Making Saints in Modern China David Ownby, 2017 Sainthood has been and remains a contested category in China given the commitment of China's modern leadership to secularization modernization and revolution and the discomfort of China's elite with matters concerning religion However sainted religious leaders have succeeded in rebuilding old institutions and creating new ones despite the Chinese government's censure This book offers a new perspective on the history of religion in modern and contemporary China by focusing on the profiles of these religious leaders from the early 20th century through the present Edited by noted authorities in the field of Chinese religion Making Saints in Modern China offers biographies of prominent Daoists and Buddhists as well as of the charismatic leaders of redemptive societies and state managers of religious associations in the People's Republic The focus of the volume is largely on figures in China proper although some attention is accorded to those in Taiwan Hong Kong and other areas of the Chinese diaspora Each chapter offers a biography of a religious leader and a detailed discussion of the way in which he or she became a saint The biographies illustrate how these leaders deployed and sometimes retooled traditional themes in hagiography and charismatic communication to attract followers and compete in the religious marketplace Negotiation with often hostile authorities was also an important aspect of religious leadership and many of the saints' stories reveal unexpected reserves of creativity and determination The volume's contributors from the United States Canada France Italy China and Taiwan provide cutting edge scholarship Taken together these essays make the case that vital religious leadership and practice has existed and continues to exist in China despite the state's commitment to wholesale secularization

Path of Life graf Leo Tolstoy, 2002 Path of Life was the last book written by Lev Tolstoy Although the great nineteenth century Russian novelist is known in English speaking countries for his major novels War and Peace Anna Karenina and Resurrection He is less known for his numerous religious writings which present a challenging and original point of view These works have been undervalued as evidenced by the fact that Path of Life is translated here fully in English The reader will notice that Tolstoy anticipated many of the ideas presented in contemporary books on spirituality such as the observation that our thoughts determine our lives Tolstoy began to write this book in 1910 the last year of his life when he was 82 years old Given that he began the book in January and completed it in October of the same year one would think the writing went quickly but it only seems that way Tolstoy actually had been developing the themes presented in Path of Life for the last thirty years of his life In Path of Life Tolstoy defines how to find continuous happiness in life and how to die without fear In presenting his views he cites his own ideas and includes many quotations from an eclectic collection of ancient
