History Of Transylvania Vol 2:

The History of Transylvania, 2005      A Seventeenth-Century Odyssey in East Central Europe Gábor Kármán, 2015-11-16 In A Seventeenth Century Odyssey Gábor Kármán reconstructs the life story of a lesser known Hungarian orientalist Jakab Harsnyi Nagy. The discussion of his activities as a school teacher in Transylvania as a diplomat and interpreter at the Sublime Porte as a secretary of a Moldavian voivode in exile as well as a court councillor of Friedrich Wilhelm the Great Elector of Brandenburg not only sheds light upon the extraordinarily versatile career of this individual but also on the variety of circles in which he lived. Gábor Kármán also gives the first historical analysis of Harsnyi's contribution to Turkish studies. Colloquia Familiaria Turcico-latina 1672

The European Tributary States of the Ottoman Empire in the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries Gábor Kármán, Lovro Kunčević, 2013-06-20 The European Tributary States of the Ottoman Empire is the first comprehensive overview of the empire's relationship to its various European tributaries: Moldavia, Wallachia, Transylvania, Ragusa, the Crimean Khanate, and the Cossack Hetmanate. The volume focuses on three fundamental aspects of the empire's relationship with these polities: the various legal frameworks which determined their positions within the imperial system; the diplomatic contacts through which they sought to influence the imperial center; and the military cooperation between them and the Porte. Bringing together studies by eminent experts and presenting results of several less known historiographical traditions, this volume contributes significantly to a deeper understanding of Ottoman power at the peripheries of the empire.

The Rise of the Military Entrepreneur Suzanne Sutherland, 2022-09-15 The Rise of the Military Entrepreneur explores how a new kind of international military figure emerged from and exploited the seventeenth century's momentous political, military, commercial, and scientific changes. In the era of the Thirty Years War, these figures traveled rapidly and frequently across Europe, using private wealth, credit, and connections to raise and command the armies that rulers desperately needed. Their careers reveal the roles international networks, private resources, and expertise played in building and at times undermining the state. Suzanne Sutherland uncovers the influence of military entrepreneurs by examining their activities as not only commanders but also diplomats, natural philosophers, information brokers, clients, and subjects on the battlefield, as well as through strategic marital and family allegiances. Sutherland focuses on Raimondo Montecuccoli (1609-80), a middling nobleman from the Duchy of Modena who became one of the most powerful men in the Austrian Habsburg monarchy and helped found a new discipline, military science. The Rise of the Military Entrepreneur explains how Montecuccoli successfully met battlefield, court, and family responsibilities while contributing to the world of scholarship on an often violent, fragmented political-military landscape. As a result, Sutherland shifts the perspective on war away from the ruler and his court to instead examine the figures supplying force along with their methods, networks, and reflections on those experiences.

Islam and the West Christopher J Walker, 2005-07-21 We have rapidly grown used to the idea, particularly since the declaration of a worldwide war on terrorism, that between Islam and the West

there exists a deep historical and ideological gulf Christopher J Walker turns such accepted views on their head and paints instead a picture of two belief systems that have a long history of toleration and mutual influence Indeed Islam has given a great deal to civilisation essentially modern notions of free enquiry rational experimentation rational experimentation and the independence of science from religious authority are legacies of the Islamic world Islam and the West is a thought provoking study covering some of the cardinal encounters between Islamic and Western countries Social Networking in

South-Eastern Europe Maria Baramova, Grigor Boykov, Ivan Parvev, 2021 Social Networking in South Eastern Europe in the 15th 19th centuries exhibits specific characteristics the Ottomans and the Habsburgs for example each have their pattern of building and using social networks with the Third South Eastern Europe i e the vassal principalities in the Balkans and the re created national states staying closer in the Ottoman pattern It seems that the Muslim Oriental social traditions established in the Balkans during Ottoman rule had a clear impact on the building of networks and the exercising of social influence The specific regional practices once established were very hard to overcome or to replace by other patterns of social networking These practices however could easily interact in border areas with one other giving the inhabitants on both sides of the frontier the possibility of living a socially amphibious life at least in terms of Social Networking The History of

Transylvania Ioan Aurel Pop, Mihai Bărbulescu, 2005 Today Transylvania is part of both Romania and Europe but above all it is the welcoming home of all its inhabitants For the first time in history its inhabitants can truly feel equal and at home The country is no longer the Transylvania of yesteryear bit the traces of the past are present everywhere In the past suffering and happiness were experienced often at different times by Romanians Hungarians Germans Jews and ethnic groups alike Neither the suffering nor the joy must be forgotten The memories of the past are a priceless treasure and their preservation is the hallmark of a civilized nation The Transylvanian entity is a historical construct but at the same time today it accompanies us everywhere It is the only place in Europe where a Byzantine church stands beside a Romanesque basilica next to a Gothic church and not far from a Baroque one all located near a synagogue It is also the only place where an Orthodox place of worship lies a stone s throw from a Greek Catholic a Roman Catholic a Calvinist a Lutheran and a Unitarian one This is indicative of peaceful cohabitation rather than of conflicts and fully consonant with the very message of this book the past must be known not for spite and hatred but rather for friendship and understanding Confessional

Diplomacy in Early Modern Europe Roberta Anderson, Charlotte Backerra, 2020-12-14 Confessional Diplomacy in Early Modern Europe examines the role of religion in early modern European diplomacy In the period following the Reformations Europe became divided all over the continent princes and their peoples split over theological liturgical and spiritual matters At the same time diplomacy rose as a means of communication and policy and all powers established long or short term embassies and sent envoys to other courts and capitals The book addresses three critical areas where questions of religion or confession played a role papal diplomacy priests and other clerics as diplomatic agents and religion as a question for diplomatic debate especially concerning embassy chapels Tributaries and Peripheries of the Ottoman Empire ,2020-08-10

Tributaries and Peripheries of the Ottoman Empire offers thirteen studies on the relationship between Ottoman tributaries with each other in the imperial framework as well as with neighboring border provinces of the empire's core territories from the fifteenth to the eighteenth centuries A variety of surveys related to the Cossack Ukraine the Crimean Khanate Dagestan Moldavia Ragusa Transylvania Upper Hungary and Wallachia allow the reader to see hitherto less known subtleties of the Ottoman administration's hierarchic structures and the liberties and restrictions of the office holders power They also shed light upon the strategies of coalition building among the elites of the tributaries as well as the core provinces of the border zones which determined their cooperation but also the competition between them Contributors include János B. Szabó Ovidiu Cristea Tetiana Grygorieva Klára Jakab Gábor Kármán Dariusz Kołodziejczyk Natalia Krulikowska Jedlińska Erica Mezzoli Viorel Panaite Radu G. P. un Ru. a Rado. uri Bal. zs. Sud. r Micha. Wasiucionek Europe and the Historical Legacies in the

Balkans Raymond Detrez, Barbara Segaert, 2008 The enlargement of the EU with the Balkan countries has aroused the skepticism of many Although EU admission is primarily a matter of economic and political concerns questions of cultural import are readily brought into play Does the country in question conform sufficiently to our standards of a European identity The problematic status of the Balkans in this respect largely consists in their common Byzantine and Ottoman legacies By focusing on Bulgaria and its neighbours Romania Greece and Turkey the authors of this collection attempt to elucidate how mutually incompatible the cultural identity of the Ottoman successor states and that of Europe are Ample attention is devoted not only to the perception of the Balkans in the West but also to the self image of people in the Balkans and perceptions they hold of the West If anything like a Balkan identity can be said to exist what is its relation to the various ethnic national religious and linguistic communities Notably what was and is the role played by religion in nation state formation The relationship with Europe forms the thread that runs through the discussion of these issues Earthly

Delights ,2018-06-05 Earthly Delights brings together a number of substantial and original scholarly studies by international scholars currently working on the history of food in the Ottoman Empire and East Central Europe It offers new empirical research as well as surveys of the state of scholarship in this discipline with special emphasis on influences continuities and discontinuities in the culinary cultures of the Ottoman Porte the Balkans and East Central Europe between the 17th and 19th centuries Some contributions address economic aspects of food provision the development and trans national circulation of individual dishes and the role of merchants diplomats and travellers in the transmission of culinary trends Others examine the role of food in the construction of national and regional identities in contact zones where local traditions merged or clashed with imperial Ottoman Habsburg and West European influences Historical Dictionary of Unitarian

Universalism Mark W. Harris, 2018-08-31 The Unitarian Universalist religious movement is small in numbers but has a long history as a radical reforming movement within Protestantism coupled with a larger liberal social witness to the world Both

Unitarianism and Universalism began as Christian denominations but rejected doctrinal constraints to embrace a human views of Jesus an openness to continuing revelation and a loving God who they believed wanted to be reconciled with all people In the twentieth century Unitarian Universalism developed beyond Christianity and theism to embrace other religious perspectives becoming more inclusive and multi faith Efforts to achieve justice and equality included civil rights for African Americans women and gays and lesbians along with strident support for abortion rights environmentalism and peace Today the Unitarian Universalist movement is a world wide faith that has expanded into several new countries in Africa continued to develop in the Philippines and India while maintaining historic footholds in Romania Hungary England and especially the United States and Canada This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Unitarian Universalism contains a chronology an introduction an appendix and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 400 cross referenced entries on people places events and trends in the history of the Unitarian and Universalist faiths including American leaders and luminaries important writers and social reformers This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Unitarian Universalism
