Crisler,2023-05-04 In A Synoptic Christology of Lament The Lord Who Answered and the Lord Who Cried Channing Crisler explores an oft underappreciated description of Jesus in which the Synoptic writers portray him as both answering cries of distress and uttering them himself Matthew Mark and Luke take up the quintessential language of suffering from Israel s Scriptures namely lament Their engagement with lament overlaps and diverges from one another based upon their specific biographical aims What emerges from this engagement is a diverse biographical portrait in which Jesus both responds to the cries of the afflicted as Israel s God did and shares in their cries as righteous sufferers from Israel s past did The explanatory climax of this phenomenon arises in the respective passion narratives where Jesus s ability to answer and utter lament finally converge in the same literary setting The implications of this dynamic are far reaching as it provides yet another consideration for ongoing research on early Christology The lament language embedded in the Synoptic Gospels and reflected in subsequent early Christian writings points to a belief among some Christ followers that Jesus answered their cries and participated in them Audio-visual Resources Guide National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America. Department of Audio-Visual and Radio Education,1960 Blue Book of Audio-visual Materials ,1954 Life of Christ Robert Geis,2013-03-08 Life of Christ bridges the gap between commentaries and devotional accounts of Christ s ministry Applying the requisite analytical tools it addresses the question is His life worth studying The Resurrection event would confirm it is as would the Gospel miracle accounts neither of which Geis argues skeptical response disproves Salvation history necessitates the reality of Mary's virginity which the author develops lexically and theologically Jesus teachings and parables bring out a Christ Whose moral precepts are rooted in His Divinity and not in western philosophic nostrums Geis discussion of Christ on marriage and His commandment of love sharpens this observation with lexical application He also addresses the inconsistent objectives and circular reasoning of various exegetical schools which have no place in a study of the Gospels 1000 and One; the Blue Book of Non-theatrical Films, 1954 The Contemporary Pulpit, 1893 Filmstrip Guide H.W.
