Lloyd-Jones, 2009-01-14 This substantial volume includes more than fifty never before published expository sermons on John 4 from one of the twentieth century's greatest preachers. It was just a conversation between two people by the side of a well in Samaria. One a local woman came to perform her daily task of drawing water. Another a Jewish man tired from traveling sat down for a drink. But he wasn't just any Jewish man and this wasn't just any conversation. The man Jesus revealed himself as the Messiah leading to the conversion of not only the Samaritan woman but many from her town. Now for the first time fifty-six sermons by Martyn Lloyd Jones on this passage of Scripture are available in Living Water. Lloyd Jones known for his ability to clearly communicate profound theological concepts digs into this familiar passage from the fourth chapter of the Gospel of John exposing fresh layers of truth. His perceptive analysis is helpful for all who thirst for the living water that only Jesus can provide. The Doctrine on Which the Church Stands or Falls (Foreword by D. A. Carson) Matthew

Barrett, 2019-03-14 Many factors contributed to the Protestant Reformation but one of the most significant was the debate over the doctrine of justification by faith alone. In fact Martin Luther argued that justification is the doctrine on which the church stands or falls. This comprehensive volume of 26 essays from a host of scholars explores the doctrine of justification from the lenses of history, the Bible, theology and pastoral practice revealing the enduring significance of this pillar of Protestant theology. Providence in the Story of Scripture Adamson Co, 2025-05-06 The doctrine of providence is often too abstract, complex or detached from real-life situations for introductory students. Drawing on years of experience in the classroom and the church, Adamson Co offers an introductory guide that uses the creation motif of the Bible to highlight the importance of providence for the Christian life. Co begins with a brief introduction to providence to give students the state of the question. He then explores the classical theme of the seventh and eighth days of creation as a helpful way to understand providence. He sets providence and human existence within the metanarrative of the Bible while explicating the doctrine in an overview fashion. Co demonstrates how the seventh and eighth days of creation bring clarity to traditional issues raised in systematic theology such as preservation, governance and concurrence, the problem of evil and divine sovereignty and human free will. Providence in the Story of Scripture challenges readers to live out a life of partnership with God in his providence and shows how the blessed hope of the Christian faith is God's life-transforming providence for today. The book includes a

Solving the Samaritan Riddle Kermit Zarley, 2015-09-23 This book attempts to solve the Samaritan riddle that is the focal point of the Dunn Debate Dr James D G Dunn's first book Baptism in the Holy Spirit 1970 claims the New Testament says baptism in the Holy Spirit always occurs simultaneously at conversion initiation In contrast classical Pentecostals contend that Spirit baptism always occurs subsequent to conversion and is evidenced by tongues speaking They mostly cite Acts 8:4-25 for subsequence It says Philip preached to the Samaritans and they believed but they did not receive the Spirit until Peter and John came days later and laid hands on them Dunn says these Samaritans and Jesus' 120 Jewish disciples in Acts 2 were not Christians until they were baptized with the Holy Spirit Zarley agrees with Pentecostals about subsequence in both cases But he claims these Samaritans and the Gentiles in Acts 10 were Spirit baptized due to Peter's presence using his metaphorical keys of the kingdom Jesus had promised to give him in Matt 16:19 After Peter opened kingdom doors for all three of these biblical classifications of people all people afterwards are Spirit baptized simultaneously upon conversion as Paul teaches and Dunn says except for the Ephesians anomaly in Acts 19:1-7

Holy Gravity Laura Jackson, 2023-07-03 Have you heard people say Fearing God doesn't mean to be afraid of Him but to be in awe of Him and revere Him I have too But what if it's more than that And what if this fear can change our lives We are living in dark chaotic times where sin is raging in the world and our hearts Even many in churches who say they love God are fighting habitual sins What if our sin problem is a fear problem In my grief I searched Scripture asking the Lord for a deeper understanding of the fear of God He revealed a powerful point of clarification fearing God is not only a mindset but a way of life It's not just how we feel or what we think about God but how we respond visibly to His glory With Scripture as its foundation and authority Holy Gravity explores the connection between our sanctification and the fear of God God's people are to be set apart our greatest distinction from the world is our fear of God manifested in holy living Through a relationship with Jesus Christ God frees us from sin maturing us by the Holy Spirit in visible ways In this place of God focused fear we can offer the hope of Christ to the world and one another I pray you will find that God intends our fear of Him to transform our lives and make us holy Fear God and keep his commandments for this is the whole duty of man Ecclesiastes 12:13
