When Piper went to a jewelry store to request an appraisal of a family heirloom the man who assisted her was Jaeger Ballantyne the president of the company and the most famous playboy in Manhattan. They are smitten with each other at first sight and spend a passionate night together. A year and a half later when Piper's house is repossessed to pay her father's debts she revisits Jaeger hoping to sell the heirloom. But for some reason he doesn't seem to remember her. Porky Deborah Moggach, 2022-08-02 The bestselling author of The Best Exotic Marigold Hotel illuminates with great compassion how love can so easily go off the rails. Daily Mail In the shadow of Heathrow airport a girl grows up in a family of four with her unaffectionate absent mother, her precocious younger brother and her father. Once a traveling fairground worker her father's been forced to settle down. Now he sits at home dreaming up schemes to make money drinking with his friends raising pigs. It's those pigs that give Heather her nickname. The mean girls at school call her Porky as much as for her animals as for her weight and pink complexion. They don't live in a decrepit bungalow like she does surrounded by airport traffic and muck. And they don't have a father like she does, one who steals her innocence and makes her grow up too fast. This is Heather's story. It's easier for her to tell a stranger reading a book than her best friend a counselor the man who now loves her. Maybe you will understand her attempts to work to live to survive to fly away as far as possible as if her wings weren't already clipped. Deborah Moggach conveys with chilling skill the process by which a fundamentally bright decent child becomes infested by corruption. The Spectator At once eerily exuberant and bleak this is a compassionate tough book. The Observer An extraordinarily skilful account of a childhood blasted by what is now acknowledged to be a more widespread offence than was previously recognised: incest. London Review of Books Sustain's a first person register so level in its tone of quiet desperation so careful to avoid blatant shock as to hold back the tidal wave of revulsion and pity which threatens but never quite engulfs the reader.
