

MAIL SELF

Dear/Respected

I wanted to thank you for giving me your precious time in all these years and transforming my life with your guidance. I am absolutely honest to say that without your support and love, I wouldn't have been able to be where I am today. You made me believe in my dreams. Without your advice and motivation, it wouldn't have been possible for me to turn my dreams into reality.

I will always remember how you stood by me when I needed you the most. You were a friend, a guide and also a father figure. My memory is still fresh with the times when we used to work on my projects over a cup of coffee at your place. I cannot ever repay the time and energy that you generously invested in my learning journey with you.

Thank you for guiding me, when I was losing hope. Thank you for your honest opinions, when I needed a reality check. You have not only helped me excel on the professional front, but also showed me the value of being an honest person. Today I hold my values dearly, and this would not have been possible without you.

You are a big inspiration to me. Thank you for everything that you've done for me. May God continue to bless you with good health and a great life. Please let me know if I can be of any help to you for your future projects.

Warmest Regards,

Letter From Mentor To Mentee:

Mentoring Novice Teachers Debra Eckerman Pitton, 2006-04-28 Mentoring Novice Teachers is thorough comprehensive and well thought out. The author provides an important addition to the growing number of publications about mentoring. Its focus is on the content of mentor training and development. Content is conveyed in a constructivist mode through group dialogue while at the same time allowing for individual reflection. Hal Portner, Author Mentoring New Teachers Deepen mentors awareness of effective practices for guiding novice teachers to success. How do we educate mentors so they are able to successfully work with novice teachers? Mentoring Novice Teachers examines roles in mentoring relationships, presents strategies that foster trust and open communication, and offers practical ideas for addressing the specific needs of novice teachers. This excellent updated resource focuses on building the knowledge and skills mentors need to effectively support and guide new teachers, as well as better understand the mentoring process. Reflections, discussion prompts, and role plays are incorporated throughout to increase mentors awareness and promote positive and effective interactions between mentors and beginning teachers. This second edition includes specific guidelines for facilitating a mentor training workshop. Expanded coverage of mentoring strategies and processes. Updated research about effective mentoring and communication. A stronger focus on mentoring individuals with diverse backgrounds and experiences. This unique book blends theory and practice in a format that meets the needs of mentors and facilitates a powerful means of support for novice teachers. Mentor/mentee

Perceptions of Mentor Functions Gary A. Teja, 2003 Choosing the Path of Teaching Barbara ten Brink, 2019-01-30

Choosing the Path of Teaching congratulates the new teacher for entering the profession of education. In a letter to her mentee, this science educator uses analogy to speak about the journey into the classroom with ultimately hundreds of precious students who make this journey with her or him. Beautiful photographs illustrate the experience. Dermatoethics

Lionel Bercovitch, Clifford S. Perlis, Benjamin K. Stoff, Jane M. Grant-Kels, 2021-02-26 This extensively updated textbook reviews the ethical issues faced within dermatology. Bringing together practical real life case scenarios and scholarly analysis, it covers the foundations of bioethics as well as ethical issues associated with the various roles dermatologists play, including clinician, professional educator, business person, and scholar. New chapters on the ethics of dermatologic care during pandemics, non traditional interventions, private equity in dermatology, self care and improvement, skin cancer screening, maintenance of certification, the ethics of clinical trial design, are also included. Dermatoethics: Contemporary Ethics and Professionalism in Dermatology 2nd Edition creates a dialogue around issues of ethics and professionalism within dermatology and is an essential text for both trainee and practicing dermatologists wishing to immerse themselves in the key questions in the discipline. On Being a Mentor W. Brad Johnson, Kimberly A. Griffin, 2024-10-25 This third edition of the classic On Being a Mentor is the definitive guide to the art and science of engaging students and faculty in effective mentoring relationships in all academic disciplines. Written for professors and academic leaders with pithy clarity, the text is rooted in the latest research on developmental relationships in higher educational settings and offers concrete mentoring strategies and best practices On Being a Mentor is infused with an equity minded approach and challenges faculty to foster cultures and leverage developmental relationships that honor mentees identities to promote inclusion equity and belonging The authors couple this call with evidence based rules of engagement for mentoring including both relational and career mentoring tactics as well as methods for forming and managing these relationships The authors provide mentors with a road map to being ethical and managing relationship problems and leaders will gain insights into selecting and training mentors assessing mentorship outcomes and cultivating a mentoring culture Chock full of illustrative case vignettes reflection questions and suggested readings this book is the ideal guidebook for faculty and a comprehensive training tool for mentoring workshops It will be a fantastic volume of reference for graduate students in colleges universities and professional schools in all academic fields including the social and behavioral sciences education natural sciences humanities and business legal and medical schools Maximilian Voloshin and the Russian Literary Circle Barbara Walker, 2004-12-14

Barbara Walker examines the Russian literary circle a feature of Russian intellectual and cultural life from tsarist times into the early Soviet period through the life story of one of its liveliest and most adored figures the poet Maximilian Voloshin 1877-1932 From 1911 until his death Voloshin led a circle in the Crimean village of Koktebel that was a haven for such literary luminaries as Marina Tsvetaeva Nikolai Gumilev and Osip Mandelstam Drawing upon the anthropological theories of Victor Turner Walker depicts the literary circle of late Imperial Russia as a contradictory mix of idealism and communitas on the one hand and traditional Russian patterns of patronage and networking on the other While detailing the colorful history of Voloshinov's circle in the pre and postrevolutionary decades the book demonstrates that the literary circle and its leaders played a key role in integrating the intelligentsia into the emerging ethos of the Soviet state Mentoring and Diversity Belle Rose Ragins, David Clutterbuck, Lisa Matthewman, 2012-04-27

Organizations with a diverse workforce will have a leading edge in the New World economy Mentoring and Diversity illustrates the importance of mentoring as a proactive tool in diversity initiatives and demonstrates how mentoring can be used to recruit develop and retain a diverse and innovative workforce This book brings together new and innovative perspectives on diversity and mentoring relationships within a variety of international settings Mentoring and Diversity provides a unique blend of research and practice and is an indispensable guide for any company that seeks to develop a more diverse workforce It will serve as a fundamental text for practitioners interested in developing effective mentoring programmes and for researchers seeking to understand these critical and complex relationships Interviews cases and qualitative data from a variety of international settings are used to support the models and theories developed in the text These cases illustrate diversity in action in mentoring relationships and provide guidance for developing effective mentoring programmes and diverse mentoring relationships in organizations The book is composed of four sections that reflect theory research and practice An overview of the theory and research on diversified mentoring relationships followed by an applied model of diversity in mentoring relationships Some empirically based and pragmatic observations of best practices that are used by diversified mentoring programmes in various international contexts A collection of international case studies of diversity in both mentoring programmes and individual mentoring relationships These cases illustrate the challenges and benefits associated with diversity in mentoring relationships Organizational cases are drawn from such companies as Procter Gamble Volvo and World Bank These cases provide practical guidance on how to develop effective mentoring programmes An integrative analysis of some of the recurring themes in the case studies that are supported by existing research but also chart new ground for emerging research and theory
