Towards a Dialogical History of Modern Architecture Jorge

Francisco Liernur, 2024-07-15 The book challenges three perspectives on the modern architectural canon explanations that disregard impacts and effects beyond the North Atlantic monologic superficial modifications that simply add Other figures to the canon and views that reject the canon itself Instead it recognizes the canon's significance in comprehending architecture while seeking to uncover its presumed Western centric integrity through a shift from a monological to a dialogical approach This approach integrates concepts of identity and Otherness as dialectically articulated and mutually interrelated In essence the book's main thesis contends that the canon's historiographic construction overlooked the existence of Otherness specifically neglecting the world beyond the North Atlantic nucleus of the West By examining a global context to comprehend the canon formation the book proposes a more accurate understanding of the history of modern architecture Recognizing that this task cannot emanate from a single hegemonic center it presents the prospect of a coral type architectural history This narrative should and could encompass voices from diverse cultures to explore the particular circumstances of the world intertwined with each piece or figure transiently integrated into that canon As a result the ideal readers of this book position themselves within multiple settings keen on engaging in a critical global conversation about modern architectural discourse It will be of interest to researchers and students of architecture architectural history and cultural studies

Resisting Postmodern Architecture Stylianos Giamarellos, 2022-01-10 Since its first appearance in 1981 critical regionalism has enjoyed a celebrated worldwide reception The 1990s increased its pertinence as an architectural theory that defends the cultural identity of a place resisting the homogenising onslaught of globalisation Today its main principles such as acknowledging the climate history materials culture and topography of a specific place are integrated in architects' education across the globe But at the same time the richer cross cultural history of critical regionalism has been reduced to schematic juxtapositions of the global with the local Retrieving both the globalising branches and the overlooked cross cultural roots of critical regionalism Resisting Postmodern Architecture resituates critical regionalism within the wider framework of debates around postmodern architecture the diverse contexts from which it emerged and the cultural media complex that conditioned its reception In so doing it explores the intersection of three areas of growing historical and theoretical interest postmodernism critical regionalism and globalisation Based on more than 50 interviews and previously unpublished archival material from six countries the book transgresses existing barriers to integrate sources in other languages into anglophone architectural scholarship In so doing it shows how the periphery was not just a passive recipient but also an active generator of architectural theory and practice Stylianos Giamarellos challenges long held central notions of supposedly international discourses of the recent past and outlines critical regionalism as an unfinished project apposite for the 21st century on the fronts of architectural theory history and historiography

A System's Evaluation of Global History of Indian Architecture Joy Sen, 2016-12-02 Deep within an inner cave guhahitam of our existence remains our potential Divinity It is the place where our reflected sentient being the First Bird is trying to probe into to recover the hidden sun The allegory is evident in the parable of the Cave once preached by the Upanishads and later by the Greek philosopher Plato The probe is to push forward the First Bird to surge higher in the resplendent celestial blue under the full radiance of the Solar world which is the Second resulting in an explosion of an infinite all pervading Divinity Till the union and the rapture is attained there are the two Birds one the psychic being which is within us and the other one which is the direct portion of the Divine The direct portion is constantly trying to guide and work within us so that evolution goes on and on In the words of Sri Aurobindo it is the haitya Purusha the direct portion of the Divine in the human which is working incessantly till the rapture is activated Ancient roots are evident in the ancient Swetaswatara Upanishad hailed by the primordial Sage Kapila and coded originally in a later text called the Bhagabat Purana The haitya Purusha is also the being that is behind the Chitta Sri Aurobindo says Millenniums later the inspired Architects in the most ancient of all Buddhist ages had carved out the sacred idea in form of rock cut expressions called the Chaitya hall As the Mahayana Sutra of the foremost Shurangama at the Crown of the Great Buddha says the way of practicing the Samadhi is not singular and its actual method of cultivation depends upon the functioning of mind and mental concomitants Citta Chaitya pravritti of each being and their interconnectedness Mahat It is in the recovery or a re tracing of the two as a DIVINITY that is originally ONE an individual's journey called evolution and a collective journey called civilization itself are sustained It is also from the deeper embedded patterns of this journey the gems of the system's foundation can be quarried

Immaterial Architecture Jonathan Hill, 2006-04-18 This fascinating argument from Jonathan Hill presents the case for the significance and importance of the immaterial in architecture Architecture is generally perceived as the solid physical matter that it unarguably creates but what of the spaces it creates This issue drives Hill s explorative look at the immaterial aspects of architecture The book discusses the pressures on architecture and the architectural profession to be respectively solid matter and solid practice and considers concepts that align architecture with the immaterial such as the superiority of ideas over matter command of drawing and design of spaces and surfaces Focusing on immaterial architecture as the perceived absence of matter Hill devises new means to explore the creativity of both the user and the architect advocating an architecture that fuses the immaterial and the material and considers its consequences challenging preconceptions about architecture its practice purpose matter and use This is a useful and innovative read that encourages architects and students to think beyond established theory and practice Architecture and Building ,1897
