Information Pamphlet Of The Comrades Marathon:

Comrades Marathon - The Ultimate Human Race John Cameron-Dow, 2012-09-27 It is the world's largest and oldest ultramarathon race. It is a festival celebrating the triumph of human spirit over adversity. It has a camaraderie that enables ordinary mortals to overcome human fragility and perform beyond their wildest expectations. In the words of Comrades marvel Bruce Fordyce, this race can inspire ordinary people to do extraordinary things and it brings out the best in all of us. This race has a power to transform, to inspire and to motivate unlike any other. The official Comrades Marathon The Ultimate Human Race begins in 1921 and chronologically describes every race in detail up to 2010's commemorative 85th event. All the legends are here in their full Comrades glory and human frailty: Arthur Newton, Hardy Ballington, Wally Hayward, Jackie Mekler, Alan Robb, Frith van der Merwe, Bruce Fordyce and others. But there is also deeply affectionate and admiring coverage of the backmarkers, the ones often called the real Comrades runners: those ordinary people behind the front runners. This meticulously researched account will certainly inspire all types of athletes, but more than that, it will evoke a sense of wonder at what body and mind can achieve in pursuit of extreme challenge. The heartbreaking and heart-stopping moments are documented alongside the countless successes and triumphs, as well as a rich collection of humorous and quirky anecdotes from Comrades lore. An updated history of the Comrades Marathon is long overdue, and author John Cameron Dow is uniquely qualified to write about this remarkable athletic event; he holds a prized green number mark of a ten-time Comrades medallist. South African Medical Journal, 1999. South African national bibliography, 1988. Includes publications received in terms of Copyright Act no 9 of 1916. Kaapse bibliotekaris, 1997. Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957. The Ghost Runner Bill Jones, 2013-03-05. The incredible inspiring and heartbreaking story of a phenomenal long distance runner's race against insurmountable odds and his own demons. John Tarrant was one of the best runners the world has ever seen. With a strange loping gait and a nearly fanatical determination, he dominated the field and crushed ultra long distance records for 40 and 100 miles. As a teenage boxer in the 1950s, Tarrant received 17 payment for a match, a pittance that would haunt him for the rest of his life by compromising his amateur athlete status. He would spend his career fighting the rule that banned him from competing, gatecrashing races and running without a number. Dubbed the Ghost Runner, he would again and again defy the odds, making history without officially being recognized for his achievements. This is the captivating story of his lifelong struggle for victory, acceptance and justice, from his difficult start as a poor child in WWII England to his fight to legitimize interracial races in Apartheid South Africa. Based on accounts from family, friends and competitors, and told with brutal honesty, Bill Jones uncovers one of the greatest untold sports stories of our time and documents the life of a man who simply would not be stopped. Jones tells the story very well, restores his legend while revealing his very human frailties. Kirkus Reviews. The Rice Institute Pamphlet, 1917.

Tales from Another Mother Runner John Holmes McDowell, Sarah Bowen Shea, 2015-03-03. The authors of Run Like a
