Lenin And Philosophy And Other Essays:

Lenin and Philosophy Louis Althusser, 2017-11-10 No figure among the western Marxist theoreticians has loomed larger in the postwar period than Louis Althusser A rebel against the Catholic tradition in which he was raised Althusser studied philosophy and later joined both the faculty of the cole Normale Suprieure and the French Communist Party in 1948 Viewed as a structuralist Marxist Althusser was as much admired for his independence of intellect as he was for his rigorous defense of Marx The latter was best illustrated in For Marx 1965 and Reading Capital 1968 These works along with Lenin and Philosophy 1971 had an enormous influence on the New Left of the 1960s and continues to influence modern Marxist scholarship This classic work which to date has sold more than 30 000 copies covers the range of Louis Althusser s interests and contributions in philosophy economics psychology aesthetics and political science Marx in Althusser s view was subject in his earlier writings to the ruling ideology of his day Thus for Althusser the interpretation of Marx involves a repudiation of all efforts to draw from Marx s early writings a view of Marx as a humanist and historicist Lenin and Philosophy also contains Althusser s essay on Lenin s study of Hegel a major essay on the state Ideology and Ideological State Apparatuses Freud and Lacan A letter on Art in Reply to Andr Daspre and Cremonini Painter of the Abstract The book opens with a 1968 interview in which Althusser discusses his personal political and intellectual history Lenin and Philosophy, and Other Essays Louis Althusser, 1971 Lenin and Philosophy, and Other Essays Louis Althusser, 1977 Projecting Illusion Richard Allen, 1995 On cinema and illusion Mole Philosophy & Other Essays Cassius Jackson Keyser, 1927 The Biopolitics of Development Sandro Mezzadra, Julian Reid, Ranabir Samaddar, 2013-12-27 This book offers an original analysis and theorization of the biopolitics of development in the postcolonial present and draws significantly from the later works of Michel Foucault on biopolitics Foucault s works have had a massive influence on postcolonial literatures particularly in political science and international relations and several authors of this book have themselves made significant contributions to that influence While Foucault s thought has been inspirational for understanding colonial biopolitics as well as governmental rationalities concerned with development his works have too often failed to inspire studies of political subjectivity Instead they have been used to stoke the myth of the inevitability of the decline of collective political subjects often describing an increasingly limited horizon of political possibilities and provoking a disenchantment with the political itself in postcolonial works and studies Working against the grain of current Foucauldian scholarship this book underlines the importance of Foucault s work for the capacity to recognize how this degraded view of political subjectivity came about particularly within the framework of the discourses and politics of development and with particular attention to the predicaments of postcolonial peoples It explores how we can use Foucault s ideas to recover the vital capacity to think and act politically at a time when fundamentally human capacities to think know and to act purposively in the world are being pathologized as expressions of the hubris and underdevelopment of postcolonial peoples Why and how it is that life in postcolonial settings has been depoliticized to such dramatic effect The immediacy of these themes will be obvious to anyone living in the South of the world But within the academy they remain heavily under addressed In thinking about what it means to read Michel Foucault today this book tackles some significant questions and problems Not simply that of how to explain the ways in which postcolonial regimes of governance have achieved the debasements of political subjectivity they have nor that of how we might better equip them with the means to suborn the life of postcolonial peoples more fully but that of how such peoples in their subjection to governance can and do resist subvert escape and defy the imposition of modes of governance which seek to remove their lives of those very capacities for resistance subversion flight and defiance Danish Yearbook of Philosophy 20 ,1966 Religion and Hip Hop Monica R. Miller,2013 This title brings together the category of religion hip hop cultural modalities and the demographic of youth Bringing postmodern theory and critical approaches in the study of religion to bear on hip hop cultural practices the book examines how scholars in have deployed and approached religion when analyzing hip hop data Encyclopedia of Modern French Thought Christopher John Murray,2013-01-11 In this wide ranging guide to twentieth century French thought leading scholars offer an authoritative multi disciplinary analysis of one of the most distinctive and influential traditions in modern thought Unlike any other existing work this important work covers not only philosophy but also all the other major disciplines including literary theory sociology linguistics political thought theology and more Terror Capitalism Darren Byler,2021-11-02 In Terror Capitalism anthropologist Darren Byler theorizes the contemporary Chinese colonization of the Uyghur Muslim minority group in the northwest autonomous region of Xinjiang He shows that the mass detention of over one million Uyghurs in reeducation camps is part of processes of resource extraction in Uyghur lands that have led to what he calls terror capitalism a configuration of ethnoracialization surveillance and mass detention that in this case promotes settler colonialism Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork in the regional capital r mchi Byler shows how media infrastructures the state s enforcement of Chinese cultural values and the influx of Han Chinese settlers contribute to Uyghur dispossession and their expulsion from the city He particularly attends to the experiences of young Uyghur men who are the primary target of state violence and how they develop masculinities and homosocial friendships to protect themselves against gendered ethnoracial and economic violence By tracing the political and economic stakes of Uyghur colonization Byler demonstrates that state directed capitalist dispossession is coconstructed with a colonial relation of domination Communicating Prejudice Michael L. Hecht,1998-04-13 A new integrative conceptual model of prejudice the layered perspective of cultural intolerance is presented in the volume This model is used to analyze the communication of prejudice in a variety of guises such as racism sexism homophobia ageism and classism Drawing on multidisciplinary perspectives the first two chapters present the model and theoretical foundation for the book Subsequent chapters examine specific foci of prejudice including personal prejudice in relationships organizations and the media A series of personal narratives are included to illustrate specific types and instances of prejudice Cordial Cold

Locating Postcolonial Narrative Genres

Walter Goebel, Saskia Schabio, 2013 This volume explores how postcolonial texts have determined the evolution or emergence of specific formal innovations in narrative genres While the prominence of questions of cultural identity in postcolonial studies has prevented due attention to concerns of literary form and aesthetics this book gives premium to the literary aiming to delineate the evolution of specific narrative techniques as part of an emerging postcolonial aesthetics Essays delineate elements of an emergent postcolonial narratology across a variety of seminal generic forms such as the epic the novel the short story the autobiography and the folk tale focusing on genre as a powerful tool for the historicizing of literature and orature within cultural discourses Investigating the heuristic value of concepts such as mimicry writing back translation negotiation or subversion the book considers the value of explanatory paradigms for postcolonial generic models It also explores the status of postcolonial comparative aesthetics versus globalization studies and liberal concepts of the transnational taking issue with the prominence of Western concepts of identity in discussions of postcolonial literature and the favoring of mimetic forms This volume offers a unique contribution to the study of narrative genre in postcolonial literatures and provides valuable insight into the field of postcolonial studies on the whole

The Content of Social Explanation Susan James, 1984-11-15 This is a study of the central questions of explanation in the social sciences and a defence of holism against individualism In the first half of the book Susan James sets out very clearly the philosophical background to this controversy She locates its source not at the analytical level at which most of the debate is usually conducted but at a more fundamental moral level in different conceptions of the human individual In the second half of the book she examines critically three case studies of holistic approaches Althusser Poulantzas and the Annales historians and progressively refines our sense of the strengths and deficiencies of their programmes She ends by arguing for a form of concessive holism which offers some accommodation to liberal conceptions of individual autonomy but continues to emphasise the explanatory importance of social regularities and environments

The Age of Light, Soap, and Water

Mariana Valverde, 2008-06-28 BACK IN PRINT WITH A NEW INTRODUCTION The turn of the last century saw a great wave of moral fervour among Protestant social reformers in English Canada Their targets for moral reform were various sex hygiene immigration policy slum clearance prostitution and white slavery Mariana Valverde's groundbreaking The Age of Light Soap and Water examines the work and the ideas of moralist clergy social workers politicians and bureaucrats who sought to maintain or create a white Protestant Canada The morality idealized by evangelical feminist and medical activists was not as is often assumed completely repressive and puritanical On the contrary the self defined social purity movement at the centre of this book talked endlessly about sex in order to create a healthy sexuality among both native born and immigrant Canadians Sexual health was linked to racial purity and both of these were in turn linked to efforts to abolish urban slums by means of symbolic as well as physical light soap and water This study uncovers a little known dimension of Canadian social history and shows that moral reform was not the project of a marginal puritanical group but was central to the race class and gender organization of modern English Canada
