Postcolonial Writing in the Era of World Literature Baidik Bhattacharya,2018-06-14 This book explores the debates surrounding two dynamic fields postcolonial studies and world literature Contrary to many dominant narratives in critical theory it asserts that as an analytical framework the idea of world literature is dead the nineteenth century ideal of world literature had always and already been embedded in colonial histories and also because whatever promise that ideal held out has been exhausted by postcolonial Anglophone literature Through fresh and incisive readings of the postcolonial canon and some of its most prominent authors like Rudyard Kipling V S Naipaul J M Coetzee and Salman Rushdie the volume discusses how these Anglophone writings have used the banal and ordinary ideal of world literature to fashion out their own trajectories Ambitious in scope this book challenges many of the existing theoretical and literary frameworks and offers a radical reimagination of the fields The volume written in an accessible and lively prose will be indispensable for scholars and researchers of literature critical theory postcolonial studies cultural studies and comparative literature Bulletin New Haven Free Public Library,1894 Quarterly Index of Additions to the Milwaukee Public Library Milwaukee Public Library,1900 The Less Familiar Kipling William James Clarke,1922 Delphi Complete Works of Rudyard Kipling (Illustrated) Rudyard Kipling,2013-11-17 Rudyard Kipling is a paramount literary figure having created an impressive corpus of work as varied as treasured children s classics compelling novels accomplished poetry and critical war writings This comprehensive eBook presents Kipling s complete works with numerous illustrations rare texts appearing in digital print for
