Greg Egan Learning To Be Me:

Gedanken Fictions Thomas A. Easton, 2000-04-01 Greg Egan Karen Burnham, 2014-04-30 Greg Egan 1961 publishes works that challenge readers with rigorous deeply informed scientific speculation He unapologetically delves into mathematics physics and other disciplines in his prose putting him in the vanguard of the hard science fiction renaissance of the 1990s A working physicist and engineer Karen Burnham is uniquely positioned to provide an in depth study of Egan s science heavy oeuvre Her survey of the author s career covers novels like Permutation City and Schild s Ladder and the Hugo Award winning novella Oceanic analyzing how Egan used cutting edge scientific theory to explore ethical questions and the nature of humanity As Burnham shows Egan s collected works constitute a bold artistic statement that narratives of science are equal to those of poetry and drama and that science holds a place in the human condition as exalted as religion or art The volume includes a rare interview with the famously press shy Egan covering his works themes intellectual interests and thought processes

A Beginner's Guide to Immortality Clifford A. Pickover, 2006-12-27 A Beginner s Guide to Immortality is a celebration of unusual lives and creative thinkers who punched through ordinary cultural norms while becoming successful in their own niches In his latest and greatest work world renowned science writer Cliff Pickover studies such colorful characters as Truman Capote John Cage Stephen Wolfram Ray Kurzweil and Wilhelm Rontgen and their curious ideas Through these individuals we can better explore life s astonishing richness and glimpse the diversity of human imagination Part memoir and part surrealistic perspective on culture A Beginner s Guide to Immortality gives readers a glimpse of new ways of thinking and of other worlds as he reaches across cultures and peers beyond our ordinary reality He illuminates some of the most mysterious phenomena affecting our species What is creativity What are the religious implications of mosquito evolution simulated Matrix realities the brain s own marijuana and the mathematics of the apocalypse Could we be a mere software simulation living in a matrix Who is Elisabeth K bler Ross and Emanuel Swedenborg Did church forefathers eat psychedelic snails How can we safely expand our minds to become more successful and reason beyond the limits of our own intuition How can we become immortal

The Year's Best Science Fiction: Eighth Annual Collection Gardner Dozois, 1991-06-15 This edition of The Year s Best Science Fiction collects twenty five of the finest works of speculative fiction to see print in 1990 stories from the genre s every edge and from its heart Among the many marvels are tales from the field s most accomplished artists Ursula K Le Guin s The Shobies Story returns to the Hainish worlds with a reality defining story while Joe Haldeman s The Hemmingway Hoax embarks from our world on a time defying trip through other possibilities Kate Wilhelm Michael Moorcock Robert Silverberg and John Brunner demonstrate too with their stories why they remain among the most popular science fiction writers of all time With the closing of a decade and cyberpunk virtually becoming reality many of the leading writers of the eighties have begun to bring new insight and vision to their fiction Bruce Sterling examines a classic clash of cultures in We See Things Differently and James Patrick Kelly s Mr Boy presents a hard edged story about the guts of growing up Lewis Shiner's White City and Connie Willis's Cibola both seek peace of sorts amid spectacle and works by Nancy Kress Lucius Shepard and Robert Frazier Pat Murphy and John Kessel also dazzle and amaze Among the many other stories in this volume are powerhouse piece by Terry Bisson Molly Gloss Ian McDonald Charles Sheffield Alexander Jablokov and Dafydd ab Hugh as well as towering new mindscapes from young talents such as Jonathan Lethem Ian R MacLeod Greg Egan and Ted Chiang A wonderful tour through possible probable and virtual realities The Year's Best Science Fiction is an ideal assemblage of the year's short fiction This volume is essential to anyone who reads sf A virtually indispensable series Kirkus Reviews

Transparent Minds in Science Fiction Paul

Matthews,2023-10-17 Transparent Minds explores the intersection between neuroscience and science fiction stories Paul Matthews expertly analyses the narratives of humans and nonhumans from Mary Shelley to Kazuo Ishiguro across 200 years of the genre In doing so he gives lucid insight into the meaning of existence and self awareness Rigorously researched and highly accessible Matthews argues that psycho emotional science fiction writers both imitate and inform alien and post human consciousnesses through exploratory narratives and metaphor Drawing from a diverse range of scholars and critics Matthews explores topics such as psychonarration and neuroaesthetics to create a thoughtful and cogent argument By synthesising concepts from philosophy neuroscience and literary theory Matthews posits the potential for science fiction to bridge the gap in understanding between AI and human minds Given the recent advancements in AI technology Matthews timely discussion enters the speculative realm of sentient technology and postcyborg ethics The work constitutes a major contribution to cross disciplinary perspectives on alien and posthuman psychology that engages with future states of existence in both ourselves and the machines we create Transparent Minds will be of interest to innovators authors and science fiction enthusiasts alike

Reality+ David J. Chalmers,2022-01-25 One of the Washington Post's Best Nonfiction

Books of 2022 A leading philosopher takes a mind bending journey through virtual worlds illuminating the nature of reality and our place within it Virtual reality is genuine reality that's the central thesis of Reality In a highly original work of technophilosophy David J Chalmers gives a compelling analysis of our technological future He argues that virtual worlds are not second class worlds and that we can live a meaningful life in virtual reality We may even be in a virtual world already Along the way Chalmers conducts a grand tour of big ideas in philosophy and science He uses virtual reality technology to offer a new perspective on long established philosophical questions How do we know that there's an external world Is there a god What is the nature of reality What's the relation between mind and body How can we lead a good life All of these questions are illuminated or transformed by Chalmers mind bending analysis Studded with illustrations that bring philosophical issues to life Reality is a major statement that will shape discussion of philosophy science and technology for years to come

Center, 2017-11-08 Care to take a ride This book takes a tour through my life From the halls of Congress to the Middle East and many points in between these stories are the mile markers of my life The fare is reasonable the scenery interesting and the conversation amusing Hop in War on the Human Konstantinos Blatanis, Theodora Tsimpouki, 2017-05-11 The essays in this collection explore the question of the human both as a contested concept and as it relates to and functions within the wider global conjuncture The authors explore the theoretical underpinnings of the term human inviting the reader to reflect upon the contemporary human condition to identify opportunities and threats in the changes ahead and to determine what aspects of our species we should abandon or strive to maintain The volume approaches these ideas from a myriad of perspectives but the authors are united in their abstention from rejecting humanism outright or indeed fully endorsing posthumanism's teleological narrative of accelerated progress and perfectability Instead the authors argue that the term human itself is better understood as a concept perpetually undergoing revision and is necessarily subject to scrutiny The contributors here are thus concerned with investigating the following questions What does it mean to be human or to have a self What is the current place or status of the human in the contemporary world As technology is increasingly used to modify our bodies and minds to what extent should we alter and how can we improve our very understanding of human nature The authors contend that literature is the art form best placed to answer these questions In its dynamism and discursiveness literature has the capacity to both reflect dominant discourses and ideologies as well as to generate and even anticipate social change to critique and refine conventional ideas and existing cultural modes and to envision new possibilities for the future The human and its literary representation in other words are inherently intertwined The Year's Best Science

Fiction, 1992 Identity in Science Fiction Tom Cochrane, 2025-09-18 In the first science fiction and philosophy anthology to focus on identity a set of exemplary stories raise deep questions about who and what we are Featuring classic authors and brand new work we are confronted with a fundamental metaphysical topic within every story Are we souls brains animals or patterns of information Are the Buddhists right to say that the self is an illusion Do we survive under conditions such as total amnesia or the destruction of the body Each story is accompanied by an introductory overview and narrative explaining the ideas and the principal philosophical arguments behind it Alongside deeper appreciation of stories by authors such as Roald Dahl John Varley J R Dawson and Ursula Le Guin we are seamlessly introduced to the philosophy of personal identity through memorable fiction The Barbie Murders depicts a society in which each member conforms to a strict template for their physical and mental characteristics Marley and Marley follows a middle aged woman who takes part in a government program to travel back in time to take care of her orphaned younger self Edward the Conqueror illustrates the concept of the soul as an essence of a person that persists while other things about them may change Thought provoking and highly entertaining this one of a kind anthology challenges traditional beliefs around how we see ourselves and allows us to understand what it means to be human Residues of Death Tamara Kohn, Martin Gibbs, Bjorn Nansen, Luke van Ryn, 2019-05-16 This book provides a critical overview of the changing ways people mourn commemorate and interact with the remains of the dead including bodies materials and digital artefacts It focuses on how residues of death persist and circulate through different spaces materials data and mediated memories refiguring how the disposal of the dead is understood enacted and contested across the globe The volume contains contributions by scholars from a number of disciplines and includes a diverse range of case studies drawn from Asia Europe and North America Together they reveal how rapidly changing practices industries and experiences around death's remains involve the entwining of digital technologies with other material and ritualised forms of commemoration as well as with shifting boundaries between the sacred and the profane the institutional and the vernacular the public and the private Metaworlds Paul Collins, 1994 Collection of the most popular short stories written by Australian science fiction authors The stories chosen by computer on the basis of reader polls share themes including birth rebirth and transmutation Story authors include George Turner Damien Broderick Rosaleen Love Terry Dowling Greg Egan Jack Wodhams Stephen Dedman Leanne Frahm David Lake and Dirk Strasser The editor is author of Hot Lead Cold Sweat Psience Fiction Damien Broderick, 2018-05-31 Science fiction has often been considered the literature of futuristic technology fantastic warfare among the stars or ruinous apocalypses on Earth The last century however saw through John W Campbell the introduction of psience fiction which explores such themes of mental powers as telepathy precognition of the future teleportation etc and symbolic machines that react to such forces The author surveys this long ignored literary shift through a series of influential novels and short stories published between the 1930s and the present This discussion is framed by the sudden surge of interest in parapsychology and its absorption not only into the SF genre but also into the real world through military experiments such as the Star Gate Program Monsters of Film, Fiction, and Fable Lisa Wenger Bro, Mary Ann Gareis, Crystal O'Leary-Davidson, 2018-07-27 Monsters are a part of every society and ours is no exception They are deeply embedded in our history our mythos and our culture However treating them as simply a facet of children s stories or escapist entertainment belittles their importance When examined closely we see that monsters have always represented the things we fear that which is different which we can t understand which is dangerous which is Other But in many ways monsters also represent our growing awareness of ourselves and our changing place in a continually shrinking world Contemporary portrayals of the monstrous often have less to do with what we fear in others than with what we fear about ourselves what we fear we might be capable of The nineteen essays in this volume explore the place and function of the monstrous in a variety of media stories and novels like Baum s Oz books or Gibson s Neuromancer television series and feature films like The Walking Dead or Edward Scissorhands and myths and legends like Beowulf and The Loch Ness Monster in order to provide a closer understanding of not just who we are and who we have been but also who we believe we can be for better or worse
