Poems and Verse Keith Furlong,2012-06-20 As a Christian I learned at an early age that God was very important in my life Through the years I have been mocked and scorned because of my faith Yet having been through many difficult times and having lived and worked with people much worse off than myself I felt it time through Gods inspiration that I show you how God works in many ways to help us along lifes way In the first chapter I try to show how God through his beautiful countryside garden helps us to relax away from the normal worldly pressures that envelop us The second chapter provides an insight into the protection God gives not only for his wildlife but for humankind as well We can all take shelter in the outstretched arms of our Protector and Savior In the third chapter I want encourage you to put your trust in your Creator for more than any father God wants to look after and protect us from the ravages of a hostile world All we have to do is trust in him In the final chapter I have tried to show how Gods love embraces each and every one of us May Gods love richly bless you all A Journey to Know God One Day at a Time
