Materials: Compare and Contrast Essay Teacher Resource Compare/Contrast & Contrast Essays Compare and Contrast Essay Checklist
Student Prior Knowledge: Students have previously considered an analysis of theme, characterization and impact for the book and movie Twilight (or some other book of interest). They have been practical with the concepts of compare, contrast, similarities, differences, thesis, transitions, and conclusions.
Instructional Activities Step 1 – Students will encounter different kinds of writing assignments; one of the most common is the compare/contrast essay where the focus is on the ways in which certain things or ideas – usually two of them – are similar to (compare) and/or different from (contrast) one another. While writing such essays students make connections between texts or ideas, engage in critical thinking, and go beyond mere description or summary. While students reflect on similarities and differences, they gain a deeper understanding of the items they are comparing, their relationship to each other, and what is most important about them. Students have read Twilight and have seen the movie. They will compare and contrast the two. While for some (book method) is introduced and discussed. Teacher Note: Teacher can use this interactive website on Compare and Contrast Essay or the Compare and Contrast Essay Teacher Resource if computer is not available to explain the compare and contrast essay format. Using the compare and contrast map, teacher models completing the graphic organizer (filled whole for whole). The introduction should contain the thesis statement. Always in the book includes themes, characterization, and impact on readers; analysis of the movie includes themes, characterization, and impact on viewers. The conclusion synthesizes the compare/contrasting of the two. Step 2 – Review the compare and contrast essay the General and the Model of Representations or Statements, pointing out the structure. Ask those students a brief argument as a way for students to organize their thoughts as they begin to write. Declare the importance of thesis and conclusion. The thesis of your compare/contrast paper is very important; it sets the tone of the argument and gives your reader a road map to what you don't get lost in the sea of points you are about to make.
