Area: Gymnastics

MF: Teddy Roll

Lesson 3: Teddy/Circle Roll

Warm up: 1,2,3

Encourage children to sit in the sitting (straddle) position as shown in the image. Each child should be given a ball and numbers 1,2 and 3 on a small page. The children will place the number 1 beside their left leg, number 2 in between their legs and number 3 beside their right leg. The teacher will call out numbers individually and then children will drop the ball on the number and catch again. They must keep their back and legs straight and rotate their torso. Once confident give sequences of numbers.

What it looks like

Lesson 3: Teddy/Circle Roll

Acquiring the skill

Each child should have a full mat to complete the roll. This roll requires the children to sit in straddle as with the warm up except this time with their hands behind their knees. The children need to lean down to one side and rotate their legs the opposite way.

To finish off the activity the children should complete a range of rotations for their arms and torso.

- Stand the children up, legs shoulder width apart and they rotate from side to side with hands on hips.
- Sit children in the straddle pose and rotate arms from side to side.
- Stand children up and keep feet together. Reach up tall.
- Feet together and lean forward towards the ground slowly and then return up.

Choose a few children who are confident and pair them up.
