War History of Santa Clara County (Classic Reprint) Edith Daley, 2015-07-12 Excerpt from War History of Santa Clara County Santa Clara County's part in the world war Things in the process of making rarely reveal their true significance We await completion before measuring values During the hurry and stress of war time responsibilities when even the average easy going citizen was called upon to bear unusual burdens we did not realize that the activities in which we were engaged constituted the making of history Time mellows experience and the story of yesterday's fighting on the home line will be painted in softer colors by reason of the interval and the perspective we have gained With the fifth liberty loan the victory loan campaign a thing of the past and its files already dusty the state the county and the city awoken to the fact that various war activities were illuminated pages in the great world war history The fighters in the home trenches had their battles and their victories no less than did the sons of Old Glory who followed the light of its stars overseas The war that had seemed very far away suddenly came near so near that the cold steel of the enemy touched warm American hearts Germany had started it We suddenly knew that it was up to us to finish it at whatever cost On April 6 1917 President Woodrow Wilson signed the resolution of congress declaring the existence of a state of war and asking that all the resources of the United States be directed to prosecute hostilities against the German government to a successful termination Resources meant not only men but money money for the maintenance of our own army and navy and money to loan our allies against the coming of that successful termination We were reminded of what Napoleon once said that the three essentials to the prosecution of successful warfare were money money and money Fifty years ago over three billion dollars was raised to provide for the expenses of the civil war In 1917 the country's wealth was eight times as great and the banking resources 20 times as great Whatever America had to do she was able to do There were two ways of raising the amount needed Germany's method of taxation or the issuance of bonds Uncle Sam borrowed giving his interest bearing promissory note to every man woman and child who offered him their savings or their wealth Secretary of the Treasury W G McAdoo on April 10 predicted the amount of the bond issue that would be needed Then we began to talk of buying government bonds as we might have talked of purchasing a commutation ticket previously Men talked it over Bonds A big issue Not all at once but as funds were needed When Uncle Sam asked for a loan it meant that real war was ahead People checked up their savings More and more flags fluttered out everywhere The sky was ablaze with them A new tenseness and seriousness pervaded business circles Then came the never to be forgotten nation wide observance of Preparedness Day on April 12 1917 More than 10 000 loyal citizens led by City Manager Thomas H Reed who was responsible for the day's success marched through the city's streets while the Stars and Stripes waved above them and bands played Dixie and America and the thrilling Marseillaise Thousands of hearts swelling and throats tightening queerly when the flag went by We began to realize that war encompassed us all That night at a great mass meeting in the high school auditorium hundreds unanimously pledged hearts and hands to the country's cause

There we renewed our allegiance to the flag and to the high principles of liberty humanity and justice which it represents On May 3 1917 the announcement was made that the first offering of bonds authorized under the finance law would be 2 000 000 000 Liberty Loan issue open to popular subscription at par subscriptions to be received until June 15 Bonds to be dated July 1 and ready for delivery then Bonds were att Santa Clara County Progressive Lewis Dan Bohnett,2016-10-25 Excerpt from Santa Clara County Progressive Oral History Transcript I m going to ask you about your political career We re particularly interested in the Progressive era about the time you went into politics About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works War History of Santa Clara County Edith Daley,1919 History of Santa Clara County, California Eugene Taylor Sawyer,1922 Guide to Reprints 2007 K. three sections Creating Social Landscapes Racialized Identities and Unearthing Voices the pieces cover issues as diverse as the Mexican American Presbyterian community the female voice in the history of the Texas borderlands and Tejano roots on the Louisiana Texas border in the 18th and 19th centuries In their introduction editors Monica Perales and Ra l A Ramos write that the scholars in their exploration of the state s history go beyond the standard categories of immigration assimilation and the nation state Instead they forge new paths into historical territories by exploring gender and sexuality migration transnationalism and globalization Santa Ana River Main Stem and Santiago Creek ,1978 Guide to
