Pastoral Care for Survivors of a Traumatic Death Jeonghyun Park, 2017-11-07 Modern life has led to an increase in traumatic deaths such as accidents murders suicide and other types of unanticipated violent death Family members and friends grieving a traumatic death face enormous shock numbness and despair as well as the need to find hope and God's mercy and grace in the midst of chaos difficult questions and confusion The Christian church and faith community often do not provide appropriate pastoral care to help the bereaved overcome their despair Jeonghyun Park explores the unique characteristics and dynamics of traumatic grief or grief in response to traumatic death and present several approaches to pastoral care The survivors of a traumatic death are likely to ask pastors spiritually despairing and tough questions such as Where is God in this tragic death If we have to accept this new reality where can we find God's grace and mercy power and justice Pastors and other spiritual leaders can provide comfort to the loved ones of victims of traumatic death by assisting them with their questions concerning a helpless God and a cruel God This book offers new insights through specific pastoral care models and guidance for families needing healing recovery and meaningful rituals Ageing and Older Adult

Mental Health Patrick Ryan, Barry J. Coughlan, 2013-03-01 This book examines the issues and implications that mental health professionals face when dealing with ageing and older adults The book focuses on the biological psychological and cultural influences that impact on the work of mental health practitioners who work with this client group Based on current empirical research and evidence based practical issues this book explores topics including ageing and dementia elder abuse caring for older adults depression and ageing the paradox of ageing how older adults are key to the success of future generations Throughout the book the contributors emphasise the notion of healthy ageing and the importance and significance of this concept as part of the life cycle process As such Ageing and Older Adult Mental Health will be key reading not only for mental health professionals but also for those involved in policy making for older adults The Grieving

Child in the Classroom Sue Trace Lawrence, 2019-11-27 The Grieving Child in the Classroom integrates the latest research on children's bereavement and adapts it for use in the classroom Chapters tackle the neurological cognitive emotional and social effects of childhood grief and demonstrate the ways in which those reactions can manifest in the classroom By recognizing individual differences in coping styles and considering variables such as developmental stage nature of the loss and availability of support teachers and staff can become better equipped to respond to the bereaved child's needs The book incorporates theoretical explanations of grief responses as well as practical suggestions for supporting bereaved children in real world settings Whether the loss affects one child or the entire student body educators can turn to this comprehensive guidebook for ways to support grieving students in their classrooms Healing Men's Pain Curriculum, Facilitator's

Guide Dan Griffin, Jonathan De Carlo, 2024-09-10 A 36 hour curriculum designed to help men overcome past trauma and develop the skills they need to live safe and caring lives Healing Men s Pain Curriculum helps male identified participants create a vision of the men they want to be and provides them with the awareness tools and confidence to achieve that vision Each of the 18 two hour cofacilitated sessions includes activities exercises and experiential opportunities enabling each participant to connect with the content on a personal level The program is wide ranging and encompasses a variety of topics to help participants develop increased self awareness to enhance their relationships Participants explore their childhood adolescent and adult trauma relational struggles particularly issues of healthy attachment and other issues that male identified individuals often experience The material in Healing Men s Pain Curriculum will stretch both participants and facilitators alike The sessions are designed to take a deep and comprehensive look at everything that blocks men from being the best men they can be The curriculum speaks to all learning styles through the use of art physical movement and roleplays Participants are given additional learning opportunities in the form of assignments to complete between sessions These assignments build upon the roleplays and in session practice to help participants translate the material directly into their own lives Help men address their traumas develop self awareness and build healthier relationships in recovery programs mental health groups or other settings Pick and choose from 18 intentionally designed lessons or use the entire curriculum in order Access engaging activities that get participants moving and talking despite diverse learning styles and backgrounds Focus on male socialization narrative therapy and interactive learning to help participants develop understanding of themselves and others Written by an expert on masculinity with a Master s degree in gender studies this curriculum is an excellent foundation or supplement to addiction programs trauma groups men s groups church groups and beyond Designed as a compliment to Helping Men Recover Handbook of Cognitive-Behavior Group Therapy with Children and Adolescents Ray W. Christner, Christy A. Mulligan, 2007-05-07 This Handbook offers a much needed resource of theoretical knowledge evidence based interventions and practical guidelines for professionals providing group psychotherapy to youth clients Written by leading professionals in the field of child and adolescent cognitive behavioral therapy this comprehensive volume offers readers a collection of innovative and well established approaches for group interventions with youth in a variety of treatment settings It addresses a wide range of issues not limited to assessment group member selection and specific protocols and strategies that readers can implement in their own practice Integrating theoretical and practical aspects leading experts offer their experience through case examples and vignettes suggesting guidelines for overcoming inherent treatment obstacles This Handbook provides not only a framework for delivering effective group therapy but also highlights specific problem areas and it is an invaluable reference for professionals providing therapeutic intervention to children and adolescents The Art of Grief J. Earl Rogers, 2011-02-10 Art and other expressive therapies are increasingly used in grief counseling not only among children and adolescents but throughout the developmental spectrum Creative activities are commonly used in group and individual psychotherapy programs but it is only relatively recently that these expressive modalities have been employed within the context of clinical grief work in structured settings These forms of nonverbal communication are often more natural ways to express thoughts and feelings that are difficult to discuss particularly when it comes to issues surrounding grief and loss Packed with pictures and instructional detail this book includes an eight session curriculum for use with grief support groups as well as alternative modalities of grief art therapy Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,2001 Settling the Storm: A Guide to Facilitating Grief Groups ,2011-04-23 Technically there are two types of grief groups The informative supportive grief groups purpose is to promote grief education and awareness It covers grief and bereavement in a more didactic fashion The second type of grief group is therapeutic in nature It is personal growth oriented groups focusing on facilitating the individual participant s own personal loss process Though many commonalities exist between these two types of groups each has its own unique dynamics and concerns This book focuses on the second type of group sometimes referred to as Grief Recovery Groups I prefer the term Grief Management I learned a long time ago that there is no recovery from grief precipitated by the loss of a beloved but we can overcome Settling the Storm is particularly designed for all who are currently leading a group who are thinking about facilitating a grief group in the future or would like to learn some additional skills or ideas in creating a grief group within a small gathering of people It was created and organized to help Facilitators plan and facilitate grief groups It takes off by inviting you to self assess readiness to lead grievers on the journey through grief reviews the typical characteristics of effective Facilitators and accentuates the vital skills necessary for ensuring positive outcomes The next chapter moves you on to a refresher glance at the anatomy of grief and bereavement by considering elements that influence grief explores the categories of grief and discusses issues relative to grief of the elderly The third section focuses on the essentials for group preparation and helps you organize your thoughts and ideas about groups The practical aspects of goals and objectives and other information are included to provide you with an adequate blueprint for the implementation of your first group session The Content of the Session provides you with some thoughts and suggestions on what to do in your grief groups In addition setting up group guidelines structuring cathartic activities and evaluating the group process are also covered You will be given tried and proven methodologies used to promote the emotional and spiritual well being of grieving group members and fundamental tools needed for ensuring the best possible results A grief group curriculum that can be used as a model is integrated into the overall presentation Optional resources are appended Bibliographic Guide to Psychology New York Public Library.
