John Ferguson Weir Betsy Fahlman, 1997 This monograph is the first scholarly study of John Ferguson Weir 1841 1926 Weir has been long overshadowed by his father Robert Walter Weir 1803 89 and his Impressionist brother Julian Alden Weir 1852 1919 This volume definitively restores John s reputation Two major contributions as an artist and as a teacher insure his prominent place in the history of American art In his paintings he tackled significant subject matter of broad cultural resonance Weir s forty four year long career as director of Yale University s School of the Fine Arts also represents a seminal contribution to the nation s cultural history John Ferguson Weir The Labor of Art contains over 140 illustrations seven in color In addition a detailed chronology of Weir s life is contained in an appendix BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The Unfinished Exhibition Susanna Gold, 2016-12-08 The Unfinished Exhibition the first comprehensive examination of American art at the Centennial explains the critical role of visual culture in negotiating memories of the nation s past that conflicted with the optimism that Exhibition officials promoted Supporting novel iconographical interpretations with myriad primary source material author Susanna W Gold demonstrates how the art galleries and the audiences who visited them addressed the lingering traumas of battle the uneasy re unification of North and South and the persisting racial tensions in the post Emancipation era American Women Modernists Robert Henri, Marian Wardle, Sarah Burns, Brigham Young University. Museum of Art, 2005 The seven essays included in this volume move beyond the famed Ashcan School to recover the lesser known work of Robert Henri s women students The contributors who include well known scholars of art history American studies and cultural studies demonstrate how these women participated in the modernizing of women s roles during this era The Weir Family, 1820-1920 Marian Wardle, Brigham Young University. structuring role of women art educators and women students the shift from the fine arts to the visual arts the fundamental grammar of art laid down in the schoolroom and the development of professional art training in the American university Singerman's book reveals the ways we have conceived of art in the past hundred years and have institutionalized that conception as atelier activity as craft and finally as theory and performance Nearly every artist under the age of fifty in the United States today has a Master of Fine Arts degree Howard Singerman's thoughtful study is the first to place that degree in its proper historical framework and ideological context Arguing that where art is made is as important as what is made
