depth readings including both popular and less well known examples Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society Illinois State Historical Society,1921 A New History of Classical Rhetoric George A. Kennedy,2009-07-01 George Kennedy's three volumes on classical rhetoric have long been regarded as authoritative treatments of the subject This new volume an extensive revision and abridgment of The Art of Persuasion in Greece The Art of Rhetoric in the Roman World and Greek Rhetoric under Christian Emperors provides a comprehensive history of classical rhetoric one that is sure to become a standard for its time Kennedy begins by identifying the rhetorical features of early Greek literature that anticipated the formulation of metarhetoric or a theory of rhetoric in the fifth and fourth centuries b c e and then traces the development of that theory through the Greco Roman period He gives an account of the teaching of literary and oral composition in schools and of Greek and Latin oratory as the primary rhetorical genre He also discusses the overlapping disciplines of ancient philosophy and religion and their interaction with rhetoric The result is a broad and engaging history of classical rhetoric that will prove especially useful for students and for others who want an overview of classical rhetoric in condensed form

The Development of University Teaching Over Time Tom O'Donoghue,2024-06-03 Examining two centuries of university education this book charts the development of pedagogical approaches since the year 1800 and how they have transformed higher education While institutions for promoting advanced learning in various forms have existed in Asia Africa and the Arab world for centuries the beginning of the nineteenth century saw the emergence of the modern model of a university with which we are familiar today This book argues that in the time since seven broad teaching approaches were developed across the world which continue to be used today the disputation the lecture the tutorial the research seminar workplace teaching teaching through material making and role play O Donoghue demonstrates how each has been reconfigured and developed over time in response to the changing nature of higher education as well as society more generally This expansive book will be of great interest to historians of education scholars of education more generally and teacher practitioners interested in the pedagogical models that shape modern academia

Indian Classical Music and the Gramophone, 1900-1930 Vikram Sampath,2022-06-30 In 1902 The Gramophone Company in London sent out recording experts on expeditions across the world to record voices from different cultures and backgrounds All over India it was women who embraced the challenge of overcoming numerous social taboos and aesthetic handicaps that came along with this nascent technology Women who took the plunge and recorded largely belonged to the courtesan community called tawaifs and devadasis in North and South India respectively Recording brought with it great fame brand recognition freedom from exploitative patrons and monetary benefits to the women singers They were to become pioneers of the music industry in the Indian sub continent However despite the pioneering role played by these women their stories have largely been forgotten Contemporaneous with the courtesan women adapting to recording technology was the anti nautch campaign that sought to abolish these women from the performing space and brand them as common prostitutes A vigorous renaissance and arts revival movement followed leading to the creation of a new classical paradigm in both North Indian Hindustani and South Indian Carnatic classical music This resulted in the standardization universalization and institutionalization of Indian classical music This newly created classical paradigm impacted future recordings of The Gramophone Company in terms of a shift in genres and styles Vikram Sampath sheds light on the role and impact of The Gramophone Company's early recording expeditions on Indian classical music by examining the phenomenon through a sociocultural historical and musical lens The book features the indefatigable stories of the women and their experiences in adapting to recording technology The artists from across India featured are Gauhar Jaan of Calcutta Janki Bai of Allahabad Zohra Bai of Agra Malka Jaan of Agra Salem Godavari Bangalore Nagarathnamma Coimbatore Thayi Dhanakoti of Kanchipuram Bai Sundarabai of Pune and Husna Jaan of Banaras
