Losing My Religion A Call For Help:

Losing My Religion Jeffrey Lang, 2004 Crucial to the vitality of any religious community is its ability to attract and engage descendants and converts By this measure notwithstanding the proliferation of mosques and Islamic organizations the Muslim community in America is not doing at all well This rather sober assessment motivates Dr Lang to address in this book the alienation from the Mosque of the great majority of America's homegrown Muslims In Losing My Religion A Call For Help the author comes to terms with many of the queries put to him by Americans of Muslim parentage and converts to Islam since the publication of his book Even Angels Ask in 1997 Lang asserts that to effectively respond to the general malaise of American born Muslims the Islamic establishment in America needs to be willing to listen to the doubts and complaints of the disaffected This entails engaging in open discussions on issues with which many in the Muslim community will be uncomfortable but Lang avers that such open dialogue will be of more benefit to young American Muslims struggling with their faiths than the covert and uniformed discussions that often take place or no discussion at all In addition to examining questions of theodicy hadith authenticity and moot practices within the American Muslim community the author includes many testimonials and inquiries that make this book informative

Losing My Religion Ria Barna, 2008-03-31 We all own a very special key It is the key that unlocks all that we are and all that we could ever want and dream of wanting Access to this key is so simple yet we make it so hard This key is always there waiting for us to use it to unlock our treasure chest and to release the power within it We all want so badly to be the winner of the big lottery but little do we know we already are the winner We think winning the lottery will give us the power to do what we want with our lives If we only knew that all the power is already within us They say that in the last days the hearts of many men will fail because of fear Our hearts fail every time we make a decision based in fear instead of believing to trust what is in our hearts Our heart is each and everyones very own treasure chest that is open every time we choose to believe what is in it Now if the key to all our happiness is in our treasure chest which lies within our heart wouldnt it make sense that our number one priority in life would be to discover our heart and what lies within it Every time we make a decision aligned with our heart we tap into our power and release a potent and invisible energy into the world This energy in turn orchestrates the universe to reflect back into our lives that ultimately leads us to fulfill our purpose We must believe that all of lifes experiences situations and relationships are there to take us on a great journey A journey that creates opportunities for self discovery and that promotes self growth and awareness One experience of life is death However it is not death in the physical sense but in a spiritual sense It is dying to who we thought we were and dying to what we thought we believed and to how we defined ourselves A lot of what we thought really isnt even our own thoughts They are actually thoughts we adopted from others They are thoughts and beliefs imposed on us by others beginning right down to when we were babies In this process to self discovery we must cut off the junk we gathered in life that are not our own in order to become in alignment to who we are God is the very essence of life the life within us and the life outside us As we continue the path of self discovery happiness is sure to follow The compass that should aid us in our journey is called bliss Following our bliss is the key to what is in your heart and ultimately to be one with God The key to our fulfillment in life is not to create separation between who God is and who we are We are one with God We are cocreators with God and we have the power to create whatever we want Understanding the Prophetic Hadith Dheya Saqer Al Jalahma, Yasser Ahmed Gomaa, 2023-04-21 This book examines two English translations of Mishk t ul Ma b by Al Tabr z and reflects on some of the key issues relating to Hadith translation The highly instructional nature of the Prophetic Hadith means that the comprehensibility of any translation is of great importance to a non Arabic speaking Muslim and there is a need to analyze available translations to determine whether these texts can function properly in the target culture The volume considers the relevance of skopos theory the concept of loyalty and the strategies of the translators in question There are also chapters that focus on the translation of Islamic legal terms and metaphors related to women formulaic expressions and reported nonverbal behavior in Fazlul Karim s 1938 and Robson s 1960 versions of the text Dilemmas of Authenticity Zaid Adhami, 2025-05-07 The past two decades have witnessed pervasive anxieties in US Muslim communities around a perceived crisis of faith As Zaid Adhami argues in this richly textured ethnography these concerns are fundamentally about the pressures and dilemmas of authenticity what it really means to be a Muslim While discussions about authenticity in Islam typically focus on maintaining tradition and competing claims to true Islam Adhami focuses instead on the powerful idea of being true to one s own self and what it means to have genuine belief Drawing on extensive conversations with American Muslims and careful readings of broader communal discourse Adhami shows that this drive for personal authenticity plays out in complicated ways It can produce deep doubt while also serving as the grounds to affirm tradition It can converge with revivalist modes of piety but it can also prompt emphatic challenges to communal orthodoxies Through vivid storytelling and sensitive analysis Adhami illuminates why religious doubt is often a source of intense anxiety in today s world and how people maintain their faith despite such unsettling uncertainty Interreligious Dialogue and Cultural Change Catherine Cornille, Stephanie Corigliano, 2012-08-17

The challenges and changes that take place when religions move from one cultural context to another present unique opportunities for interreligious dialogue In new cultural environments religions are not only propelled to enter into dialogue with the traditional or dominant religion of a particular culture religions are also invited to enter into dialogue with one another about cultural changes In this volume scholars from different religious traditions discuss the various types of dialogue that have emerged from the process of acculturation While the phenomenon of religious acculturation has generally focused on Western religions in non Western contexts this volume deals predominantly with the acculturation in the United States It thus offers a fresh look at the phenomenon of acculturation while also lifting up an often implicit or ignored dimension of interreligious dialogue American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 22:4 Johannes Grundmann,Md. Mahmudul Hasan,2005-10-10 The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS is an interdisciplinary journal that publishes a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world anthropology economics history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Submissions are subject to a blind peer review process Encyclopedia of Muslim-American History Edward E.
