Missional Map-Making Alan Roxburgh, 2010-02-08 Guidance for church leaders to develop their own maps and chart new paths toward stronger, more vibrant and more missional congregations. In the burgeoning missional church movement, churches are seeking to become less focused on programs for members and more oriented toward outreach to people who are not already in church. This fundamental shift in what a congregation is and does and thinks is challenging for leaders and congregants. Using the metaphor of map-making, the book explains the perspective and skills needed to lead congregations and denominations in a time of radical change over unfamiliar terrain as churches change their focus from internal to external. Offers a clear guide for leaders wanting to transition to a missional church model. Written by Alan Roxburgh, a prominent expert and practitioner in the missional movement. Guides leaders seeking to create new maps for leadership and church organization and focus. A Volume in the popular Leadership Network Series. This book is written to be accessible to all Christian congregational styles and denominations.

Can "White" People Be Saved? Love L. Sechrest, Johnny Ramírez-Johnson, Amos Yong, 2018-11-06 White normativity as a way of being in the world has been parasitically joined to Christianity, and this is the ground of many of our problems today. Written by a world-class roster of scholars, this volume develops language to describe the current realities of race and racism, challenging evangelical Christianity to think more critically and constructively about race, ethnicity, migration, and mission in relation to white supremacy.

Four Views of Youth Ministry and the Church Wesley Black, Chap Clark, Malan Nel, 2010-01-05 Join the conversation as experts propose, defend, and explore Four Views of Youth Ministry and the Church. In a dialog that often gets downright feisty, four youth ministry academicians delineate their distinct philosophical and ecclesiological views regarding how youth ministry relates to the church at large and leave a taste of what's profound and what's not in these four typologies: Inclusive congregational (Malan Nel), What happens when a church thoroughly integrates its adolescents, making them full partners in every aspect of congregational life; Preparatory (Wesley Black), Why and how should a church consider its teenagers as disciples in training and its youth ministry a school of preparation for future participation in church life; Missional (Chap Clark), What does a church look like whose youth ministry does not necessarily nurture church kids but is essentially evangelistic; Whose youths and youth workers are considered missionaries; Strategic (Mark Senter), How feasible is it for a youth ministry to become a new church on its own, the youth pastor becoming the pastor and the new church planted with the blessing of the mother church. In Four Views of Youth Ministry and the Church, solid academic writing and an inviting tone and design create a compelling text for both in the field practicing youth workers and undergraduates and graduate students.

Missional Reset Desmond Barrett, Charlotte P. Holter, 2023-05-05 Far too many churches in North America are either plateauing or dying. In almost every community a former church is either closed or turned into something other than who she used to be It is heartbreaking to see places where once people glorified God sold away as the church property changed hands through a sale or auction on the courthouse steps One must realize that it is not one decision that closed the established church but multiple decisions sometimes made over decades that got it to closure Without a clear mission the church lurched inward and slowly died One does not have to look very far to find the missional call found in Matt 28 16 20 or as others call it the Great Commission Yet where is the church on mission today Far too many are focused on internal matters instead of external spiritual issues and are allowing millions to go to hell without knowing the redeeming grace of Jesus Christ What will it take for a transformation to happen Missional service will take a willing heart to serve others locally and internationally as the hands and feet of Christ It will take the ability to keep learning and growing in God s grace while celebrating victories as they come It seems basic right Yet most churches in communities like yours do not support missionaries through programs tied to mission agencies or investing locally to reach the lost The time of inaction has lapsed and it is time for God s church to come alive through visionary local leadership to promote and then lead in the area of missions Creating a Missional Culture JR Woodward, 2013-09-20

Missiologist and church planter JR Woodward offers a blueprint for the missional church not small adjustments around the periphery of the infrastructure but a radical revisioning of how a church ought to look that entails changing how we think about leadership and what we expect out of discipleship Journal of the South Indiana Conference of the United Methodist Church, with Proceedings of the ... Annual Session United Methodist Church (U.S.). South Indiana Conference, 1989

Missional Life in Practice and Theory Christopher L. Flanders, Greg McKinzie, 2024-01-19 Few missiologists have impacted mission theory and practice among Churches of Christ as significantly as has Dr Gailyn Van Rheenen yet his global missiological influence has extended far beyond the boundaries of his denominational heritage This Festschrift in honor of Gailyn Van Rheenen contains original missiological contributions from colleagues and former students Most chapters were presentations at the inaugural Gailyn Van Rheenen Sessions in Mission and World Christianity at the 2021 Christian Scholars Conference in Nashville Tennessee The volume is organized to parallel the phases of Van Rheenen s career Africa academic missiology and Mission Alive a North American church planting organization His legacy is one that wonderfully embodies critical theory and robust practice Missional Discipleship After Christendom Andrew R. Hardy, Dan Yarnell, 2018-03-14

It is not a changing culture reduced resources or a rescinding Christian memory that creates the greatest challenges for the church in the West It is the lack of a clear commitment to the intentional authentic and contextual expressions of missional disciple making which will shape current and future generations of followers of Jesus to express the values of the Kingdom today This book offers stimulating historical biblical and theological reflections on discipleship and considers some of the possibilities and opportunities afforded to us by our post Christian context Missional discipleship allows the missio Dei to shape us in our engagement our practices and sustain us in the lifelong journey of becoming and developing disciples that follow Jesus today The Missional Leader Alan J. Roxburgh, Fred Romanuk, 2020-11-03 In The Missional Leader consultants Alan J. Roxburgh and Fred Romanuk address two questions: How do we do missional and What does missional leadership look like? Drawing on their many years of experience, the authors show readers how to bring God's word into the community outside the church's walls. They focus on how to lead missionally on the ground in the local setting, even amid leaders' experience of massive change within the church and in the wider world. The challenge for many church leaders is that they are not equipped to lead a church in shifting from a consumer model of church to one that is missional. They were trained in a Christendom mindset to meet the needs of the church's members. This book assists leaders in shifting from dominant models of leadership rooted in strategic planning with mission and vision statements, desired outcomes, measurements along the way, and determined goals. It provides a praxis for beginning where people are rather than where the leader wants them to go. Roxburgh and Romanuk give frank recognition to the fact that the shift from a consumer model to a missional mindset will almost certainly be stormy, disruptive, and disorienting. This is not a book of quick fixes and slick slogans, but one that sets out a comprehensive and in-depth treatment for a different way of leading. The Missional Leader is a critical commentary that needs to be read in the light of today's realities.

The Road to Missional Michael Frost, 2011-10 A leading voice in the missional church recasts the missional movement from a church add-on to a whole new way of following Jesus.

Rising from the Ashes into Church Renewal Desmond Barrett, 2025-03-14 The church did not start off wanting to decline. No church planter ever thinks the church they pour their heart and soul into will close. So what happened? It was a question Desmond Barrett asked walking into his new assignment. There is a stigma that an aging congregation is a dying congregation. If a pastor is asked to go to an aging church and buildings with a host of deferred maintenance, many will run in the other direction. Who would blame them? However, there are pastors who feel the call to serve the comeback church and who see hope in decline. Countless pastors before and since have asked: Is God done with the local church that has seen better days? If not, are you being called to a church that is seen as hopeless but God sees as hope-filled? To pastors or laypersons in the church, the legacy church needs you. It needs your wisdom and support.

The Missional Mom Helen Lee, 2011-01-01 Do you see motherhood as a mission and divine calling? Today's Christian moms come from a full range of personal and professional contexts, whether they are homemakers, full-time workers in the marketplace, or somewhere in between. Yet many Christian mothers are living missional lives, using their gifts and abilities to further God's kingdom by engaging the world around them. They artfully, passionately, and sometimes messily juggle multiple callings and demonstrate in their modern-day contexts how they are emulating the woman of noble character in Proverbs 31. The Missional Mom will affirm Christian mothers who desire to not only to build their homes in a Christ-like way but also engage the world with their skills, abilities, and interests. It won't minimize the importance of a woman's role in her home, but it will encourage her to not ignore the stirrings God has planted within her to extend her influence Orphanology Tony Merida, 2011-06-01 Orphanology unveils the grassroots movement that is engaged in a comprehensive response to serve hundreds of millions of orphans and functionally parentless children. You will see a breadth of ways to care with biblical perspective and reasons why we must. Heartwarming personal stories and vivid illustrations from a growing network of families, churches, and organizations that cross culture show how to respond to God's mandate. The book empowers churches to plan, preach, teach, minister, fund, adopt, support orphans, individuals, and families to overcome challenges and uncertainties. Every believer to gain insights to help orphans in numerous ways. Merida and Morton give steps for action and features on churches doing orphan ministry, faith-based children's homes, orphan hosting groups, and other resources. Planting Missional Churches

Ed Stetzer, Daniel Im, 2016-05-01 In this second edition of Planting Missional Churches, not only will you find a completely redesigned book with new content in every single chapter, but you will also find several new chapters on topics such as church multiplication, residencies, multi-ethnic ministry, multisite denominations, and networks, and spiritual leadership.

Sacred Space for the Missional Church William R. McAlpine, 2011-02-14 Sacred Space for the Missional Church examines the strong link between the theology and mission of the Church and the spaces in which and from which that theology and mission are lived out. The author demonstrates that the built environment is not incidental or even subservient to mission. Rather, it is a key player in the fulfillment and the communication of that mission. The book begins with a working definition of the missional church, underscoring the connection between God's mission, missio Dei, and the Church's mission. The reader is presented with historical and theological frameworks for sacred space and reminded of the pivotal role of the built environment in the fulfillment of the mission of the Church. The design and construction of sacred spaces are shown to be fundamentally a theological exercise and not solely a matter of function, pragmatics, and fiscal astuteness. The author questions the uncritical application of blanket statements such as "form must follow function" and challenges the conviction that it does not matter where worship occurs, only that it occurs. The book addresses genuine concerns such as legitimizing the cost of church buildings and concludes with practical suggestions and essential questions that must be considered in posturing the built environment within the missional praxis of the Church. The Nehemiah Factor (Revised and Expanded)

Dr. Frank S. Page, 2013-05-08 What does a missional leader look like? Trusted pastor and denominational leader Dr. Frank Page answers that question in The Nehemiah Factor when he examines the 16 vital keys to living like a missional leader. Drawing from the life of well-known biblical examples, targeted Scripture passages, personal leadership stories, and testimonies of others, Page provides the basis every leader needs to understand what it means to be a person of calling, comprehension, fruitfulness, and integrity. Personal reflection questions are included in each chapter to help readers apply the model and the characteristic to their specific leadership situations.
