Bidwell, 2006 Two dozen of the most prominent clinicians and scholars in the field reflect on The Formation of Pastoral Counselors from clinical theological and theoretical perspectives This unique book explores the challenges to the personal and professional formation of pastoral counselors in a cultural and historic context that's radically different from the era when the profession first emerged as a specialized ministry Contributors examine formation from a variety of contexts and perspectives including spirituality and gender address theological education and intercultural issues and present emerging models for pastoral counselors

Tri-level Identity Crisis Tapiwa N. Mucherera, Chris Kiesling, Anne Kiome Gatobu, 2020-07-31 This text captures the profound unacknowledged crisis that is unique to children of first generation immigrants by virtue of their being caught in a world of their parents culture of origin and their social experience in the United States The book makes the case for three levels of adolescent crisis unique to this population namely the general developmental crisis experienced by all adolescents as articulated by developmental theories the cultural identity crises experienced by ethnic minority persons as they encounter the layered racialization of American history and finally the unique crisis that arises from conflicting cultural values and morals when first generation immigrant parents wanting to preserve native values clash with their children who seek belonging in the Western context in which they currently reside The book traces the psychological emotional and social roots of the crisis The authors representing immigrants from different continents portray the unique ethnic minority challenges they encounter in coming to the US exemplifying further the tri level crisis Finally the book offers ways that parents can be proactive in helping their children navigate the potential tri level crisis through ITAV It Takes a Village camps and family palavers

Red Dirt Revival: a poetic memoir in 6 Breaths Tim'm West,2014-06-28 Red Dirt Revival a poetic memoir in 6 Breaths is a collection that offers personal meditations that speaks to vastly diverse and often unanticipated audiences naming vital specifics and moving to the poetic universality of pain and redemption A decade after his brave authorial debut Tim m West is still here to honor the dexterity and resilience of a book that has been everywhere from spoken word stages to black gay men s book clubs to feminist classrooms This expanded edition offers a 7th Breath speaking to the work s enduring power As Christina Accomando writes in the new introduction Red Dirt Revival not surprisingly is both a classic text and a living breathing work of art communication and community

Children Today ,1987 Eight Questions About Race Bishop Aubrey Shines,2020-09-25 People of faith have been in the vanguard of civil rights for 150 years and like all Americans of good will they wish to be on the right side of the divisive issue of racial justice Yet many have qualms and questions about the goals and methods espoused by Black Lives Matter which claims to speak for all Americans of color Is America really a racist society Have we truly failed our African American friends and neighbors on issues of equality and fairness What is Black Lives Matter Who are its leaders What do they want Does BLM really represent the interests of black Americans Above all what is the appropriate Christian response to the raging debate about race and justice in America These and other questions are addressed with clarity sensitivity deep knowledge of the subject and a strong foundation in biblical faith by Bishop Aubrey Shines This brief but informative book offers a guide and handy reference for pastors and congregants alike on how to think and talk about these profoundly challenging questions from a Christian perspective

The Crisis ,1980-04 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens

Congressional Record United States. Congress,1995 Here to Stay, Here to Fight Paul Field,Robin Bunce,Leila Hassan,Margaret Peacock,2019-09-20 From 1973 to 1988 Race Today the journal of the revolutionary Race Today Collective was at the epicentre of the struggle for racial justice in Britain. Placing race, sex and social class at the core of its analysis, it featured in its articles and pamphlets contributions from some of the leading writers and activists of the time: C. L. R. James, Darcus Howe, Linton Kwesi Johnson, Toni Morrison, Maya Angelou, Walter Rodney, Bobby Sands, Farrukh Dhondy and Mala Sen and many more. Here to Stay Here to Fight draws together many of these key articles and extracts into an impressive collection, the first book-length anthology of its kind, rescuing many contributions from the obscurity of inaccessible archives. Framing the original contributions, there is a general introduction which provides an overview of Race Today's 15-year history, section introductions providing context for each extract, written by writers and activists associated with the Collective, and a concluding section exploring the legacy of Race Today in contemporary social movements and debates around race, gender and class.
