Kayak Morning Reflections On Love Grief And Small Boats:

Kayak Morning Roger Rosenblatt, 2012-01-03 From Roger Rosenblatt author of the bestsellers Making Toast and Unless It Moves the Human Heart comes a moving meditation on the passages of grief the solace of solitude and the redemptive power of love In Making Toast Roger Rosenblatt shared the story of his family in the days and months after the death of his thirty eight year old daughter Amy Now in Kayak Morning he offers a personal meditation on grief itself Everybody grieves he writes From that terse melancholy observation emerges a work of art that addresses the universal experience of loss On a quiet Sunday morning two and a half years after Amy's death Roger heads out in his kayak He observes You can't always make your way in the world by moving up Or down for that matter Boats move laterally on water which levels everything It is one of the two great levelers Part elegy part quest Kayak Morning explores Roger's years as a journalist the comforts of literature and the value of solitude poignantly reminding us that grief is not apart from life but encompasses it In recalling to us what we have lost grief by necessity resurrects what we have had

Grief Memoirs Katarzyna A. Małecka, 2023-09-29 Grief Memoirs Cultural Supportive and Therapeutic Significance bridges literary studies and psychology to evaluate contemporary grief memoirs for use by bereaved and non bereaved individuals This volume positions the grief memoir within life writing and bereavement studies through examination of the genre's characteristics definitions and functions The book presents the views of memoirists helping professionals community members and university students on writing and reading as self expressive self searching and grief witnessing acts after the loss of a loved one Utilizing new data from surveys assessing grief support and bibliotherapy this text discusses the compatibility of grief memoirs with contemporary grief theories and the role of interdisciplinary methods in assisting the bereaved Grief Memoirs Cultural Supportive and Therapeutic Significance will help educators advance the understanding and interpretation of loss within psychology literature and medical humanities classrooms

On Loss and Living Onward Melissa Dalton-Bradford, 2014-05-06 After experiencing the loss of her first born son Melissa Dalton Bradford thrust herself into literature searching for those who have experienced similar devastating loss What she found was comfort and guidance to help her overcome the pain of losing a loved one and the faith to face her own life without him In On Loss and Living Onward she has compiled the best resources that will guide the living through the process of grief Superbly written essays by author and bereaved mother accompany each of five sections Life at Death Love at Death Living After Death Learning From Death Life Love and Light Over Death Quotes are from across history geography and the philosophical spectrum A substantial bibliography and suggested readings list is included

Writing Widowhood Jeffrey Berman, 2015-10-07 Explores how memoirs of widowhood can help us understand the reality of bereavement and the critical role of writing and reading in recovery The death of a beloved spouse after a lifetime of companionship is a life changing experience To help understand the reality of bereavement Jeffrey Berman focuses on five extraordinary American writers Joan Didion Sandra Gilbert Gail Godwin Kay Redfield Jamison and Joyce Carol

Oates each of whom has written a memoir of spousal loss In each chapter Berman gives an overview of the writer's life and art before widowhood including her early preoccupation with death and then discusses the writer's memoir and her life as a widow He discovers that writing was for all of these authors both a solace and a lifeline enabling them to maintain bonds with their lost loved ones while simultaneously moving on with their lives These memoirs of widowhood Berman maintains reveal not only courage and resilience in the face of loss but also the critical role of writing and reading in bereavement and recovery Writing Widowhood is a stunning achievement that combines biography literary history and theoretical and philosophical exploration into the nature of grief as well as mental illness all seamlessly executed Berman elegantly and lucidly conveys a range of theories and perspectives to suit both academic and general readers Berman never compromises complexity while remaining accessible and straightforward throughout Virginia L Blum author of Flesh Wounds The Culture of Cosmetic Surgery Writing Widowhood contributes to the field of autobiography biography and particularly to women's writing within that generic field by discussing five memoirs which Berman categorizes as the widow memoir No other critic that I know has shaped commentaries into a newly defined genre Berman's book thus makes an important contribution to the overall field Linda Wagner Martin author of Telling Women's Lives The New Biography The Anatomy of Grief Dorothy P. Holinger, 2020-09-01 An original authoritative guide to the impact of grief on the brain the heart and the body of the bereaved Grief happens to everyone Universal and enveloping grief cannot be ignored or denied This original new book by psychologist Dorothy P Holinger uses humanistic and physiological approaches to describe grief's impact on the bereaved Taking examples from literature music poetry paleoarchaeology personal experience memoirs and patient narratives Holinger describes what happens in the brain the heart and the body of the bereaved Readers will learn what grief is like after a loved one dies how language and clarity of thought become elusive why life feels empty why grief surges and ebbs so persistently and why the bereaved cry Resting on a scientific foundation this literary book shows the bereaved how to move through the grieving process and how understanding grief in deeper more multidimensional ways can help quell this sorrow and allow life to be lived again with joy Visit the author's companion website for The Anatomy of Grief dorothypholinger.com

We Who Grieve Richard A. Stack, 2023-11-21 Those in the throes of grief may find this work a comforting companion It reassures the readers that they are not alone and provides guidance to process bereavement and to reassure that life though different can be fulfilling again The book is written to support those mourning for a vast range of reasons and relationships and includes helpful information for those close to mourners who seek to be supportive Chapters discuss the language surrounding grief strategies for moving forward methods of decompression and acceptance and how other cultures view and mourn the death of their loved ones Beyond Words Kathlyn Conway, 2013-05-15 Originally published as Illness and the limits of expression Ann Arbor University of Michigan Press c2007 Thematic Autobiography Marlene Wagner, 2023-06-13 About the Book Thematic Autobiography is a unique approach to writing one's life story By using universal themes this method guides those who wish to connect the seemingly random events of their lives into a meaningful pattern The authors have facilitated thematic autobiography workshops at public libraries and online They have guided hundreds of participants to write and share their stories About the Author Susan Aminoff is a member of the Board of Trustees of Santa Monica College She holds Masters degrees in sociology and gerontology and a Ph D in the sociology of education from the University of Southern California She lives with her husband in Santa Monica where she loves to knit and spend time with their five grandchildren For more than three decades Marlene Wagner enjoyed many roles as a senior administrator at the University of Southern California She earned her Bachelors degree at Boston University and holds a Master s and Ph D in comparative literature and a Certificate in Gerontology from the University of Southern California She is very proud of her three sons her two grandsons and her six great grand dogs She loves to needlepoint and entertain
