Cut Costs, Grow Stronger : A

Strategic Approach to What to Cut and What to Keep Paul Leinwand, Cesare R. Mainardi, 2009-07-15 For most companies cost cutting in a down economy means across the board slashing that spreads the pain of budget reductions across many departments While that may sound like the best approach for getting critical results fast and for limiting political infighting it is a mistake one that will leave your company weaker not just smaller Instead companies that need to reduce costs should treat the challenge as an opportunity to identify and reinforce their key capabilities while divesting from those activities that do not truly reflect the business's strengths or long term goals This more strategic approach will make your company more resilient as tough times continue and more robust as recovery begins In Cut Costs Grow Stronger an e book published as part of the Harvard Business Press Memo to the CEO series Booz Company's Shumeet Banerji Paul Leinwand and Cesare Mainardi provide executives with the tools they need to rapidly implement capabilities driven cost reduction First they demonstrate how to identify and clearly articulate your company's key capabilities not just core competencies or skill sets but those very few strengths that in combination define how your organization competes You can then use this information to create your company's unique blueprint for effective and efficient cost reduction The authors detailed step by step framework walks you through the process which can be completed in as little as two or three months it's something that you can do now This practical guide to capabilities driven cost cutting is the tool executives need to confront the challenge of today's economy while strengthening the foundation for what will set their company apart in the future

Strategic Alliances Steve Steinhilber, 2008-11-03 As a top executive you've almost certainly forged strategic alliances with other companies Some of these deals have worked but many others have likely failed In fact companies worldwide launch more than two thousand strategic alliances every year and more than half never deliver as promised In Strategic Alliances Steve Steinhilber proves that despite the odds alliances are critical to the business strategy for companies competing globally customers want integrated solutions to their problems and that's pushing companies to work together to create differentiated offerings Equally crucial well managed alliances generate important forms of business value including new products and accelerated growth Drawing on his experience as the head of Cisco's Strategic Alliances group Steinhilber has created tools and guidelines that will help you forge alliances that work He describes the three essential building blocks of successful alliances and explains how to establish The right framework by articulating how an alliance will help you achieve your company's strategic business goals and identifying potential partners The right organization by staffing your alliance organization with the right people and constantly honing their skills The right relationships by cultivating trust among the many key internal contacts in your organization and your alliance partners Engaging and authoritative Strategic Alliances shows you how to manage strategic partnerships more effectively and maximize their value in a complex and changing business environment From our new Memo to the CEO series solutions focused advice from today's leading practitioners

The current downturn may prove more brutal than most previous recessions. It's already hammering companies in markets around the globe. It will test businesses to their fullest; many won't survive. But downturns present strategic opportunities too. In fact, many more companies achieve dramatic gains during recessions than in normal times. How to ensure your company emerges successful? In Winning in Turbulence, a new volume in the Memo to the CEO series, Bain Company downturn strategist Darrell Rigby provides the playbook. He presents a powerful framework and diagnostic tool available in the book and online for assessing three dimensions of your situation: Your industry's sensitivity: How hard is it hit by this downturn? Your company's strategic position: Are you an industry leader or follower? Your firm's financial position, including cash reserves. The author then explains how to craft an action plan tailored to the situation you've diagnosed, providing tools for cutting costs intelligently, sustaining your margins, and brand boosting revenue by refocusing your sales force on the right customers, channeling resources into your core businesses, preparing for bold moves such as game-changing acquisitions. Timely and practical, this book positions you to survive a downturn and emerge stronger once the recovery begins.

Strategy & Business, 2008 Consulting Magazine, 2008 Die Abgrenzung der privaten Vermögensverwaltung von der Gewerblichkeit bei Private Equity-Fonds Felix Ritter, 2019-05-31. Als Rechtsanwender ist die Auflegung eines Private Equity Fonds in Deutschland mit dem Risiko der Gewerblichkeit behaftet, was zu einem Standortnachteil im internationalen Vergleich führt. Dieser Nachteil wird durch die aktuell herrschende Rechtsunsicherheit bei der Abgrenzung der privaten Vermögensverwaltung von der Gewerblichkeit verstärkt. Aus diesem Grund ist das Ziel von Felix Ritter, die Schaffung einer klaren gesetzlichen Lösung mit einer zwingenden Einordnung als vermögensverwaltend. Durch Rechtsvergleichung anderer Private Equity Gesetze, vornehmlich aus Spanien und Frankreich, stellt der Autor Eckpfeiler eines deutschen Private Equity Gesetzes auf. Des Weiteren weist er nach, inwieweit § 4 Nr. 8 h UStG als deutsche Umsetzungsvorschrift europarechtswidrig und daher anpassungspflichtig ist. Der Autor Dr. Felix Ritter LL.M. hat an der Humboldt Universität zu Berlin studiert und promoviert, seinen Master of Laws in Madrid absolviert und ist aktuell Rechtsreferendar am Kammergericht Berlin.
