fan of this iconic filmmaker's work John Ford and the American West Peter Cowie, 2004-11 From his first feature Straight Shooting 1917 to Cheyenne Autumn 1964 it is especially in his Westerns including such cinematic gems as Stagecoach My Darling Clementine Fort Apache She Wore a Yellow Ribbon Wagon Master and The Searchers that Ford created a unique personal vision of his country's past both rooted in and reacting to the aspirations of Manifest Destiny the supremely self-confident belief that continually propelled American society westward across the continent The American West on Film Johnny D. Boggs, 2019-11-15 More than a history of Western movies The American West on Film intertwines film history the history of the American West and American social history into one unique volume The American West on Film chronicles 12 Hollywood motion pictures that are set in the post-Civil War American West including The Ox-Bow Incident Red River High Noon The Searchers The Magnificent Seven Little Big Man and Tombstone Each film overview summarizes the movie's plot details how the film came to be made the critical and box office reactions upon its release and the history of the time period or actual event This is followed by a comparison and contrast of the filmmakers' version of history with the facts as well as an analysis of the film's significance then and now Relying on contemporary accounts and historical analysis as well as perspectives from filmmakers historians and critics the author describes what it took to get each movie made and how close to the historical truth the movie actually got Readers will come away with a better understanding of how movies often reflect the time in which they were made and how Westerns can offer provocative social commentary hidden beneath old-fashioned shoot-em-ups The American Western A Complete Film Guide Terry Rowan, 2012-11-18 A comprehensive film guide featuring films and television shows of the great American western The stories of the men and women who tamed the old West Also featuring actors and directors who made these films possible A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.), 1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long known to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance John Ford Bill Levy, 1998-11-30 John Ford 1894-1973 is universally acknowledged as one of the greatest directors in the history of cinema He is the only person to win four Academy Awards for Direction for The Informer 1935 The Grapes of Wrath 1940 How Green Was My Valley 1941 and The Quiet Man 1952 This reference book is a comprehensive guide to his career The volume begins with a biography that looks at Ford as a person a director and a cinematic legend and influence Ford's life is discussed chronologically but the biography repeatedly considers how his early experiences shaped his creative vision and attempts to explain why he was so self-destructive and unhappy throughout his career In addition the biography carefully scrutinizes his methods styles techniques and secrets of direction A chronology presents his achievements in capsule form The rest of the book provides detailed information about his many productions and about the response to his works The heart of the volume is a filmography which includes individual entries for 184 films with which Ford was involved as either an actor a director a producer a writer an advisor or an assistant These entries include cast and credit information a plot synopsis critical commentary and excerpts from reviews The book also includes the most extensive annotated bibliography on Ford ever published with more than 1000 entries for books articles dissertations documentaries and even four works of fiction concerning Ford Additional sections of the book provide information about his unrealized projects his radio television and theater work his awards and honors and special collections and archives

John Ford's Westerns William Darby,2015-08-01 John Ford s early Westerns reflect an optimistic view of society and individual capacity as his thematic vision evolved he became more resigned to the limitations of humanity His thematic evolution was evident in other films but was best shown in his Westerns with their stark depictions of the human condition Ford s sound Westerns and his major silent films are compared in this work revealing how his creative genius changed over time A complete filmography of Ford s Westerns is also provided

The American West: A New Interpretive History Robert V. Hine,John Mack Faragher,Jon T. Coleman,2017-08-08 A fully revised and updated new edition of the classic history of western America The newly revised second edition of this concise engaging and unorthodox history of America s West has been updated to incorporate new research including recent scholarship on Native American lives and cultures An ideal text for course work it presents the West as both frontier and region examining the clashing of different cultures and ethnic groups that occurred in the western territories from the first Columbian contacts between Native Americans and Europeans up to the end of the twentieth century

John Ford Scott Eyman,Paul Duncan,2004 This text takes a critical look at the films of John Ford including Stagecoach The Fugitive and The Quiet Man
