Jettchen Gebert; Roman, Von Georg Hermann Georg Hermann, 1919

Jettchen Gebert Georg Hermann, 1971

Georg Hermann John Craig-Sharples, 2019-05-27 Following the success of his novel Jettchen Gebert 1906 Georg Hermann 1871 1943 became one of Germany's best loved authors Schnitzler called him the Jewish Fontane A Berliner himself Hermann was celebrated for capturing the spirit and atmosphere of the city and renowned for his Impressionistic ability to evoke mood and ambience He became a prominent opponent of war in 1914 and his journalism during the Weimar years shows him to have been one of the first writers to recognise the threat posed by the rising tide of anti-Semitism Facing arrest in March 1933 he went into exile in the Netherlands but continued to publish new novels most notably Rosenemil 1935 Following the German occupation Hermann was incarcerated in Westerbork in June 1943 He was transported from there to Auschwitz where he died Richly illustrated with previously unseen photographs from the family's extensive private collection this intimate study tells Hermann's complete story for the first time blending an exploration of his personal world with analysis of his principal works and reveals how an understanding of Hermann's life offers fresh insights into the darkest period in German history John Craig Sharples read Modern History at Brasenose College Oxford and has subsequently worked in the UK civil service He is Georg Hermann's great grandson

Yale Companion to Jewish Writing and Thought in German Culture, 1096-1996 Sander L. Gilman, 1997-01-01 This work provides a history of Jewish writing and thought in the German speaking world Written by 118 scholars in the field the book is arranged chronologically moving from the 11th century to the present Throughout it depicts the contribution that Jewish writers have made to German culture and at the same time explores what it means to the other within that mainstream culture

Jews in Business and Their Representation in German Literature, 1827-1934 John Ward, 2010 The emancipation of Jews that commenced in Germany in the early 19th century pushed many Jews into urban commerce industries and intellectual professions The ongoing modernization and the Jewish prominence in business brought about an anti-Jewish reaction Jews were seen as the incarnation of the new materialistic Zeitgeist dishonest merchants pursuing non-German business practices and usurpers of economic power The Jews represented an alien unwanted economic system The backlash against the Jewish businessman was reflected in contemporary literature from Wilhelm Hauff's Jud S 1827 to the Nazi novel Shylock unter Bauern by Felix Nabor 1934 Examines the representation of the Jewish businessman in German literature in both antisemitic works and apologetic ones Two schools of thought can be discerned in these writings that the Jews including the businessmen can be corrected and assimilated into the German nation e.g. in Freytag's Soll und Haben 1855 and the racist and eliminationist conception of the Jews as unassimilable and inherently detrimental aliens who have to be removed from the body of the nation as in Wilhelm von Polenz's Der Böttnerbauer 1895 with Heinrich Mann's anti-Jewish writings somewhere in between Discusses also the ambivalent stance of Theodor Fontane Dwells on two cautionary tales written by Jewish authors and addressed to the Jews the novel Jud S by Feuchtwanger 1925 and the play Jud S by Paul Kornfeld 1929 as well as responses to antisemitism addressed to a general audience Der neue Ahasver by Fritz Mauthner 1881 Ren Richter by Lothar Brieger Wasservogel 1906 and Hermann Bahr's Die Rotte Korahs 1919 a philosemitic non Jewish response The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints Library of Congress, American Library Association. Committee on Resources of American Libraries. National Union Catalog Subcommittee, 1970 The Jewish Kulturbund Theatre Company in Nazi Berlin Rebecca Rovit, 2012-09 Revealing the complex interplay between history and human lives under conditions of duress Rebecca Rovit focuses on the eight year odyssey of Berlin's Jewish Kulturbund Theatre By examining why and how an all Jewish repertory theatre could coexist with the Nazi regime Rovit raises broader questions about the nature of art in an environment of coercion and isolation artistic integrity and adaptability and community and identity BACK COVER

Masses and Man George L. Mosse, 2024-06-25 In fourteen essays that speak to the full breadth of George L Mosse's intellectual horizons and scholarly legacy Masses and Man explores radical nationalism fascism and Jewish modernity in twentieth century Europe Breaking from the conventions of historical analysis Mosse shows that secular religions like fascism cannot be understood only as the products of socioeconomic or intellectual histories but rather must be approached first and foremost as cultural phenomena Masses and Man comprises three parts The first lays out a cultural history of nationalism essentially the first of its kind emphasizing the importance of sacred expressions like myths symbols and rituals as appropriated in a political context The second zeroes in on fascism's most dramatic irruptions in European history in the rise of Italian Fascism and the Nazi Party in Germany elucidating these as not just political movements but also cultural and even aesthetic ones The third part considers nationalism and fascism from the particular standpoint of German Jews Taken in full the volume offers an eloquent summation of Mosse's groundbreaking insights into European nationalism fascism and Jewish history in the twentieth century A new critical introduction by Enzo Traverso helpfully situates Mosse's work in context and exposes the many ways in which Masses and Man first published in 1980 remains relevant today A History of Zionism Walter Laqueur, 2009-07-01 From one of the most distinguished historians of our time comes the definitive general history of the Zionist movement Theodor Fontane and the European Context, 2021-12-28 On the centenary of Fontane's death and at the turn of the century these essays take a new look at this supreme chronicler of Prussia and of the Germany that emerges after 1871 Written by scholars from different countries and disciplines they focus on novels and theatre reviews from the perspectives of philosophy sociology comparative literature and translation theory and in the contexts of topography and painting Connections and crosscurrents emerge to reveal new aspects of Fontane's poetics and to produce contrasting but complementary readings of his novels He appears in the company of predecessors and contemporaries such as Scott Thackeray Saar Ibsen Turgenev but also in that of writers he has rarely if ever been seen beside such as E T A Hoffmann Stendhal Trollope Henry James and Edith Wharton Beckett and Faulkner The historical novel and the social position of women are each a recurring focus of interest Fontane emerges as receptive to other voices as a precursor of developments in modern narrative and confirmed as the novelist who brings the nineteenth century German novel closest to the broad traditions of European realism The Jewish Literary Annual ,1907 The Modern Language Review ,1912 The History of German Literature on Film Christiane Schönfeld,2023-06-15 A 2024 CHOICE OUTSTANDING ACADEMIC TITLE This book tells the story of German language literature on film beginning with pioneering motion picture adaptations of Faust in 1897 and early debates focused on high art as mass culture It explores analyzes and contextualizes the so called golden age of silent cinema in the 1920s the impact of sound on adaptation practices the abuse of literary heritage by Nazi filmmakers and traces the role of German language literature in exile and postwar films across ideological boundaries in divided Germany in New German Cinema and in remakes and movies for cinema as well as television and streaming services in the 21st century Having provided the narrative core to thousands of films since the late 19th century many of German cinema s most influential masterpieces were inspired by canonical texts popular plays and even children s literature Not being restricted to German adaptations however this book also traces the role of literature originally written in German in international film productions which sheds light on the interrelation between cinema and key historical events It outlines how processes of adaptation are shaped by global catastrophes and the emergence of nations by materialist conditions liberal economies and capitalist imperatives political agendas the mobility of individuals and sometimes by the desire to create reflective surfaces and perhaps even art Commercial cinema s adaptation practices have foregrounded economic interest but numerous filmmakers throughout cinema history have turned to German language literature not simply to entertain but as a creative contribution to the public sphere marking adaptation practice at least potentially as a form of active citizenship

Catalog of the Archival Collections Leo Baeck Institute,1990 One of the primary reasons for founding the Leo Baeck Institute was to create a place where the remnants of public and family archives of German Jewry could be collected and preserved for study and research It includes over 4 000 collections The Taming of Romanticism Virgil Nemoianu,1984 Looking at a broad spectrum of writers English French German Italian Russian and other East Europeans Virgil Nemoianu offers here a coherent characterization of the period 1815 1848 This he calls the era of the domestication of romanticism The explosive visionary core of romanticism is seen to give way after the defeat of Napoleon to an expanded and softer version reflecting middle class values This later form of romanticism is characterized by moralizing efforts to reform society a sentimental yearning for the tranquility of home and hearth and persistent faith in the individual alongside a new skepticism shattered ideals and consequent irony Expanding the application of the term Biedermeier which has been useful in describing this period in German literature Nemoianu provides a new framework for understanding these years in a wider European context The Library Sir John Young Walker MacAlister,Alfred William Pollard,Ronald Brunlees McKerrow,Sir Frank Chilton Francis,1908 The Making of the Jewish Middle Class Marion A. Kaplan,1991 Describes the life of Jewish middle class women in Wilhelmine Germany Pp 148 152 Anti Semitism in the University state that until about 1905 women students discriminated against because of their sex tended to show solidarity by forming organizations open to all in contrast to the segregated male students organizations Russian Jewish women were especially despised even by German Jewish male students Pp 182 185 describe discrimination against Jewish teachers noting that their chances of employment were highly limited See also the index under Anti Semitism
