Keeping the Rabble in Line Noam Chomsky, David Barsamian, 1994 Barsamian the founder of Alternative Radio and Chomsky allegedly the most quoted author in the modern era have forged a symbiotic relationship that manages to distill Chomsky's political philosophies and make them accessible. Barsamian's historically grounded, well informed and probing questions prompt Chomsky to deconstruct concepts of class, media and economics. Chomsky deftly addresses domestic and foreign conundrums including health care, the recent crime bill and NAFTA. While these interviews span a two year period and end early in 1994, they remain provocative and timely with Chomsky's insights on Haiti, Northern Ireland and the Middle East proving especially resonant. Ultimately, Rabble serves as a Chomsky primer that is without condescension and the question and answer format shows him at his most concise and adroit. His criticism exposes democracies as business run societies that render the general population isolated from politics, persuasively suggesting that we are on the verge of a social breakdown. What sets this work apart from other reluctant messiahs who simply intellectualize suffering is that Barsamian and Chomsky discuss avenues for activism, strengthening unions, following grassroots organizations or simply reading between the lines. Together they act as a lens enabling the reader to see what has been there hidden in plain sight.

Jacket The Decline and Fall of Public Broadcasting David Barsamian, 2001. Concentration of the media has reached new heights, making it harder for alternative and critical voices to gain a hearing. The recent $86 billion merger of Time Warner and AOL is just one of many signs of the narrowing of information sources. Market pressures have also encroached on the original mission of public broadcasting, which was to provide a voice for groups that may otherwise be unheard. Yet around the country, creative journalists and activists are creating more democratic, informative, and engaging media. Whether they are working to defend and expand democratic access to existing media or building their own media alternatives through the radio, television, or the World Wide Web, they are pioneering new ways of sharing information. In The Decline and Fall of Public Broadcasting, David Barsamian gives an insider's account of these new media activists and the challenges they confront, drawing on his years of experience in public radio. Since 1986, Barsamian has been the producer of the highly acclaimed Alternative Radio, a weekly one-hour public affairs program broadcast in North America, Europe, South Africa, and Australia, as well as short-wave radio and the Internet. David Barsamian is the producer of the award-winning syndicated radio program Alternative Radio. His interview books with luminaries such as Noam Chomsky, Howard Zinn, and Edward W. Said have sold in the hundreds of thousands. His most recent interview book is Propaganda and the Public Mind: Conversations with Noam Chomsky. South End Press, 2001. He is also the author of Eqbal Ahmad: Confronting Empire. South End Press, 2000. Also available by David Barsamian: Propaganda and the Public Mind: Conversations with Noam Chomsky.
