truth and the special contributions of process philosophy and theology as well as the Bah universe of thought analyses and projects a new religiosity or spirit enabling religions to overcome their deepest motives of strife and warfare

The Problem of Religious Experience Olga Louchakova-Schwartz, 2020-01-28

For a long time the philosophically difficult topic of religious experience has been on the sidelines of phenomenological research with a notable exception of Anthony Steinbock who focused on mysticism The book The Problem of Religious Experience Case Studies in Phenomenology with Reflections and Commentaries brings together preeminent as well as emerging voices in the field with fresh views on the topic Originating from dialogues of the Society for the Phenomenology of Religious Experience these two volumes cover a spectrum of phenomenological approaches with a thematization of the field in the form of case studies Contributions from theology comparative religion psychology and the philosophy of religion come together in the commentaries and meta narrative written by Olga Louchakova Schwartz the editor Volume I The Primeval Showing of Religious Experience examines religious experience with regard to its lived interiority in light of the problem of the ego cogito including the recent research on the embodiment of subjectivity and phenomenological materiality Volume I also sheds light on religious experience in regard for the problems of its constitution passive synthesis the world and otherness Volume II Doxastic Perspectives in the Phenomenology of Religious Experience addresses the phenomenology of revelation shows how different approaches treat the question of essence in religious experience i e what is it that makes religious experience religious and demonstrates how religious experience contributes to the psychological horizon of meaning The book identifies the growing edges in the phenomenological research of religious experience and is useful for psychologists philosophers and theologians alike The two volumes offer an excellent interdisciplinary introduction to the phenomenon of religious experience The case studies presented in them are arranged under the central topics of self alterity revelation and psychological aspects of religious experience and provide outstanding examples of applied phenomenology Hans Rainer Sepp Charles University Prague and Central European Institute of Philosophy In the context of the return of religion this book offers both a timely and necessary contribution to confront the peculiarities of religious experience Providing readers with applied phenomenological descriptions in an interdisciplinary spirit these debates will prove stimulating for a resurgent field of research that is starting to refine its conceptual devices and methodological presuppositions University of Vienna
