Zirpolo, 2010 Beginning in the 1580s and ending as late as 1750 in some Northern European regions the Baroque artistic era began as an artistic recoil to the stylizations of Mannerist art and as a means of implementation of the demands of the Counter Reformation Church that sought to restore its religious preeminence in the Western world in the face of the Protestant threat As a result Rome the seat of the papacy became the cradle of Baroque art and masters from other parts of the Italian peninsula flocked to the region in the hopes of obtaining artistic commissions The Historical Dictionary of Baroque

Neoclassicism refers to the revival of classical art and architecture beginning in Europe in the 1750s until around 1830 with late neoclassicism lingering through the 1870s It is a highly complex movement that brought together seemingly disparate issues into a new and culturally rich era one that was unified under a broad interest in classical antiquity The movement was born in Italy and France and spread across Europe to Russia and the United States It was motivated by a desire to use ideas from antiquity to help address modern social economic and political issues in Europe and neoclassicism came to be viewed as a style and philosophy that offered a sense of purpose and dignity to art following the new enlightened thinking This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Neoclassical Art and Architecture contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 300 cross referenced entries cover late Baroque and Rococo tendencies found in the early 18th century and span the century to include artists who moved from neoclassicism to early romanticism This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about neoclassical art and architecture

Sonnenschein,1897 The Edinburgh Review ,1847 Historical Dictionary of Francesco Borromini Lilian H. Zirpolo,2025-07-10 Francesco Borromini was one of the most notable architects of the 17th century and though he fell into disfavor by the end of the following century today he is classified as one of the most innovative architects in history Although Borromini enjoyed a highly successful career he was already subjected to intense criticism during his lifetime Criticism continued well after Borromini s death when the most often used word to assess his work was bizarre Critics begrudged the fact that in their view Borromini ignored the traditional rules of architecture that had been established by the ancients and revived during the Renaissance era They did not recognize that Borromini was indeed an avid student of both ancient and Renaissance architecture and that he often borrowed elements from these two eras but then applied them to his structures in new and inventive ways It was not until art historians began assessing Borromini s architecture in a sober and nonjudgmental manner in the late 19th century that he was finally given his proper place in the history of architecture This book assesses Borromini s individual commissions following the proper scholarly methodology as well as his biographical details artistic development relationship with his protectors and patrons and external circumstances that might have determined his artistic output This book emphasizes the innovations Borromini introduced to the field of architecture and how these influenced later artists How to Find Out About the Arts Neville Carrick,2014-05-16 How to Find Out About the Arts A Guide to Sources of Information discusses the main sources of information printed or otherwise in the field of the arts The book begins by describing where information on art careers can be found Separate chapters then discuss how information on art can be traced in libraries by means of the catalogue and classification scheme and turning to bibliographies when information on a particular aspect of art cannot be traced by these means Subsequent chapters deal with sources such as encyclopedias and dictionaries general indexes to reproductions and portraits works on iconography periodicals directories yearbooks and sales records This book aims to serve some of the needs of the student of art the experienced artist and indeed all of those with an intelligent interest in the arts In particular it should help those in libraries colleges and other educational institutions whose task it is to guide others to the right sources Classified Catalogue of the Carnegie Library of Pittsburgh, 1895- 1902: Fine Arts.
