Child-Sized History Sara L. Schwebel, 2011-11-15 The classroom canon of young adult novels in historical context The Common Core in Action Deborah J. Jesseman, 2015-06-19 This book addresses Common Core State Standard curriculum resources to assist the school librarian in collaborating with classroom teachers. Librarians are being asked to understand the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) and their implications to programming and instruction as well as to collection development planning. Using lesson plans originally published in School Library Monthly, this title builds upon them, adding many additional plans that address CCSS issues. The plans will help you implement the standards and can also be used as stepping stones to facilitate planning, conversations, and collaboration with teachers to co-teach lessons correlated with the standards. The book begins with an overview of the CCSS: what they are, how they are different from the content standards, and what the implications are for schools where the state has adopted them, including what the CCSS mean for collection development. It then goes on to explore the opportunities the CCSS present for the school librarian, looking at how you can become a leader in employing the process. The majority of the book is devoted to reproducible lesson plans organized by curricular area or topic and grade level for ease of use.

Teaching Secondary English--alternative Approaches Thomas Joseph Brown, Mary Gallagher, Rosemary Turner, 1975 Ethnography Unbound Michael Burawoy, 1991-11-18 Establishes a new landmark in the study of everyday life in the modern metropolis. This book brilliantly integrates systematic theory and participant observation data. Forms of domination and resistance are poignantly captured in different social settings and admirably related to economic and political forces. The volume will do more to enhance ethnographic research than any previous study in sociology. William Julius Wilson, University of Chicago. What is unleashed in Ethnography Unbound is the theoretical and critical potential of exemplary urban fieldwork and pedagogy. This book by Michael Burawoy and his talented students sets an inspirational standard to emulate in the classroom and in the field. Judith Stacey, author of Brave New Families. Bravo! A book that explodes the barriers that prevent us from seeing simultaneously both the social world and our role in its making. The dichotomies of teacher-student, researcher-researched, and theory-data are subjected to a penetrating and refreshing scrutiny in this unique project. Rick Fantasia, author of Cultures of Solidarity. Burawoy and his colleagues have rediscovered the ancient truth that participant observation is well suited to understanding the larger society as well as microsocial life. Moreover, they have made that rediscovery superbly. The essays are of high quality, and I hope that the book will increase yet further the current interest in participant observation and ethnography Herbert J Gans author of People Plans and Policies
