Hopeful Realism in Urban Ministry Barry K. Morris, 2016-05-20 What pray tell does a faithful urban ministry require if not a triadic relationship of prayer justice and hope Could such a theologically conjunctive relationship of prayer justice and hope fortify urban ministry and challenge students and practitioners to ponder and practice beyond the box Frequently justice is collapsed to charity hope into wishful thinking or temporarily arrested despair and prayer a grasp at quick fix interventions An urban ministry's steadfast public and prophetic witness longs for the depth and width of this triad Via three countries decades of endeavors one chapter brainstorms urban ministry practices while another's literature survey signals crucial convictions Amid many seminal theologians are summoned to ground urban ministry intimations and implications Niebuhr on justice Moltmann on hope and Merton on contemplative prayer Evident is passion that fuels compassion in the service of justice hope that engages despair and prayer that draws from the contemplative center of it all thankful resources for long haul ministry The triad presses to illumine a concrete ministry's engagement of relentless forced option issues yet with significant networks resourcing Contrast awareness animates endurance The summary exegetes the original grace based serenity prayer Hence hope vitally balances realism's temptation to cynicism Realism saves hope from irrelevancy

OK2BG Jack Dunsmoor, 2015 OK2BG is narrative nonfiction a Memoir about a guy who wants to be a Mentor preferably to a teenager so they can have a decent meaningful conversation about stuff preferably with a kid at risk or just otherwise lost in order to help both the teenager as well as the determined subject of this story realize their unique potential find or reinforce their place in the world Overall a chronicle about the author's attempt over several years to understand the question of why do I want to be a Mentor which eventually helps him become a more insightful person Subsequently in September 2010 after a plague of teen suicides Jack turns his attention to researching gay biographies into optimistically appropriate groups of books for gay kids at risk from bullying After 5 years Jack has categorized 2 000 books in the form of Memoirs Biographies Autobiographies written by or about 1 000 allegedly gay men

The primary message in OK2BG is to read reassess before you run asunder Spirituality and the Writer Thomas Larson,2019-03-29 Today the surprisingly elastic form of the memoir embraces subjects that include dying illness loss relationships and self awareness Writing to reveal the inner self the pilgrimage into one s spiritual and or religious nature is a primary calling Contemporary memoirists are exploring this field with innovative storytelling rigorous craft and new styles of confessional authorship Now Thomas Larson brings his expertise as a critic reader and teacher to the boldly evolving and improvisatory world of spiritual literature In his book length essay Spirituality and the Writer Larson surveys the literary insights of authors old and new who have shaped religious autobiography and spiritual memoir from Augustine to Thomas Merton from Peter Matthiessen to Cheryl Strayed He holds them to an exacting standard they must render transcendent experience in the writing itself Only when the writer s craft prevails can the fleeting and profound personal truths of the spirit be captured Like its predecessor Larson s The Memoir and the Memoirist Spirituality and the Writer will find a home in writing classrooms and book groups and be a resource for students teachers and writers who seek guidance with exploring their spiritual lives

City of Prayer Rachel M. Srubas,2008 The desert will show you what you are and are not made of what you do and do not need Rachel Srubas Christians are familiar with Matthew s account of Jesus temptation in the desert We are familiar with Jesus pithy responses to the devil at the end of those forty days One does not live by bread alone but by every word that comes from the mouth of God Do not put the Lord your God to the test Worship the Lord your God and serve only him But we are likely less familiar with the pithy sayings of those the Desert Fathers and Mothers whom God led into the desert in surprising numbers throughout the early centuries of the church In City of Prayer Forty Days with Desert Christians Rachel Srubas offers readers a collection of reflections inspired by the wisdom of the Desert Fathers and Mothers the Abbas and Ammas Through the wisdom of these desert Christians illuminated by Srubas s powerful narrative readers will ponder such themes as solitude and perseverance illness and humility They will be inspired and challenged comforted and sustained Neither academic nor pietistic this book is candid intelligent and compelling Rachel M Srubas is a Presbyterian clergywoman and oblate of St Benedict She is also the author of Oblation Meditation on St Benedict s Rule Paraclete Press and her writings have appeared in The Christian Century and Weavings A Journal of Christian Spiritual Life

A Faithful Public-Prophetic Witness Barry K. Morris,2020-03-20 This book hails from decades of challenging trial and error work abundant reading and an enduring obligation to ministers activists and unsung lay heroes whose legacies matter As there is little that actually addresses the elusive meanings if not the dangers inherent in pursuing alleged spoils of success it is kairos time. Seemingly scarce resources and competition to make and maintain ministries in the city challenge those of us in the field or on the sidelines to speak, write and communicate clearly and convincingly not only for ourselves and our people past and present but for those who come along soon to receive the baton or wear the mantle. Concretely narrated with unique case studies, a cast of dozens contribute their earthy, earnest testimonies and are at long last energetically affirmed. Specifically, this work proffers constructive attention to the critical cautions concerning subtle temptations to succeed, including commodification, cooptation, communalism, clientelism and cowardice, and not bailing on fierce charity justice tensions with benevolence protectively dominant. Narrative analysis and biography as theology, social ethics, biblical theology and recent church history give apt attention to how a compelling case is possible for success if justice is practiced, given a hopeful realism and perspective of prophetic eschatology.

Solution-Oriented Spirituality Bill O'Hanlon, 2014-12-29 Skills and techniques from a master therapist on how to help clients connect to their lives spiritually. Although a growing number of Americans are turning to spirituality to help explain and supplement their lives and a vast majority identify as religious, psychotherapy has long been reluctant to work alongside clients' sense of something bigger. But what kind of resources might a spiritual sensibility offer from a mental health standpoint? How can therapists helpfully and respectfully integrate spiritual feelings into their work with clients? Bestselling author Bill O'Hanlon tackles these questions and others in this pioneering foray into the uses and pitfalls of spiritualities both secular and religious in a therapeutic setting. Here spirituality is defined by its three integral components: a feeling of connection to something beyond oneself, a capacity for compassion or feeling with, and a sense of responsibility to make a contribution to others and to the world. Each of these 3 Cs comes with illustrative anecdotes, case vignettes and specific techniques for unlocking clients' own spiritual resources. Solution-Oriented Spirituality is O'Hanlon at his best: erudite, conversational and committed to mining any resource that might help clients get unstuck from constrictive behavioral and thought patterns.

Soulfully Gay Joe Perez, 2007-05-08 Soulfully Gay is a personal memoir of an intellectually rigorous gay man wrestling with fundamental issues of meaning and self-acceptance. Joe Perez finds himself on a quest to understand what it means to be gay at the intersection of conflicts between homosexuality and Christianity, faith and skepticism, mysticism and madness. His journey unfolds amid challenges to his health as a recovering addict, a survivor of a psychotic episode and a man living with AIDS. Joe is able to integrate seemingly contradictory elements: his Roman Catholic upbringing versus his openly gay lifestyle, his authentic mystical experiences versus the delusions for which he was hospitalized. With a solid understanding of theology and an ability to see through the veils of political correctness, Joe brings a new level of intellect and understanding to the challenges of being a gay man.

Mysticism's Queer Flame Michael Bernard Kelly, 2018-09-03 Is the Christian mystical tradition a relic of another time shaped by celibates for celibates unable to engage meaningfully with people of our time who embrace their corporeality and sexuality as crucial aspects of their journey towards union with God This book reflects in serious theological depth and detail on the spiritual and sexual journeys of gay men of mature and committed Christian faith employing the Christian mystical tradition as the lens and the interlocutor in this process This study examines the major themes and stages of the mystical tradition as outlined by Evelyn Underhill but also including more recent work by Ruth Burrows Thomas Merton and Constance Fitzgerald Using methods of qualitative research it then considers the texts of in depth interviews conducted with men most of whom are theologians or spiritual leaders with a deep Catholic faith and all of whom are openly self affirmingly gay Finally it employs Ricoeur's hermeneutical theory to engage in a creative theological conversation between the traditional mystical stages and themes and these men's lives as described in their interviews This is a unique study that brings together ancient spirituality with contemporary lived religion As such it will be of interest to scholars of religious
